INTRODUCTION.

In this Memoir, which embodies all the non-historical epigraphs so far collected from the protected monuments in Delhi, "No." refers to the number of the monument, "A" the name of the monument, "B" the position of the monument, "C" a brief history of the monument and its founder, based chiefly on the original historical records, and "D" the inscriptions.

Starting from the Delhi Fort the monuments have been arranged so far as possible in a sequence decided by their position. The monuments have been numbered serially and the inscriptions on each monument then numbered afresh. The Memoir contains in all about 900 epigraphs. For every Quranic verse, tradition of the Prophet, prayer, or passage from standard books of Arabic or Persian literature, full references have been quoted in footnotes or in the body of the report, so as to enable those interested in epigraphy to check them with the original books, or to study them in the translation with reference to the context.¹ The footnotes also contain critical and explanatory remarks and an exhaustive index² has been appended to the Memoir for the convenience of the readers.

(a) The Muslim rulers of India loved to ornament their mosques and tombs with inscriptions consisting of Quranic texts, traditions of the Prophet, Muslim creeds, moral teachings and passages of a religious character from standard authors. The monuments of the Pathān period are more profusely decorated than those of the Mughal period. Under the Slave, Khaljī and Lodī kings, and more particularly in the reigns of Altamsh, 'Alāu-d-Dīn Khaljī and Sikandar Lodī, inscriptional decoration was the chief characteristic of a building. Instances of this are to be seen in several buildings, especially in monuments Nos. CXIX (tomb of Altamsh), CXVI ('Alāi Gate) and XLV (Barā Gumbad mosque) bearing about sixty, seventy and a hundred and thirty inscriptions respectively.

Quranic quotations.—(b) In regard to the Quranic quotations the following texts are most often to be seen. It is difficult to decide which verses were meant exclusively for mosques and which for tombs as such a distinction does not seem to have been in the mind of the builders:—

- (i) The Throne Verse or Āyatul-Kursī.
- (ii) The ninety-nine attributes of God preceded by verses 22-3 of chapter 59 entitled "Al-Hashr" (The Banishment).
- (iii) Verses 17-8 and 25-6 of chapter 3 entitled "Āl-i-Imrān" (The Family of Amran).
- (iv) Verses 285-6 of chapter 2, entitled "Al-Baqarah" (The Cow).
- (v) Chapters 1, 109, 113, 114 and several long quotations from chapters 17, 36, 48, 55, 62, 67, 71 and 73.
- (vi) The 1st and 2nd Muslim creeds, entitled "Kalima-i-Taiyib" (Creed of Excellence) and "Kalima-i-Shahādat" (Creed of Witness), particularly the 1st Kalima.

² The Index is divided into four parts, viz., (a) Index of Quranic Verses, (b) Index of religious texts, other than the Quranic verses (c) Sayings, Mottos and Traditions, and (d) Non-historical Persian and Arabic verses.

(vii) The words 'Allāh,' 'Yā Allāhu,' 'Yā Fattāhu,' 'Al-Mulkulillāhi,' 'Subhānallāh,' 'Ḥasbiyallāhu.'

(c) On the gravestones also the 'Throne verse' and the 1st Muslim creed are frequently found, but on the graves of the later Lodī and Mughal periods the phrase 'Huwal Haiyu-l-lazī lā yamūtu' (He is living, never to die), verse 26-7 of chapter 55 entitled "Ar-Raḥmān" (The Beneficent) and verses 53 of chapter 39 entitled "Azzumar" (The Companies) are often inscribed.

(d) The tombs of martyrs are mostly graced by verses 154-5 of chapter 2 entitled "Al-Baqarah" (The Cow), and verses 168-9 of chapter 3 entitled "Al-i-Imrān" (The Family of Amran). A question may arise as to why these verses embellish the tomb of Mirzā 'Azīz Kokaltāsh (No. XXXIV) when it is a fact that he was never a martyr but died a natural death in 1033 A. H. (1623-4 A. D.). The reply in all probability is that he built his own tomb about the same time as that of his father Shamsu-d-Dīn Atgah Khān (No. XXXV) and the verses were carved under the impression that, like his father, he might also be killed by the supporters of his father's assassin Adham Khān, the youngest son of Akbar's wet-nurse Māham Anagah.

(e) Among the religious inscriptions under the Pathān kings right up to the close of the Saiyid dynasty, the traditions of the Prophet (احادیث) formed a chief factor, and regard seems often to have been paid to the fact that only such traditions were inscribed on the mosques or tombs as were connected with their character, e.g., the divine bliss promised to those who erected a mosque or provided it with a lamp or a prayer carpet, etc. The monuments of Sikandar Shāh Lodī largely bear Quranic texts, but traditional epigraphs, though sparingly used, are not entirely wanting.

(f) The fact that most of the traditions of the Prophet which grace the monuments are not traceable in the six recognized books of Ḥadīth (vide foot-notes) supports the common belief that the Ḥim-i-Ḥadīth in India was systematized early in the 11th century A. H. by Shāh 'Abdu-l-Ḥaq Muhaddith Dehlvi. Hence the authenticity of the traditions inscribed on the monuments, specially in regard to the exact words of the Prophet, cannot be guaranteed.

Scripts.—(g) The study of various scripts in different periods is no less interesting. Of the Kūfic and Naskh characters a number of varieties has been noticed. They may be supposed to have their peculiar value in regard to historical research: the Kūfic scripts, both plain and decorative, seem to have become less fashionable after the slave dynasty, for with a few exceptions all the Persian and Arabic epigraphs are to be found in various styles of Naskh only. A rare example of Kūfic Tughhrā incised in plaster has, however, been discovered in monument No. XXXII (tomb of Khān-i-Khānān) where an appropriate text, viz., the Prophet's last prayer on his deathbed, is recorded.

(h) Under the Mughals the (Naskh) Tughhrā style was prized most, and besides others the tomb of Atgah Khān bearing hymns in Arabic composed by a didactic author provides us with a well preserved specimen of it. The Nasta'liq lettering is the most modern of all scripts and is not traceable in inscriptions dating prior to 1530, the year of Humāyūn's accession.

MUHAMMAD ASHRAF HUSAIN.

DELHI FORT.

No. I.

(A) BRIDGE No. (1).

(B) In front of the barbican attached to the Lahore Gate.

(C) Built in 1811 in the reign of Akbar Shāh II, in place of the original drawbridge of wood.

(D) A Persian inscription in prose engraved on a marble slab, in Nasta'liq characters, records the erection of the bridge by Dilāwaru-d-Daula Robert Macpherson Bahādur Diler Jang for Akbar II in 1226 A. H. or 1811 A. D.

No. II.

(A) KHWĀBGĀH (DORMITORY).

(B) On the south of the Dīwān-i-Khāṣ (No. V).

(C) Built by Shāh Jahān during the years 1639-48.

(D) On the southern and northern arches is a Persian inscription in prose engraved in Nasta'liq characters recording its erection between the 12th Zilhajja, 1048 A. H. (16th April, 1639 A. D.) and the 24th Rabī'u-l-Awwal, 1058 A. H. (18th April, 1648 A. D.) by Emperor Shāh Jahān.

No. III.

(A) MUTHAMMAN BURJ (Octagonal Tower).

(B) To east of the Khwābgāh (No. II).

(C) Built by Shāh Jahān during the years 1639-48.

(D) On the western arch, in engraved Nasta'liq characters, in four lines.

(۱) اے بند پیائے و قفل بردل هشدار رہے درختہ چشم پائے در گل هشدار

(۲) عزم سفر مغرب و رہ در مشرق اے راہ رو پشت بمنزل هشدار

Translation.

(1) "O thou who hast chains on thy legs and a lock on thy heart, beware ! and O thou whose eye-lids are sewn up and whose feet are in the mire, beware!"

(2) Bound towards the west with thy face towards the east, O traveller with thy back towards the goal, beware!"

No. IV.

(A) BALCONY.

(B) On the east of the Muthamman Burj overlooking the Jumna.

(C) Built by Akbar Shāh II in 1808-9. It was from here that in 1911 Their Imperial Majesties King George V and Queen Mary showed themselves to their subjects assembled below.

(D) All along the arches there runs an engraved inscription in Persian verse in Nasta'liq letters recording its erection in 1223 A. H. (1808-9 A. D.) by Mu'īnu-d-Dīn Abu-n-Naṣr Akbar Shāh II.

No. V.

(A) DĪWĀN-I-KHĀṢ (Hall of Private Audience).

(B) On the south of the Khwābgāh and Muthamman Burj (Nos. II and III).

(C) Built by Shāh Jahān during the years 1639-48 to discuss important state affairs with his ministers and privy councillors and to receive foreign ambassadors, etc.

It was here that the Persian invader Nādir Shāh received the submission of Emperor Muhammad Shāh in 1739, and Bahādur Shāh II, the last titular King of Delhi, was tried for his life after the Indian Mutiny of 1857.

(D) Above the inner corner arches on the north and south the following Persian verse is written in duplicate in gold Nastu'liq letters :--

اگر فردوس بر روی زمین است همین است و همین است و همین است¹

Translation.

“ If there is a paradise on the face of the earth, it is this, it is this, it is this.”

No. VI.

(A) BRIDGE No. (2).

(B) In front of the barbican attached to the Delhi Gate.

(C) The same as note (C) on Bridge No. (1) noticed above.

(D) The same as note (D) on Bridge No. (1) noticed above.

No. VII.

(A) *JĀMI' MASJID*²

(B) Near the south-west corner of the Parade Ground.

(C) Also known as the Masjid-i-Jahānnumā, this mosque was built by Shāh Jahān in 1650 at a cost of 10 lakhs of rupees, vide Inscription No. (2) under note (D) infra.

(D) (1) On the marble spandrels of the central arch is یا هادی (O Guide) in Tughrā letters engraved in black slate.

(2) Above the smaller side arches on the north and south of the central archway leading into the prayer chamber is a Persian inscription engraved in Naskh letters recording the erection of the mosque by Shāh Jahān in a period of six years on Friday the 10th of Shawwāl, 1060 A. H. (6th October, 1650 A. D.) at a cost of 10 lakhs of rupees.

(3) Prayer Chamber. Above the principal marble mihrāb bordered by a red sandstone cusped arch, in Naskh characters.

Two separate verses of the Qurān.

(a) Pt. XI, Ch. 9 entitled التوبة (The Immunity), Sec. 13, a portion of verse 108 preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم i.e., from التقرى up to الله يحب المطهرين

(b) Pt. XXIV, Ch. 39 entitled الزمر (The Companies), Sec. 6, Verse 53, but without بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning.

¹ According to Shāhnawāz Khān this verse was composed by Hazrat Amīr Khusrū in praise of the Delhi of his time, vide Ma'ā'iz-i-Umarā, Vol. III, (published by the Asiatic Society of Bengal, Calcutta, 1309 H.), p. 464.

² Although the Jāmi' Masjid is not a protected monument yet it has been included in this book on account of its architectural, historical and epigraphical importance. No other unprotected monument has, however, been incorporated.

(4) On the white marble spandrels of the principal mihrāb, in circular medallions, in Tughhrā characters.
یا غفار (O Forgiver).

(5) At the north-west corner of the central tank is a small area enclosed on the north, west and south by a white marble railing which bears a Persian inscription in Nasta'liq letters recording its construction in 1180 A. H. (1766 A. D.) by Muḥammad Taḥsīn, a eunuch, who had seen the Prophet at that spot in his dream.

No. VIII.

(A) SUNAHRI MASJID (Golden Mosque).

(B) In Muḥalla Daryāganj, to south of the Fort.

(C) Built in 1751 by Nawwāb Qudsiya Begam who, though a dancing girl, became an influential begam in the ḥaram of Emperor Muḥammad Shāh and enjoyed a mansab of 50,000 in the reign of her son Aḥmad Shāh.

(D) The mosque contains no inscription except the one above the central arch. It is in Persian verse in Nasta'liq characters recording its erection in 1164 A. H. (1751 A. D.) in the reign of Emperor Aḥmad Shāh by his mother Nawwāb Qudsiya Begam under the superintendence of Nawwāb Bahādur Jāwīd Khān.

No. IX.

(A) LĀL DARWĀZA, also known as Kābuli Darwāza.

(B) To left of the Delhi-Muttra road, near the Koṭla Fīroz Shāh.

(C) It was probably the northern gate of Sher Shāh's Delhi built about the year 1540 A. D.

(D) The only inscriptional decoration it bears is the word الله inscribed in embossed Naskh letters in small circular bosses of red sandstone, four of which are to be seen on its north face and two on the west.

No. X.

(A) MOSQUE OF SHAIKH 'ABDU-N-NABI.

(B) On the east of the Delhi-Muttra road beyond the Koṭla Fīroz Shāh.

(C) According to an Arabic inscription in verse (now placed in the Delhi Fort Museum of Archaeology) the mosque was built by Shaikh 'Abdu-n-Nabī Nu'mānī in 983 A. H. (1575-76 A. D.). He was the Sadru-s-Sadūr in the court of Akbar and was murdered in 992 A. H. (1584 A. D.) under the Emperor's orders probably at the instigation of Faizī, the elder brother of Abu-l-Faẓl, who had conceived an aversion to him on account of certain private affairs.

(D) The mosque is decorated throughout with circular discs containing the words يا الله (O God) or يا فتاح (O Opener). The western façade is embellished with four small circular medallions made of plaster bearing the phrase بحان الله (Praise be to Allāh) and with four large ones inscribed with the 1st Muslim creed, i.e., لا اله الا الله محمد رسول الله (There is no god but Allāh; Muḥammad is the Prophet of Allāh). The central compartment of the prayer chamber contains four plastered medallions, two large and two small, with the same Muslim creed artistically cut in them.

No. XI.

(A) SHER SHĀH'S MOSQUE.

(B) To east of the Barā Darwāza in the Purānū Qila'.

(C) Erected by Sher Shāh Sūrī in 948 A. H. (1541-2 A. D.), it probably served as a model to Akbar in the construction of the Jāmi' Masjid at Fatehpur Sikri which it resembles in various details.

It is the common feature of a mosque to build a mimbar or pulpit to north of the principal mīhrāb. But the fact that this mosque does not contain any pulpit nor is there any sign of its being demolished subsequently leads one to conclude that a wooden one was originally designed for the Imām to stand on when delivering a sermon on the occasion of congregational prayers.

(D) The inscriptions are mostly in embossed Naskh characters but in one or two instances the Kūfī script is also employed.

(1) Round the central arch opening into the prayer chamber. Qurān, Pt. XXVI, Ch. 48 entitled الفتح (The Victory), Secs. 1-2, Verses 1-14, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم .

(2) Round the arch to north of the central arch.

Qurān, Pt. XXIX, Ch. 73 entitled المزمّل (The Wrapped Up), Secs. 1-2, Verses 1-20, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم .

(3) Round the arch to south of the central arch.

Qurān, Pt. XXIX, Ch. 67 entitled الملك (The Kingdom), Secs. 1-2, Verses 1-20, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم .

(4) On the sides of the central arched entrance to the prayer chamber there are two red sandstone arched recesses containing in the middle a circular medallion bearing the 1st Muslim creed, and on the spandrels the word الله.

The west wall of the prayer chamber is provided with five arched recesses or mīhrābs, bearing several non-historical epigraphs. Starting from the north the mīhrābs bear the following inscriptions:—

(5) Round the 1st mīhrāb.

Qurān, Pt. I, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 1, Verses 1-6, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم .

(6) On the red sandstone arch of the 1st mīhrāb.

Qurān, Pt. XXX, Ch. 107 entitled الماعون (The Alms), Verses 1-7, but only up to الذين هم يرآؤن with بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning.

(7) On a white marble slab inside the 1st mīhrāb.

Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 3 entitled آل عمران (The Family of 'Amran), Sec. 3, Verses 25-6, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم .

(8) Under the above Inscription No. (7), on the arch of the recess.

Qurān, Pt. XII, Ch. 12 entitled يوسف (Joseph), Sec. 3, a portion of Verse 21 i.e., from والله غالب up to الناس لا يعلمون .

(9) Under the above Inscription, No. (8), there are two red sandstone bosses containing the words يا فتاح or الله carved in Naskh letters.

(10) Round the 2nd mīhrāb to north of the central mīhrāb.

Qurān, Pt. XXVIII, Ch. 62 entitled الجمعة (The Congregation), Secs. 1-2, Verses 1-9, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم .

The central bands of the outer marble arch are decorated with octagonal medallions bearing الفتح (The Opener).

(11) Round the white marble arched recess inside the mihṛāb.

Two separate chapters of the Qurān—

(a) Pt. XXX, Ch. 113 entitled الفلق (The Dawn), Verses 1-5, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم .

(b) Pt. XXX, Ch. 114 entitled الناس (The Men), Verses 1-6, but without بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning.

(12) Under the Inscription No. (11) supra, above the small arched recess of marble there appears the phrase سبحان الله (Praise be to Allāh) in embossed Naskh characters, الملك الله (Kingdom is for Allāh) in embossed Tughṛā letters and لا اله الا الله محمد رسول الله (There is no god but Allāh, Muḥammad is the Prophet of Allāh) in Kūfī characters in relief.

Further below the phrases given under the Inscription No. (12), a Persian couplet is inscribed in Naskh lettering in relief.

تا جهان آباد باشد این مقام آباد باد خلق عالم اندرش هم خرم و هم شاد باد

Translation.

“So long as this world is populated, may this place be populated, (and) may the people of the world in it be happy and cheerful.”

(13) Inside the white marble arched recess in the 2nd mihṛāb.

Qurān, Pt. XXX, Ch. 112 entitled الخلاص (The Unity), Verses 1-4, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم . Underneath it the 1st Muslim creed and the words الملك القدوس (The King, the Holy) are inscribed while, further below it, is the word الله which also appears on the other two discs decorating the spandrels of the arch of the recess.

(14) Round the 3rd or central mihṛāb.

Qurān, Pt. XXII, Ch. 36 entitled يس (Yāsīn), Sec. 1, Verses 1-12, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم .

(15) On the marble arch of the inner mihṛāb.

Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 40, Verse 284.

(16) Round the arched recess inside the inner mihṛāb noticed above.

Qurān, Pt. I, Ch. 1 entitled الفاتحة (The Opening), Verses 1-7, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم and after this the words آمين الله كافي (So let it be. Allāh is enough).

(17) Above the arch of the recess in the central mihṛāb.

The 1st Muslim creed preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم .

The spandrels of the arch are ornamented by the word الله and on the right and left of the inner marble recess are the phrases حسبى الله or سبحان الله beautifully inlaid in Naskh characters. The central bands of the marble arch are embellished with octagonal discs inscribed with the phrase حسبى الله (Allāh is enough for me).

(18) Round the arch of the fourth mihṛāb immediately to south of the principal mihṛāb.

Qurān, Pt. XXIX, Ch. 71 entitled نوح (Noah), Sec. 1, Verses 1-20, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم .

* It is the 1st Muslim creed, entitled كلمة طيب (Creed of Purity).

(19) On the marble arch.

Qurān, Pt. XVI, Ch. 18 entitled الكهف (The Cave), Sec. 12, Verses 107-10.

(20) On the stone slabs arranged in a semi-circle above the fourth mihrāb.

The same as Inscription No. 3(a) on Mont. No. VII (Jāmi' Masjid), p. 4.

(21) On the arch of the inner marble mihrāb.

Verses from two separate chapters of the Qurān---

(a) Pt. III, Ch. 3 entitled آل عمران (The Family of Amran), Sec. 2, Verses 17-8, but only up to عند الله (The God) without being preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(b) Pt. VII, Ch. 6 entitled الأنعام (The Cattle), Sec. 1, Verses 1-2, but without being preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(22) On the white marble mihrāb.

Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 34, Verse 255. This verse is known as the آية الكرسي (Throne Verse) and is generally inscribed on tombs and mosques, vide also Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muḥammad Shāh), p. 32, etc.

(a) Under the Throne Verse there appears the phrase سبحان الله in embossed Naskh letters, the 1st Muslim creed in Kūfī characters in relief, and الملك لله in embossed Tughṛā lettering. Cf. also Inscription No. (12) supra.

(b) Further below, there are two Persian verses in embossed Naskh characters and they read as follows:—

(۱) الهی رحم کن کا لود گانیم بخون دل جگر پالود گانیم
(۲) هدایت را زموز رنی پدیدار که مادر کار خود کم بود گانیم

Translation.

(1) "O God, show mercy since we are polluted (with sins); with the blood of (our) heart our liver is washed.

(2) Make manifest (Thy) guidance properly for in our own work we have little wisdom."

(23) Inside the white marble arched recess in the same 4th mihrāb.

Under the word الله repeated twice is the 112th chapter of the Qurān entitled الاخلاص (The Unity), Verses 1-4 but without بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning. Cf. also Inscription No. 13 above.

Underneath the above verses, the 1st Muslim creed and the phrases حسبي الله and الملك القدوس are inscribed in embossed Naskh.

(24) Round the arched recess in the fifth or southernmost mihrāb.

Qurān, Pt. XXVIII, Ch. 59 entitled الحشر (The Banishment), Sec. 3, Verses 21-4, but without بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning.

(25) On the red sandstone arch of the above mihrāb.

Qurān, Pt. XXX, Ch. 105 entitled الفيل (The Elephant), Verses 1-5, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(26) On the white marble inner mihrāb.

Qurān, Pt. XXX, Ch. 109 entitled الكافرون (The Unbelievers), Verses 1-6.

(27) Under the Inscription No. (26) on arch of the marble recess.

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ خَلِيلَ اللَّهِ

Translation.

“There is no god but Allāh, Abraham is the Friend of Allāh.”

Underneath this creed the word الله is seen repeated twice and further below it the words يا فتاح .

(28) The mosque is ornamented throughout, inside and outside, with small conical discs containing الله or one or the other of the following phrases :—

يا الله , الملك لله , سبحان الله , حسبى الله

No. XII.

(A) TALĀQĪ GATE (Forbidden Gate).

(B) The northern gate of the Purānā Qila’.

(C) Built in 940 A. H. (1533-4 A. D.) about the same time as the Barā Darwāza on the west (No. XIII).

(D) (1) On the east side of the entrance is a very faint inscription in Indian ink which is fast fading out. It seems to be a mere scribbling and reads as follows :—

فتحت ابواب الجنان و غلقت ابواب النيران *

Translation.

“The gates of paradise are opened and the gates of hell are closed.”

(2) The recess on the west side of the entrance also bears scribblings in Indian ink too faint to be deciphered. To interest the readers, however, a reading of the Persian verse recorded in the List of Hindu and Muhammadan Monuments in the Delhi Province (Vol. II, p. 94) is given below :—

این همایون خانه را یا رب نگهدار از خلل چون بنای خاصه سلطان زاده هر دو سر است¹

Translation.

“O God preserve this house of Humāyūn (Lit. auspicious house) from damage.....”

No. XIII.

(A) BARĀ DARWĀZĀ (Big Gate).

(B) The western gate of the Purānā Qila’.

(C) Vide note (C) on Mont. No. XII above.

(D) Only the uppermost story is embellished with discs containing the word الله in Naskh letters while there are faint traces of the following text written in Indian ink like the Inscriptions Nos. (1) and (2) on Mont. No. XII (Talāqī Gate) :—

The same as Inscription No. (8) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh’s Mosque), p. 6.

* It is not a Quranic verse, but it seems to be a portion of the Prophet’s tradition praising the sacred month of Ramāzān and promising Divine bliss to the Muslims who keep fasts during that month.

No. XIV.

(A) HUMĀYŪN DARWĀZĀ.

(B) The southern gate of the Purānā Qila'.

(C) Built in 950 A. H. (1543-4 A. D.) in the reign of Sher Shāh.

(D) There is no Quranic or non-historical epigraph anywhere, but very faint traces of an inscription in Persian verse written in Nasta'liq letters in Indian ink are to be seen recording the date of the erection of the gate in 950 A. H. (1543-44 A. D.) by order of Ghāzī Khān Lohānī in the reign of Sher Shāh Sūrī.

No. XV.

(A) KHAIRU-L-MANĀZIL MOSQUE.

(B) On the west side of the Delhi-Muttra road and to south-west of the Purānā Qila'.

(C) Built by Akbar's wet nurse Māham Anagah in 969 A. H. (1561-2 A. D.) under the superintendence of Shihābu-d-Dīn Aḥmad Khān.

(D) (1) Over the central arch of the prayer chamber is an historical epigraph in Persian verse assigning the erection of the mosque to Māham Anagah, a wet nurse of Emperor Akbar under the superintendence of Shihābu-d-Dīn Aḥmad Khān. The chronogram of its erection was found in the words "Khairu-l-Manāzil". (The best of the houses) yielding 969 A. H. (1561-62 A. D.).

(2) Round the central arch leading into the prayer chamber. Fragmentary.

Qurān, Pt. XV, Ch. 17 entitled بنی اسرائیل . (The Israelites), Sec. 1, Verses 1-8, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم .(3) Round the central mihrāb in the prayer chamber, in Naskh character cut in plaster. Fragmentary. آية الكرسي (Throne Verse) but without بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning. Cf. Inscription No. (22) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, etc.(4) The prayer chamber is ornamented with circular medallions made of lime plaster bearing one or the other of the following words and phrases in Naskh letters in incised plaster:—

يا الله , يا الله , يا فتاح , الملك الله and the 1st Muslim creed.

No. XVI.

(A) MOSQUE (Nameless).(B) Situated in a dilapidated building, locally known as the Sarāi, at village Azimganj.

(C) Nothing of it is to be seen except a much damaged pucca court and an arch. It seems to be a monument of the Mughal period.

(D) The spandrels of the arch in situ are ornamented with circular medallions bearing the following fragmentary inscription in Naskh characters cut in plaster.

[عجلوا] الصلوة قبل الفرت و عجلوا [التوبة] قبل الموت *

* It is neither a Quranic verse nor a tradition of the Prophet, but according to Imām Fakhr-u-d-Dīn Rāzī, author of the Ḥadāiq-u-l-Anwār, it is a saying attributed to Ḥazrat 'Alī bin Abī Tālib, a son-in-law of the Prophet. In some places it is also found as عجلوا بالصلوة قبل الفرت وعجلوا بالتوبة قبل الموت

Translation.

(B) On the north-east of Humāyūn's tomb at a distance of about 250 yards from the garden enclosure.

(C) Vide note (C) on Sundarwālā Burj (No. XVII).

(D) (1) The monument was originally ornamented, both internally and externally, by plastered medallions containing the words یا الله or الله or الملك لله or the 1st Muslim creed, traces of which are still to be found here and there. Four large medallions made of lime plaster are inscribed with the 1st Muslim creed in Naskh letters and they decorate the spandrels of the eastern and western arches.

(2) Inside the Gumbad, at a height of 7 ft. 6 in. from the floor, in Tughrā characters incised in plaster.

The same as Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XVIII (Unnamed Tomb locally known as Manhāriwālā Gumbad), p. 11.

(3) A fragmentary Persian inscription in Nasta'liq characters in incised plaster is still traceable on the dado panels. It is in verse and reads as follows:—

No. XX (A).

(A) LAKKAṚWĀLĀ GUMBAD.

(B) To north-west of Chhoṭā Batāshewālā Gumbad (No. XX).

(C) Vide note (C) on Sundarwālā Burj (No. XVII).

(D) The interior bears the following inscriptions:—

(1) On the spandrels of the arches on the north, south and east, in Naskh letters cut in plaster.

1st Muslim creed in large circular medallions.

(2) On the spandrels of the arched recesses on either side of the four arches there are small circular medallions bearing the words یا فتاح in Naskh characters cut in plaster.

(3) On the spandrels of the arched recesses above the Inscription No. (2) on all the four sides, in Naskh letters cut in plaster.

الله یا in small circular medallions.

(4) On the spandrels of the arched window above the entrances on the north, south and west, there are small circular medallions inscribed with the words یا بدیع

(5) Above the niches inside the tomb in embossed Naskh letters cut in plaster.

Qurān, Pt. XII, Ch. 12 entitled یوسف (Joseph), Secs. 4-5, Verses 34-40, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم Cf. also Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XVIII (Unknown Tomb), p. 11, etc.

No. XXI.

(A) BARĀ BATĀSHEWĀLĀ MAḤAL.

(B) About 90 yards to north of the north-west corner of the garden of Humāyūn's tomb (No. XXIV).

(C) It is the tomb of Mirzā Muẓaffar Ḥusain who died in 1012 A. H. (1603-4 A. D.). He was a Timurid both on his father's and mother's sides. His wife, Sulṭān Khānam, was the eldest daughter of Emperor Akbar and his sister, Nūru-n-Nisā, was married to Prince Salīm (afterwards Emperor Jahāngīr).

(D). (1) The tomb is externally ornamented on the east and west by large plastered medallions bearing the 1st Muslim creed, while the interior is embellished with small discs made of plaster containing the 1st Muslim creed and the words يا الله . In the eastern room there are a few circular medallions inscribed with the words يا قائم يا دايـم (O Self-subsisting, O Ever-lasting) incised in plaster.

(2) The western room is decorated, as usual, with the same sort of circular medallions made of plaster, but they bear the 1st Muslim creed or the words يا بدیع or يا رهاب . Again, there are four plastered medallions containing, in the middle, the words يا فتاح in Tughrā characters and, around them, the names of the Prophet's four sons طيب طاهر قاسم ابراهيم (Ṭaiyib, Ṭāhir, Qāsim and Ibrāhīm) in Nuskh letters.(3) The east wall of the west room bears scribblings in Indian ink. They are of historical nature since there is one inscription, dated the 28th Ṣafar, 13th year of the reign of Shāh Jahān, corresponding with 1050 A. H. (1640-1 A. D.) in Shikasta characters, mentioning that one Dalīp Chānd stayed here for some time.(4) Immediately opposite to the west entrance is a niche above which there is a Persian couplet written in Indian ink in Nasta'liq letters. The 1st hemistich is obliterated but the 2nd reads as follows:—

گنبدے شکل بخاری چو گنبد ارزق

Translation.

“A dome (light) as the vapour (and high) as the blue dome (of the heaven).

(5) An historical inscription in Persian verse appears on the southern entrance to the central chamber recording the name of the scribe, 'Abdu-n-Nabī Al-Ḥusainī, and the chronogram of the death of Mirzā Muẓaffar Ḥusain yielding the date 1012 A. H. (1603-4 A. D.).

No. XXII.

(A) NILĪ CHHATRĪ or the tomb of Naubat Khān.

(B) At the 3rd milestone and some 25 yards east of the Delhi-Muttra road.

(C) The tomb is said to have been built by Naubat Khān, a noble at the court of Emperor Akbar, during his lifetime.

(D) (1) The exterior of the tomb appears to have been originally ornamented with Quranic quotations, traces of which are still visible. In some places only قال الله تبارک و تعالی (The Holy and Most High Allāh said) is readable while in two places fragments of verses 26-7 of Ch. 55 entitled الرحمن (The Merciful) are to be seen, vide also inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XXIV (Humāyūn's Tomb), p. 16.

Inside the tomb chamber only بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم (In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Compassionate) appears twice in a much damaged condition, while fragments of the following Quranic texts in Naskh characters are also to be found here and there though they are much worn out.

(2) Pt. XXVIII, Ch. 62 entitled الجمعة (The Congregation) up to the end, vide also Inscription No. (10) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6, etc.

(3) Pt. XXIII, Ch. 37 entitled الصف (The Rangers), Sec. 5, Verses 180-2.

No. XXIII.

(A) SABZ BURJ.

(B) At the junction of the Delhi-Muttra road and the road from Safdar Jang to Humāyūn's tomb.

(C) Locally so called, the monument is a tomb erected in the early Mughal period.

(D) The exterior is ornamented by several circular medallions, large and small, made of lime plaster, containing the 1st Muslim creed in Naskh letters, but there is no inscription inside the tomb chamber.

No. XXIV.

(A) HUMĀYŪN'S TOMB.

(B) About two furlongs to east of the Delhi-Muttra road between the 3rd and 4th milestones.

(C) The tomb, often styled as "The Graveyard of the house of Tīmūr", was erected in 973 A. H. (1565 A. D.) by Humāyūn's wife, Ḥamīda Bānū Begam, the mother of Emperor Akbar, at a cost of fifteen lakhs of rupees.

Besides the grave of Emperor Humāyūn there are about 150 graves in the cells below, and several Ta'wizes inside the mausoleum proper and on the paved platform around it. None of them, except two, bears any historical inscription and unfortunately no record is available regarding their identification, although according to local tradition the following distinguished members of the royal family lie buried there :—

- (i) Dārā Shikoh.
- (ii) Muḥammad A'zam Shāh.
- (iii) Jahāndār Shāh.
- (iv) Farrukhsiyar.
- (v) Rafī'u-d-Daula.
- (vi) Rafī'u-d-Darajāt.
- (vii) Aḥmad Shāh.
- (viii) 'Ālamgīr II.

(D) (1) On the top of the finial is the 1st Muslim creed in Naskh characters.

(2) The south-west corner chamber contains two marble ta'wizes or grave-stones, said to mark the graves of Shāh 'Ālam Bahādur Shāh and his wife. The female gravestone bears the آية الكرسي (Throne Verse) preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم in embossed Naskh characters on three sides of it, while on the top surface there appear the 26th and 27th verses of Ch. 55 entitled الرحمن (The Merciful) vide also Inscription No. (1) on Mont. No. XXII (Nīlī Chhatrī), pp. 14-15.

(3) The south-east corner chamber contains three marble ta'wīzes traditionally known to be the graves of three of Humāyūn's daughters—(a) The first on the east bears آية الكرسي (Throne Verse) on three sides of it in embossed Naskh characters with the year 988 (A. H. or 1580-1 A. D.) on the west side. On the top of it there appear the 1st Muslim creed in Naskh letters and below it verses 26-7 of Ch. 55 entitled الرحمن (The Merciful) in embossed Tughrā characters.

(b) The 2nd grave bears the same inscriptions as the 1st, No. 3(a) supra except that it is undated.

(c) The 3rd grave also is inscribed like the 1st grave No. 3 (a) but the date on its western side is 1001 (A. H. or 1592-3 A. D.).

(4) The north-east corner chamber contains two white marble ta'wīzes related to cover the graves of Humāyūn's wife, Ḥamīda Bānū Begam, commonly called Nawwāb Ḥājī Begam, and her sister—(a) the one on the east, i.e., the so called grave of Ḥājī Begam's sister, bears آية الكرسي or Throne Verse as noticed on grave No. 3 (a) supra, but the date on it is 990 (A. H. or 1582 A. D.).

(b) The gravestone of Ḥājī Begam has its top plain and uninscribed, but on the three sides of it the Throne Verse is inscribed.

(5) To the north-west of the mausoleum proper, on the stone-paved terrace is a marble grave, three sides of which bear the Throne Verse, while on the 4th or south side there appears an historical inscription recording the name of its occupant Muḥammad Sulṭān, son of Roṣḥan Koka, and the year 978 A. H. (1570-1 A. D.).

Roṣḥan Koka was one of the few adherents of Humāyūn during his exile and is frequently mentioned in the Humāyūn Nāma of Gulbadan Bānū Begam.

(6) On the marble *ta'wīz to south of the grave No. (5) noticed above, in embossed Naskh characters.

(a) On the west side.

Qurān, Pt. II, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 19, Verses 154-5, but without being preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم and the last verse being quoted only up to ولنبلونكم بشي .

(b) On the east side.

Qurān, Pt. IV, Ch. 3 entitled آل عمران (The Family of Amran), Sec. 17, Verses 168-9, but without being preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم and the last verse being only up to من فضله .

(c) On the top surface.

* The grave is supposed by some to be that of Dārā Shikoh, the eldest son of Shāh Jahān, who was killed by his brother, Emperor Aurangzeb. But the assumption is evidently erroneous inasmuch as Aurangzeb could certainly not have tolerated the idea of Dārā being entitled a martyr and himself consequently a cursed assassin, when in contemporary histories both he and his son Sulaimān Shikoh are repeatedly mentioned as "Undignified" (سلیمان بے شکوه or دارا بے شکوه). It may be the grave of one of the so many Mughal princes killed in battles or by treachery.

Qurān, Pt. XXVII, Ch. 55 entitled الرحمن (The Beneficent), Sec. 2, Verses 26-7, vide also Inscription No. (2) supra.

(7) On the east side of the stone-paved terrace is a ta'wīz of red sandstone bearing a Persian inscription which records the name of the occupant of the grave, Sangī Begam, daughter of Muḥammad 'Ālamgīr II, and the year of her death 1181 A. H. (1767 A. D.).

(8) In the north-west corner of the compound of Humāyūn's mausoleum there are seventeen graves, only three of which are inscribed. One of them bears بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم and the other two only the 1st Muslim creed in Naskh characters.

No. XXV.

(A) TOMB OF THE "BARBER."

(B) In the enclosure of Humāyūn's tomb, at the south-east corner.

(C) Nothing can be said with certainty about the persons who lie buried here or about the legend as to how the building came to be called the "Tomb of the Barber." It contains two marble graves, one of a male bearing a qalamdān and the other of a female bearing a talqhtī.

(D) (1) On the north, east and west sides of the ta'wīz covering the grave of a male, in Naskh letters.

آية الكرسي or Throne Verse, vide Inscription No. (22) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's Mosque), p. 8, Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XXIV (Humāyūn's tomb), p. 15, etc.

(2) On the top surface of the above gravestone يافتح is inscribed in Tughrā characters and the 1st Muslim creed in Naskh.

(3) On the north, east and west sides of the ta'wīz covering the grave of a female, in embossed Naskh characters.

The Throne Verse as in Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XXIV (Humāyūn's tomb), but the date on its west side is 999 (A. H. 1590-1 A. D.).

(4) On the top surface of the above ta'wīz.

Verses 26-27 of Ch. 55 entitled الرحمن (The Beneficent) but the year 999 (A. H. 1590-91 A. D.) under the last word الاكرم . Cf. also Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XXIV (Humāyūn's tomb), p. 16, etc.

No. XXVI.

(A) NILI MASJID (Blue Mosque).

(B) It is a small wall mosque situated within the enclosure of Humāyūn's tomb on the south.

(C) It seems to belong to the early Mughal period.

(D) (1) The western mihrāb is ornamented with two semi-circular medallions made of plaster bearing the words يا حنان (O Guardian) in Tughrā letters.

(2) The other inscriptional decorations are (a) two plastered discs containing the 1st Muslim creed in Naskh letters, and (b) another plastered disc, between them, bearing the following inscription in Kūfic Tughrā characters artistically inscribed in plaster:—

اللهم اغفر لي وارحمني و ارحمني بالرفيق الاعلى

For a translation of the above, vide Inscription No. (4) on Mont. No. XXXII (Tomb of Khān-i-Khānān), p. 21.

(3) The 1st Muslim creed in Naskh letters appears also on the plastered medallions decorating the central entrance on the east and also the top of the plastered grave situated at the south-east corner of the court of the mosque under notice.

No. XXVII.

(A) NĪLĀ GUMBAD or tomb of FAHĪM KHĀN.

(B) To south-east of Humāyūn's mausoleum, outside the walled enclosure.

(C) The tomb is believed to have been erected by Khān-i-Khānān 'Abdu-r-Rahīm Khān in 1034 A. H. (1624-25 A. D.) over the remains of his faithful attendant, Fahīm Khān, who was killed in action against Mahābat Khān, his master's deadly enemy. The absence of the grave leads some people to suppose that it was a place of recreation built by Humāyūn for himself, but the idea implied in the epigraphs detailed below suggests that it was decidedly a tomb and could never have been designed for recreation purposes.

(D) The interior of the domed structure is ornamented by seven small plastered medallions, the four on the east and west bearing يا فتاح (O Opener), while the three on the north and south يا ستار or O Veiler (of sin). Besides these there are sixteen large circular medallions decorating the spandrels of the inner arches. Eight of them contain floral decorations in incised plaster whereas the remaining eight are inscribed. Those on the east and west bear in Tughrā characters the verses 26-7 of Ch. 55 entitled الرحمن (The Merciful), and those on the north and south bear the 1st Muslim creed in Naskh characters cut in plaster.

No. XXVIII.

(A) AFSARWĀLA GUMBAD.

(B) To south-west of the western gate of Humāyūn's tomb (No. XXIV).

(C) Nothing is known so far about the history of the tomb, but according to a date inscribed on one of the graves in the tomb chamber it is supposed to have been built about the year 974 A. H. (1566-67 A. D.).

(D) The tomb chamber contains four graves—two of white marble, the third of red sandstone and the fourth of rubble masonry. Only one of them made of white marble is inscribed, the Throne Verse appearing in Naskh letters on its north, east and west sides and Verses 26-27 of Ch. 55 entitled الرحمن (Beneficent) in Tughrā characters on its top. The figure 974 inscribed on the west face of the ta'wīz probably stands for the date of the death of the deceased. Cf. also Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XXIV (Humāyūn's tomb), p. 16.

No. XXIX.

(A) MOSQUE OF AFSARWĀLĀ.

(B) Attached to the Afsarwālā Gumbad (No. XXVIII).

(C) Vide note (C) on Afsarwālā Gumbad (No. XXVIII).

(D) Ornamented circular medallions with the words يا فتاح or الله incised in them decorate the mosque, while on the southern face of the pulpit two stone bosses containing الله are to be seen. Besides these, there are six large medallions bearing the 1st Muslim creed in Naskh letters incised in plaster and there are traces of similar decorations elsewhere also which have since peeled off.

No. XXX.

(A) TOMB OF 'ISĀ KHĀN.

(B) On the south of Bū Ḥalīma's garden, near the western entrance of Humāyūn's tomb.

(C) The tomb contains the remains of 'Isā Khān Niyāzī, a nobleman at the court of Sher Shāh Sūrī and the chief supporter of Islām Shāh Sūrī against his elder brother Muḥammad 'Ādil. According to an inscription over the western mihrāb in the mortuary chamber the tomb was built in 954 A. H. (1547-48 A. D.) by Masnad-i-'Ālī 'Isā Khān, son of Niyāz Aghwān, the chief chamberlain.

(D) (1) Several circular medallions bearing the words يا فتاح or يا الله or حسبى الله decorate the exterior of the tomb, while the tomb chamber is embellished with smaller ones inscribed with the word الله only.

(2) The tomb chamber contains six graves altogether: two of them made of marble are more imposing than the rest and bear the Throne Verse with the word الله repeated twice underneath in embossed Naskh letters.

(3) Round the western arch in the tomb chamber, in Naskh.

Qurān, Pt. XXVIII, Ch. 62 entitled الجمعة (The Congregation), Secs. 1-2, Verses 1-11, preceded by $\text{بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم}$ vide also Inscription No. (10) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6, etc.

(4) On the western arch noticed above, in Naskh characters.

The same as Inscription No. (7) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6.

(5) Underneath the Inscription No. (4) noticed above, in Naskh letters.

Qurān, Pt. IV, Ch. 3 entitled آل عمران (The Family of Amran), Sec. 10, Verse 94-95, preceded by $\text{بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم}$

(6) Inside the western mihrāb.

Two separate texts followed by the word الله repeated twice.—

(a) The same as Inscription No. 21 (a) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, but preceded by $\text{بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم}$.

(b) The 2nd Muslim creed entitled كلمة شهادت (Creed of Witness), vide Inscription No. 4(a) on Mont. No. XLV (Baṛā Gumbad Mosque), p. 34, etc.

(7) Above the arch is fixed a red sandstone slab bearing an inscription, of six lines the first four lines of which contain the Throne Verse (vide Inscription No. 22 on Mont. No. XI—Sher Shāh's mosque, p. 8) and the remaining two lines.

an historical epigraph in Persian prose recording the erection of the tomb in 954 A. H. (1547-48 A. D.) by Masnad-i-‘Ālī ‘Isā Khān, son of Niyāz Aghwān, the Chief Chamberlain.

(8) Around the above arch, in Naskh characters.

Qurān, Pt. X, Ch. 9 entitled التوبة (The Immunity), Sec. 8, Verses 60-63, preceded by بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ .

(9) The centre of the intrados of the dome is painted in colours and contains the Throne Verse without بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ incised in plaster in Naskh characters. Cf. also Inscription No. (22) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh’s mosque), p. 8, etc.

No. XXXI.

(A) MOSQUE OF ‘ISĀ KHĀN.

(B) In Kotla of ‘Isā Khān, to the south of Bū Ḥalīma’s garden.

(C) Contemporaneous with the tomb of ‘Isā Khān (No. XXX).

(D) (1) On the central mīhrāb, in Naskh characters.

Qurān, Pt. VIII, Ch. 7 entitled العراف (The Elevated Places), Secs. 3-4, Verses 31-34, preceded by بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ .

(2) Inside the central mīhrāb, in Naskh characters.

The same as Inscription No. 21 (a) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh’s mosque), p. 8, but preceded by بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ .

(3) Under the above Inscription No. (2) is only بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ in embossed Naskh characters, while throughout the mosque small circular discs bearing the word الله are to be seen.

No. XXXII.

(A) TOMB OF KHĀN-I-KHĀNĀN ‘ABDU-R-RAḤĪM KHĀN.

(B) To south-west of Humāyūn’s tomb and about 150 ft. to the south of the Delhi-Muttra road at the 6th furlong past the 3rd milestone.

(C) The mausoleum contains the remains of ‘Abdu-r-Raḥīm Khān-i-Khānān, the son of Akbar’s regent Bairam Khān. He was a learned man and the title of Khān-i-Khānān was conferred on him by Emperor Akbar. He died in 1036 A. H. (1626-27 A. D.).

(D) (1) The exterior is ornamented with small red sandstone discs containing the words يَا الله in embossed Naskh characters.

(2) Inside the tomb chamber there are small plastered medallions bearing the 26th and 27th verses of Ch. 55 entitled الرحمن (The Beneficent), vide Inscription No. (1) on Mont. XXII (Nīlī Chhatrī), pp. 14-15, etc.

(3) The spandrels of the north and south arches are embellished with large circular medallions containing the words يَا حَافِظ in Tughrā characters preceded by بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ in Naskh letters.

(4) On the east and west sides in the tomb chamber upstairs there are large circular medallions, made of plaster, bearing in ornamental Kūfic Tugh̃rā characters the following inscription:—

اللهم اغفر لي وارحمني والعنني بالرفيق الا على *

Translation.

“O Allāh, forgive me (my sins) and have mercy on me and unite me with (Thee,) the Most Exalted Friend.”

(5) The interior of the eastern and western entrances to the tomb chamber is ornamented by eight plastered medallions, four on each side, bearing in Naskh letters the 112th chapter of the Qurān entitled الخلاص (The Unity), Verses 1-4, vide also Inscription No. (13) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7.

No. XXXIII.

(A) KĀLĪ MASJID or Sanjar Masjid.

(B) About 50 ft. to the east of Andar Kot which occupies the south-west portion of the village Nizamuddin.

(C) Built in 772 A. H. (1370-71 A. D.) by Jūnān Shāh Khān-i-Jahān, the prime minister of Fīroz Shāh Tughlaq.

(D) There is no Quranic or non-historical inscription inside or outside the mosque, but on the eastern doorway there is a Persian epigraph in prose, in embossed Naskh letters, assigning the erection of the mosque to Jūnān Shāh Maqbūl entitled Khān-i-Jahān, son of Khān-i-Jahān, in 772 A. H. (1370-71 A. D.) during the reign of Emperor Fīroz Shāh Tughlaq.

No. XXXIV.

(A) CHAUNSATH KHAMBĀ (Sixty-four Pillars).

(B) In village Nizamuddin, to south-east of Atgah Khān's tomb (No. XXXV).

(C) The monument, so called on account of the sixtyfour pillars in it, is really the tomb of Mīrzā 'Azīz Kokaltāsh, the foster brother of Emperor Akbar, built by him during his lifetime. In 1033 A. H. (1623-24 A. D.) he died at Ahmedabad whence his remains were brought to Delhi to be buried near the tomb of his father Shamsu-d-Dīn Atgah Khān (No. XXXV).

The inscriptions are mostly in embossed Naskh characters. The verses on the outer face of the entrances being those generally inscribed on the tombs or graves of martyrs—vide Inscriptions Nos. 6 (a) and (b) on Mont. No. XXIV (Humāyūn's tomb), p. 16, and Inscriptions Nos. (2), (4) and (6) on Mont. No. XXXV (Tomb of Atgah Khān), pp. 23-24—a question may arise as to why they grace the tomb of Mīrzā 'Azīz who was never a martyr but died a natural death. A reply to it in all probability is that the tomb was built by the Mīrzā

* It is the last prayer of the Prophet on his death-bed, vide Al-Jāmi'u-s-Sagħīr, Pt. I (Cairo edition, 1306), p. 47. The Prophet expired with the words رَفِيقُ الْاَعْلٰی (O Most Exalted Friend) on his lips. Of all the epigraphs collected in this Memoir it is the most interesting on account of its unique and rare script. So far as my knowledge goes no specimen of Ornamented Kūfic Tugh̃rā has as yet been published or its reading recorded anywhere. Cf. also Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XXVI (Nili Masjid in Humāyūn's tomb), pp. 17-18.

about the same time as the tomb of his father Atgah Khān under the impression that he too might receive martyrdom at the hands of the supporters of his father's assassin, Adham Khan, a foster brother of Emperor Akbar.

(D) (1) On the outside of the western entrance.

The same as Inscription No. 6 (b) on Mont. No. XXIV (Humāyūn's tomb), p. 16, but preceded by قال الله تعالى (The Most High Allāh said) and running only up to يرزقون .

(2) On the outside of the northern entrance.

Qurān, Pt. IV, Ch. 3 entitled آل عمران (The Family of Amran) Sec. 17, Verse 169, vide also Inscription No. 6 (b) on Mont. No. XXIV (Humāyūn's tomb), p. 16.

(3) On the outside of the eastern entrance.

The same as Inscription No. 6 (a) on Mont. No. XXIV (Humāyūn's tomb), p. 16, but only up to ولكن لا تشعرون .

Inside the tomb chamber, which is a pillared hall, there are ten graves, one of shell plaster and the rest of white marble. Five of them are uninscribed while on two of them only the 1st Muslim creed is to be seen on the top surface. The two graves, more prominent than the rest, situated near the western door, are those of Mīrzā 'Azīz Kokaltāsh and his wife and bear the following inscriptions:—

(4) On the north, east and west sides of the gravestone of the wife of Mīrzā 'Azīz Kokaltāsh just against the western entrance to the tomb.

آية الكرسي or Throne Verse, vide Inscription No. (22) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8.

On the top is inscribed the 1st Muslim creed in Nasta'liq letters.

(5) The grave of Mīrzā 'Azīz Kokaltāsh is immediately on the east of that of his wife. It is most elaborately carved in floral designs, and the Throne Verse without بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم is inscribed on all sides of the gravestone except the south side which is generally uninscribed. The year 1033 (A. H. or 1623-24 A. D.) on the west, above the word العلى stands probably for the date of the Mīrzā's death.

On the top of the gravestone is the following inscription:—

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم هو الحى الذى لا يموت

Translation.

“In the name of Allāh, the Merciful, the Compassionate. He is the Ever-living who is never to die.”

(6) Another grave of a male is to be found on the east of the Mīrzā's grave which it resembles only in respect of containing the same inscription on its top surface. Cf. Inscription No. (5) above.

(7) A broken marble slab (4' 2" × 2' 6" × 6") placed in the north-east corner of the hall (Chaunsath Khambā) bears a fragmentary epigraph in Persian verse, but it is not known whence the tablet has been brought and to what building it actually belonged. The inscription is in four lines and runs as follows:—

(۱) ببر مارا بصحراے قیامت
(۲) کشا بر ما بهر صورت که دانی

(۳) بایمانے کہ خرد کردی کرامت

(۴) محمد را شفاعت خواجه ما کن

Translation.

(1) "Take us to the plain of the last judgment

(2) Reveal to us in every way Thou knowest

(3) With the faith Thou hast Thyself granted (us)

(4) Make Muḥammad our intercessor."

No. XXXV.

(A) TOMB OF ATGAH KHĀN.

(B) To the south-east of the tomb of Amīr Khusrū, in village Nizamuddin.

(C) The tomb was erected in 974 A. H. (1566-67 A. D.) by Mīrzā 'Azīz Kokaltāsh over the remains of his father Shamsu-d-Dīn Muḥammad Atgah Khān, the husband of Emperor Akbar's wet nurse Jī Jī Anagah. Atgah Khān was a faithful servant of Humāyūn and rose to the rank of Vakīl, or Imperial Chancellor, in the reign of Akbar when he was killed by Adham Khān, the youngest son of Māham Anagah, another nurse of Akbar.

(D) Inscriptional decoration on the exterior.

(1) Round the western arch, in embossed Naskh characters.

Two separate inscriptions—

(a) The same as Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6, but only up to خزنتها الم يا تكم نذير preceded by اعوذ بالله من الشيطان الرجيم . بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم .

(b) At the end of the above inscription is an Arabic epigraph in prose executed in embossed Naskh characters containing the name of the scribe Bāqī Muḥammad.

(2) Above the western jālī screen of red sandstone.

The same as Inscription No. 6 (b) on Mont. No. XXIV (Humāyūn's tomb), p. 16, but only up to يرزقون and with قال الله تعالى at the beginning. Cf. also Inscription No. (1) on the Mont. No. XXXIV (Chaunsath Khambā), p. 22.

(3) Round the northern arch, in embossed Naskh characters.

Two separate inscriptions.—

(a) The same as Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6, but only from قالوا بلى قد جاءنا up to نكيف كان تكبير .

(b) At the end of the above Inscription No. 3 (a) is an historical epigraph in Arabic prose written in Naskh letters in relief bearing the name of the scribe Bāqī Muḥammad of Bokhara.

(4) Above the northern jālī of red sandstone.

The same as Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XXXIV (Chaunsath Khambā) p. 22. Cf. also Inscription No. 6 (b) on Mont. No. XXIV (Humāyūn's tomb), p. 16.

(5) Round the eastern arch, in Naskh lettering in relief.

Two separate inscriptions—

(a) The same as Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6, but only from لا في غرر up to ار لم يرا الى الطير and also the next five verses (21-26) of the same chapter 67, i.e., from امن هذا الذي يرزقكم up to انما انا نذير مبين.

(b) At the end of the above epigraph No. 5 (a) is the same historical record as has been noticed under Inscription No. 3 (b) supra.

(6) Above the eastern jālī screen of red sandstone.

The same as Inscription No. 6 (a) on Mont. No. XXIV (Humāyūn's tomb), p. 16, but only from ولا تقولوا up to ولكن لا تشعرون. Cf. also Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XXXIV (Chaunsath Khambā), p. 22.

(7) Round the southern arch, in embossed Naskh characters.

Four different inscriptions.—

(a) Qurān, Pt. XXIX, Ch. 67 entitled الملك (The Kingdom), Sec. 2, Verses 27-30.

(b) The same as Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XXII (Nīlī Chhatrī), p. 15.

(c) The same as Inscription No. (123) on Mont. No. XLV (Baṛā Gumbad mosque), p. 46.

(d) At the end of the above Inscription No. 7 (c) is again an historical epigraph in Arabic prose executed in embossed Naskh letters containing the name of the scribe Bāqī Muḥammad and date 974 A. H. (1566-67 A. D.).

(8) On the southern doorway is an historical inscription in Arabic prose recording the erection of the tomb in 974 A. H. (1566-67 A. D.) under the superintendence of Ustād Khudā Qulī.

A munājāt (prayer to God), in Arabic verse and embossed Tughhrā characters, also decorates the exterior of the tomb and runs as follows:—

(9) On the south.

لك الحمد يا ذا الجود والمجد والعلى تباركت تعطى من تشاء و تمنع¹

Translation.

“O Bounteous, Glorious and High (God)! to Thee is due all praise. Thou bestowest or refusest Thy blessings to whomsoever Thou pleasest.”

(10) On the east.

إلهى ترى حالى و فقرى و فاقتى و انت مناجات الخفية تسمع²

Translation.

“My Lord. Thou seest my condition, my poverty and my want, and Thou hearest prayers (even) in a low voice.”

(11) On the north.

إلهى و خلقتى و حزى و مولى اليك لدى ال عسار و اليسر افزع³

Translation.

“My Lord, my Creator, my Protector, my Master! Thee do I approach in adversity and prosperity.”

(12) On the west.

إلهى لئن جلت و جمت خطيئتى فغفرك عن ذنبى اجل و اسع⁴

1, 2, 3 and 4. These lines were composed by the Prophet's son-in-law 'Alī bin Abī Tālib who is considered one of the best poets of Arabia, vide his Ode في ال تعالى الى الله in Majānīn-l-Adab, Pt. V, p. 13 (Beirut edition, 1899)

Translation.

“My Lord, if great and immense are my sins, Thy forgiveness in comparison with my sins is much greater and more extensive.”

(13) Internally also the tomb is embellished with Quranic texts in embossed Naskh characters. On the niches and walls are to be found fragmentary verses of chapter 12 entitled يوسف (Joseph) beginning with ناستجاب له ربه فصرف عنه كيدهن as in Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XVIII (Unknown tomb), p. 11, etc.

The tomb chamber contains seven graves, three of which made of marble are inscribed and well carved. The central one just in front of the southern entrance is the grave of Atgah Khān and the one on the east is that of his wife Jī Jī Anagah, but it is not known who lies buried in the 3rd marble grave on the west of Atgah Khān's. The inscriptions on the marble gravestones are as follows :—

(a). Grave of Atgah Khān.

(14) On the east and west sides.

Qurān, Pt. XXX, Ch. 91 entitled الشمس (The Sun), Verses 1-9.

(15) On the north side.

Qurān, Pt. IV, Ch. 3 entitled آل عمران (The Family of Amran), Sec. 19, Verse 184, but only up to نقد ناز .

(16) On the top in an ornamented circular disc.

The same as Inscription No. (1) on Mont. No. XXII (Nīlī Chhatrī), pp. 14-15.

(b). Grave of Jī Jī Anagah.

(17) On the north, east and west sides, in embossed Naskh characters, is the آية الكرسي (Throne Verse) with the date 1009 (A. H. 1600-01 A. D.) on the west side. Cf. also Inscription No. (22) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, etc.

The top surface is ornamented by a circular disc containing the same epigraph as has been noticed under the Inscription No. (5) on the Grave of Mīrzā 'Azīz Kokaltāsh in Mont. No. XXXIV (Chauṃsaṭh Khambā), p. 22. Cf. also Inscription No. (1) on Mont. No. LIII (Tomb of Najaf Khān), p. 50.

(c) The 3rd marble grave to west of Atgah Khān's grave.

(18) On the east, west and north sides, in embossed Naskh letters.

Qurān, Pt. XIII, Ch. 12 entitled يوسف (Joseph), Sec. 7, Verses 53-56.

(19) The top surface bears the same epigraph as has been noticed on the grave of Jī Jī Anagah. Cf. Inscription No. (17) above.

There are several graves in the enclosure on the south of the tomb proper but only four of them are inscribed, two bearing historical epigraphs and the other two only Quranic quotations.

(a) Grave of the wife of Bahrām Shāh.

(20) A marble slab let into a mīhrab on the west (now much dilapidated) bears a Persian inscription in verse in Nasta'liq characters recording the death of the wife of Bahrām Shāh, son of Shāh 'Alam.

(b) Grave of an unknown derwish.

(21) On the marble headstone very similar to the one at the tomb of Amīr Khusrū (No. XXXV) is the 1st Muslim creed in Tughra characters and under it is a Persian inscription in verse in embossed Nasta'liq letters recording the death of a derwish in 995 A. H. (1548-49 A. D.) when he came on a pilgrimage to the shrine of Ḥaẓrat Nizāmu-d-Dīn Auliā. The epigraph contains the name of 'Abdu-s-Salām, the composer of these verses and the writer of the inscription.

(c) Unknown grave of marble to north-east of the Derwish's grave No. (b) above.

(22) On the top

The same as Inscription No. (1) on Mont. No. XXII (Nīlī Chhatrī), pp. 14-15.

Cf. also Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XXIV (Humāyūn's tomb), p. 16, etc.

(d) Another unknown grave of marble to east of the Unknown Grave No. (c) above.

(23) On the top surface.

The same as Inscription No. 21 (a) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8. Cf. also Inscription No. (6) on Mont. No. XXX (Tomb of 'Isā Khān), p. 19, but the words ما اختلف الذين are also to be found.

No. XXXVI.

(A) EASTERN GATEWAY to the outer enclosure of Amīr Khusrū's tomb (No. XXXVII).

(B) Near the tomb of Atgah Khān (No. XXXV) in village Nizamuddin.

(C) It is modern. The original gateway was of the Afghān period.

(D) A marble slab fixed over the arch of the gateway bears a Persian inscription in verse recording its erection in 1298 A. H. (1881 A. D.) by Muḥammad Rashīd under the orders of the Nizām of Hyderabad.

There is no Quranic or non-historical epigraph on it.

No. XXXVII.

(A) TOMB OF ḤAẒRAT AMĪR KHUSRŪ.

(B) About 55 ft. south of the tomb of Ḥaẓrat Nizāmu-d-Dīn Auliā (No. XXXVIII).

(C) Amīr Abu-l-Ḥasan Khusrū, son of Amīr Saifu-d-Dīn, was of Turkish extraction born at Patyali in 651 A. H. (1253-54 A. D.). He wrote 92, or, according to some, 99 books and was the chief disciple of Ḥaẓrat Nizāmu-d-Dīn Auliā, whose death he felt so deeply that six months afterwards he died in 1325 A. D.

Additions to his tomb have been made by his admirers periodically as per inscriptions noted below.

(D) (1) On the marble tablet outside the tomb on the north, in embossed Nasḥ letters, is the 1st Muslim creed and under it is an inscription eulogizing Ḥaẓrat Amīr Khusrū and recording his death in 725 A. H. (1325 A. D.) and the erection of the enclosure round the tomb by Mahdī Khwāja in 937 A. H. (1530 A. D.) in the reign of Emperor Bābur.

(2) Over the pierced screens on the north and west walls of the inner enclosure are Persian inscriptions in verse eulogizing Ḥaẓrat Amīr Khusrū who died in 725 A. H. (1325 A. D.) and recording the year 938 A. H. (1531-32 A. D.) which probably refers to the date of its erection.

(3) Over the latticed marble screens, inside, there are three Persian couplets composed by Ḥaẓrat Amīr Khusrū himself in praise of his spiritual guide Ḥaẓrat Nizāmu-d-Dīn Auliya, and they run as follows:—

(۱) از دوست زمان زمان پیامت	ای شربت عاشقی بجامت
زانست که شد لقب نظامت	(۲) شد سلك فرید از تو منظم
چو شد بهزار جال غلامت	(۳) جارید بقاست بنده خسرو

Translation.

(1) "O thou, who hast the sweet drink of love in thy goblet, and receivest messages from the Friend from time to time.

(2) The line of Farīd became established through thee, hence thou art entitled Nizām (or administrator).

(3) Immortal is the slave Khusrū inasmuch as he has become thy slave with his thousand lives."

The enigmatical name of Amīr Khusrū comes next, and after it another inscription by Tāhir 'Imādu-d-Dīn Ḥasan, son of Sultān 'Alī Sabzwārī, recording the erection of the present tomb in 1014 A. H. (1605-06 A. D.).

(4) On a stone slab let into the northern wall just below the roof there is a Persian inscription in prose recording the name of Emperor Jahāngīr.

(5) On the copper doors of the tomb is an Urdu inscription in verse, badly engraved, assigning their construction to one Miyān Jān in 1280 A. H. (1863-64 A. D.).

(6) A Persian inscription in prose appears on the south-east panel of the pierced balustrade round the grave of Ḥaẓrat Amīr Khusrū recording its erection on the 20th Ramaẓān, 1303 A. H. (22nd June 1886 A. D.) by Shamsu-l-Umarā Muḥaiyu-d-Dīn Khān Khurshīd Jāh (of Hyderabad).

(7) The outer screen round the tomb is provided on the west with three closed arched recesses, the 1st on the left being ornamented with five red sandstone bosses containing the word الله and a larger disc bearing the phrase الملك لله. The central one is inscribed with the 1st Muslim creed in Naskh characters, and below it the miniature mihrāb made of white marble is embellished with two circular bosses bearing the word الله. The 3rd arched recess is again of red sandstone containing six circular medallions, three of which bear the word الله, one الملك لله and the remaining two حسبى الله.

No. XXXVIII.

(A) TOMB OF ḤAẒRAT NIZĀMU-D-DĪN AULIYĀ.

(B) In the village of Nizamuddin.

(C) Ḥaẓrat Shaikh Nizāmu-d-Dīn Auliya was born in 634 A. H. (1236 A. D.) at Budaun. At the age of 25 he came to Delhi and some time afterwards became a disciple of the well-known saint Bābā Farīd Ganjshakar. He was held in great esteem by Emperor 'Alāu-d-Dīn Khaljī and Muḥammad Tughlaq and died on the 18th. Rabi'ū-th-Thānī, 725 A. H. (3rd April 1325 A. D.).

His original tomb which Emperor Fīroz Shāh Tughlaq mentions to have repaired and decorated has undergone a complete change, considerable additions and alterations having been made to it from time to time as the inscriptions noted below will show.

(D) (1) On a white marble slab fixed to the northern screen, in gilded Nasta'liq letters, is the 1st Muslim creed and, under it, a Persian inscription in verse recording the erection of the present building with its marble screens by Farīdūn (or Farīd) Khān in 970 A. H. (1562-63 A. D.).

(2) The wooden canopy over the grave is studded with mother-of-pearl (now fast peeling off), and bears a Persian inscription in verse, in Nasta'liq characters, recording its construction in 1017 A. H. (1608-9 A. D.) by Murtaẓā Khān, a grandee at the court of Jahāngīr holding the rank of 5,000.

(3) Small circular medallions bearing the words یا نافع or اللہ or هو اللہ or اللہ حسبی in gilded Naskh characters decorate the tomb chamber.

(4) On the arch of the mihrāb in the west wall, in Naskh letters cut in plaster.

Qurān, Pt. XV, Ch. 17 entitled بنی اسرائیل (The Israelites), Sec. 9, Verses 78-81. Cf. also Inscription No. (114) on Mont. No. XLV (Barā Gumbad mosque), p. 45.

(5) Round the arch of the mihrāb in the west wall, in Naskh characters in incised plaster.

Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 2 entitled البقرہ (The Cow), Sec. 34, Verses 255-6, preceded by the phrase قال اللہ سبحانہ و تعالیٰ (The Glorious and Most High Allāh said). Cf. also Inscription No. (22) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, etc.

(6) On the marble balustrade round the grave is a Persian inscription in prose, in Nasta'liq characters, dated 1300 A. H. (1882-83 A. D.) containing the name of Muḥaiyū-d-Dīn Bahādur Shamsu-l-Umarā Khurshīd Jāh (of Hyderabad) who is responsible for the erection of the balustrade. Cf. also Inscription No. (6) on Mont. No. XXXVII (Tomb of Amīr Khusrū), p. 27.

(7) A marble slab fixed to the wall at the south-west corner of the tomb chamber bears an Urdu epigraph in verse, dated 1169 A. H. (1755-56 A. D.) composed by 'Azīzu-d-Dīn (afterwards 'Alamgīr II) invoking the help of the saint. The tablet was erected probably to commemorate the date of repairs to the tomb done by him.

(8) At the back of the inner mihrāb on the west is a modern inscription in Nasta'liq characters. It consists of the 1st Muslim creed preceded by the words افضل الذکر and followed by اللہ اکبر with the figure 786 which is the numerical value of بسم اللہ الرحمن الرحیم at the beginning.

(9) On the southern arches of the verandah is a Persian inscription in prose in Nasta'liq characters assigning the addition of the verandah in the year 1063 A. H. (1652-53 A. D.) to Khalīlullah Khān, son of Mīr Mīran Al-Husainī, who was the governor of Shāhjahānābād in the reign of Emperor Shāh Jahān.

No. XXXIX.

(A) TOMB OF JAHĀNĀRĀ BEGAM.

(B) About 35 ft. south of the tomb of Ḥazrat Nizāmu-d-Dīn Auliā (No. XXXVIII).

(C) The open-air tomb built by Jahānārā, the eldest daughter of Shāh Jahān, during her life-time contains four graves, none of which except that of Jahānārā herself bears an historical epigraph. Tradition avers that the grave to west of that of Jahānārā contains the remains of Mīrzā Nīlī, a son of the Emperor Shāh 'Ālam, while those on the east are assigned to Jamālu-n-Nisā, a daughter of Akbar II, and her child.

(D) (a) Grave of Jahānārā Begam.

(1) On the marble headstone ($6' 6\frac{1}{2}'' \times 10\frac{1}{2}'' \times 4''$) in Naskh characters.

(a) هوالحي القيوم

بغير سبزه نپوشد کسی مزار من که قبر پوش غریبان همیں گیاه بس است

Translation.

“He is the Ever-living, the Self-subsisting. Nothing but the green grass covers my grave, for grass is a sufficient covering for the graves of the lowly.”

(b) Under the above Inscription No. 1 (a) there appears the name of Jahānārā Begam, a daughter of Emperor Shāh Jahān, and the date of her demise 1092 A. H. (1681 A. D.).

(b) Grave of Mīrzā Nīlī.

(2) On the north, east and west sides of the marble gravestone, in Naskh characters in relief.

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم . Cf. also Throne Verse, preceded by آية الكرسي or Inscription No. (4) on Mont. No. XXXIV (Chaunsath Khambā), p. 22, etc.

(3) On the top of the gravestone, in embossed Tughhrā letters.

(a) The same as Inscription No. (1) on Mont. No. XXII (Nīlī Chhatrī), pp. 14-15. Cf. also Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XXIV Humāyūn's tomb, p. 16, etc.

(b) Underneath the above Inscription No. 3 (a) the 1st Muslim creed in Naskh characters is inscribed.

The other two graves in the enclosure bear no inscription.

No. XL.

(A) TOMB OF EMPEROR MUHAMMAD SHĀH.

(B) About 10 ft. east of the tomb of Jahānārā Begam (No. XXXIX).

(C) The enclosure contains seven graves, three of which are inscribed. None bears an historical epigraph but, according to local tradition, the largest grave is of the Mughal Emperor Muḥammad Shāh (1719-48 A. D.) who died in 1748, and the one immediately to the west of it contains the remains of his wife. The 3rd grave bearing Quranic quotations is unknown, but some people are inclined to think that a daughter-in-law of the Persian invader Nādir Shāh lies buried in it.

(D) (a) Grave of Emperor Muḥammad Shāh.

(1) On the north, east and west sides of the marble gravestone, in embossed Naskh characters.

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم or Throne Verse, but without being preceded by آية الكرسي Cf. also Inscription No. (22) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XXXIX (Tomb of Jahānārā Begam) above, etc. .

(2) On the top of the gravestone, in Tughrā characters in relief.

(a) The same as Inscription No. (1) on Mont. No. XXII (Nīlī Chhatrī), pp. 14-15, vide also Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XXIV (Humāyūn's tomb), pp. 15-16, etc.

(b) The same as Inscription No. 3 (b) on Mont. No. XXXIX (Tomb of Jahānārā Begam), p. 29.

(b) Grave of Muḥammad Shāh's wife.

(3) On the top.

(a) The same as Inscription No. 3 (b) on Mont. No. VII (Jāmi' Masjid), p. 4, but only from بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم up to الذنب جميعاً and with الذين يعبدونى at the beginning.

(b) Below the above Inscription No. 3 (a) is the 1st Muslim creed and also the following words:—

الله على رضى رسول الله

Translation.

“Allāh. ‘Alī, the executor of the will of the Apostle of Allāh.”

(c) The 3rd inscribed grave.*

(4) On the north side of the gravestone, in Naskh characters, is the 1st Muslim creed.

(5) On the east side of the gravestone in Naskh letters.

Qurān, Pt. XVII, Ch. 22 entitled الحج (The Pilgrimage), Sec. 10, Verse 77, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(6) On the west side of the gravestone, in Naskh letters.

The same as Inscription No. 3 (b) on Mont. No. VII (Jāmi' Masjid), p. 4, but preceded by قال الله تبارك وتعالى (The Holy and the High Allāh said). Cf. also Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XL (Tomb of Emperor Muḥammad Shāh) noticed above.

No. XLI.

(A) TOMB OF MĪRZĀ JAHĀNGĪR.

(B) About 20 ft. east of the tomb of Muḥammad Shāh (No. XL).

(C) The enclosure contains four graves two of which bear Quranic quotations while the remaining two are uninscribed. Among the inscribed gravestones the one bearing a takhtī, emblematic of a female's grave, covers the remains of Mīrzā Jahāngīr, the eldest son of Akbar Shāh II, who died in 1236 A. H. (1821 A. D.) in British prison at Allahabad whence his remains were brought to Delhi to be buried near the saint's shrine. The other one to the west of it is assigned to Mīrzā Bābur, his brother, although on the southern surface of the gravestone there is an inscription recording the death of one Mīr Muḥammad in 987 A. H. (1579-80 A. D.). Evidently the gravestones in both cases were not intended for their present positions.

(D) (a) Grave of Mīrzā Jahāngīr.

* See note (C), p. 29.

(1) On the north, east and west sides of the marble gravestone, in embossed Naskh letters.

The same as Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XXXIX (Tomb of Jahānārā Begam), p. 29.

(2) On the top of the gravestone in Tughrā letters.

(a) The same as Inscription No. 3 (a) on Mont. No. XXXIX (Tomb of Jahānārā Begam), p. 29.

(b) Underneath the above Inscription No. 2 (a).

The same as Inscription No. 3 (b) on Mont. No. XXXIX (Tomb of Jahānārā Begam), p. 29.

(b) Grave of Mīrzā Bābur.

(3) The same as on the grave of Mīrzā Jahāngīr above, but on the south face of the gravestone there is a Persian epigraph in verse referring, as shown above, to the death of one Mīr Muḥammad in 987 A. H. (1579-80 A. D.).

No. XLII.

(A) BĀRAH KHAMBA (Twelve Pillars).

(B) On the left of the road from Humāyūn's tomb to Ṣafdar Jang, and about 50 ft. to the north-west of the village Nizamuddin.

(C) So called on account of the twelve sets of pillars it contains, the building is a tomb of the Afghān period.

(D) On the intrados of the dome, in Naskh letters cut in plaster.

Fragmentary.

The same as Inscription No. 21 (a) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shah's mosque), p. 8, etc., but only from شهد الله انه up to هو العزيز الحكيم.

There is no other inscription on any part of the monument.

No. XLIII.

(A) TOMB OF MUḤAMMAD SHĀH known as MUBĀRAK KHĀN KĀ-GUMBAD.

(B) In village Khairpur, near the tomb of Ṣafdar Jang, to north of the road from Ṣafdar Jang's tomb to Humāyūn's tomb.

(C) The tomb, built about the year 1445, contains the remains of Muḥammad Shāh, son of Farīd Shāh, the 3rd King of the Sayyid dynasty. His son 'Alāu-d-Dīn 'Ālam Shāh is said to have erected the tomb.

(D) Inside the tomb chamber there are eight graves, all uninscribed. The one in the centre is probably the grave of Muḥammad Shāh while the rest may be assigned to the members of the royal family.

The exterior of the tomb bears no epigraph, but the interior is embellished with colour decoration and the following words incised in plaster in Naskh are to be seen in appropriate places:—

(1) الله (God), يا الله (O God), حسبى الله (God is enough for me), سبحان الله (Praise be to God), الملك الله (Kingdom is for God), and the 1st Muslim creed.

(2) On the band of the dome at the drum level (inside) in embossed Naskh characters, are the ninety-nine attributes of God preceded by verses 22-23 of chapter 59 entitled العشر (The Banishment), but only up to العزيز الجبار المتكبر and with the following words at the end after الرشيد الوارث :—

الذى ليس كمثله شيء و هو لسميع البصير غفرانك ربنا و اليك المصير نعم المولى و نعم النصير
محمد رسول الله سيد الصادق المعتد الامين و رسول رب العالمين

Translation.

“The like of Whom there is none and He is the Hearing, the Seeing. We implore Thy mercy, O Lord, and to Thee must we return. He is the Best Master and the Best Helper. Muḥammad, the Prophet of Allāh, (is) the chief, the truthful, the chosen, the trusted, and the Prophet of the Lord of the worlds.”

(3) A circular disc painted in floral design in various colours decorates the centre of the intrados of the dome and bears the Throne Verse (آية الكرسي)¹ and the succeeding verses 256-57 up to اولياءهم الطائفة of the same chapter 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow) in Naskh letters incised in plaster. Cf. also Inscription No. (22) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8; Inscription No. (5) on Mont. No. XXXVIII (Tomb of Ḥaṣrat Nizāmu-d-Dīn Auliya), p. 28, etc.

No. XLIV.

(A) BARĀ GUMBAD (The Large Dome).

(B) In village Khairpur to north-east of the tomb of Muḥammad Shāh (No. XLIII).

(C) It is a gateway of the Jāmi' Masjid of Sikandar Lodī (No. XLV) built about the year 1494 and resembles the 'Alāi Darwāza at the Quṭb in various details.

(D) (1) On the north entrance (outside) in embossed Naskh characters.

Qurān, Pt. VII, Ch. 6 entitled الانعام (The Cattle), Sec. 10, Verses 84-87, but only up to اسمعيل و اليسع¹

(2) On the west entrance (outside) in embossed Naskh characters.

Verses from two different chapters of the Qurān—

(a) Pt. XXV, Ch. 43 entitled الزخرف (Gold), Sec. 4, Verses 36-38, but only up to بعد المشركين².

(b) Pt. XXVIII, Ch. 60 entitled الممتحنة (The Examined one), Sec. 1, a portion of Verse 4, i.e., ربنا عليك توكلنا و اليك انبنا و اليك المصير .

(3) On the south entrance (outside) in embossed Naskh characters.

(a) Pt. XXIII, Ch. 37 entitled الصفات¹¹ (The Rangers), Sec. 5, Verses 177-82. Cf. also Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XXII (Nīlī Chhatrī), p. 15.

(b) Pt. XXIII, Ch. 38 entitled ص (Suād), Sec. 5, Verses 86-8.

(4) On the east entrance (outside) in embossed Naskh characters.

¹ Verse 255 of chapter 2 is known as the (Throne Verse) and it generally graces the Muslim graves, tombs and mosques since it shows the great power of the Almighty God.

² The Quranic words after بعد المشركين seem to have peeled off and the gap subsequently filled in by one who could not read this particular type of Naskh since the restored portion is an altogether separate verse and has nothing to do with the original epigraph.

Qurān, Pt. XX, Ch. 28 entitled القصص (The Narrative), Sec. 9, Verses 85-8, but only up to الا هو كل شيء.

(5) Inside the dome there are several small arched niches, the spandrels of which are decorated with small discs bearing the word الله in the centre in embossed Naskh letters.

No. XLV.

(A) BARĀ GUMBAD MOSQUE OR THE JĀMI' MASJID OF SIKANDAR LODĪ.

(B) See Barā Gumbad (No. XLIV).

(C) Built in 1494 by Sikandar Shāh Lodī (1489-1517), the son and successor of Bahlol Lodī.

(D) The mosque is profusely decorated throughout with Quranic and other non-historical epigraphs incised in plaster. The prayer chamber is entered by five archways, the spandrels of which are embellished with inscribed discs of lime plaster. Three of these discs have peeled off while the remaining seven bear the following inscriptions :—

Commencing from the southernmost arch,

(1) Disc No. (1).

The 1st Muslim creed preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم as in Inscription No. (17) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7, but with the word الله in the centre.

(2) Disc No. (2).

(a) سبحان الله و الحمد لله و لا اله الا الله و الله أكبر و لا حول و لا قوة الا بالله العلي العظيم¹

Translation.

“Praise be to Allāh, and all praise is due to Allāh, and there is no God but Allāh, and Allāh is Great, and none has strength or power but Allāh, the High, the Great.”

(b) Below it is the 1st Muslim creed and also the word الله.

(3) Disc No. (3).

(a) قال النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم المؤمن في المسجد كالسمك في الماء والمنافق في المسجد كالطير في القفس²

Translation.

“The Prophet, may Allāh bless and assoil him, said, ‘The believer, (while) in the mosque is like unto fish in water and the hypocrite in the mosque, is like a dird in cage.’”

(b) Inside the above disc, in a circle.

قال عليه السلام من بنى لله مسجداً بنى الله له بيتاً في الجنة³

¹ It is called the 3rd Muslim creed entitled كلمة مسجد (Creed of Glorification).

² This well known saying is not to be found in the authentic records of Ḥadīth.

³ This tradition narrated by Uthmān is well known, vide Mishkāt (published at Hāshimī Press), p. 247.

Translation.

“(The Prophet), peace be on him, said, ‘Whoever built for Allāh a mosque got a house built for him in paradise by Allāh.’”

(4) Disc No. (4).

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم اشهد ان لا اله الا الله و اشهد ان محمداً عبده و رسوله¹ (a)

Translation.

“In the name of Allāh, the Merciful, the Compassionate. I stand witness that there is no God but Allāh and I bear witness that Muḥammad is His slave and prophet.”

(b) Under the above inscription runs the 1st Muslim creed. Cf. also Inscription No. 2 (b) above.

(5) Disc No. (5).

The same as on Disc No. (4) above, but only the word الله instead of the 1st Muslim creed.

(6) Disc No. (6).

The same as Inscription No. (13) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7. Under it is حسبى الله (God is enough for me).

(7) Disc No. (7).

The same as on Disc No. (6) above.

The archways leading into the prayer chamber are inscribed with Quranic texts as follows:—

(8) On the 1st or southernmost arch, incised in plaster in Naskh.

Pt. XXV, Ch. 45 entitled السخاى (The Drought), Sec. 3, Verses 51-59.

(9) Under the above Inscription No. (8), in Naskh letters cut in plaster.

Pt. XXVI, Ch. 48 entitled الفتح (The Victory), Secs. 2-3, Verses 17-18.

(10) On the 2nd arch (immediately on the south of the central arch), in Naskh characters in incised plaster.

The same as Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6, but only up to the end of the 15th verse.

(11) Round the 3rd or central arch facing east in Naskh characters cut in plaster.

The same as Inscription No. (1) on Mont. No. XLIV (Barā Gunbad), p. 32, but up to the end of verse 87 with بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning.

(12) Under the above Inscription No. (11) i.e., on the 3rd arch facing east is the 67th chapter noticed above; vide Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6.

(13) On the 4th arch (immediately on the north of the central arch).

The same as Inscription No. (10) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6, but only up to تفرق منه فانه ملائكم. Vide also Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XVII (Sundarwālā Burj), p. 11, etc.

(14) On the 5th or northernmost arch, in Naskh lettering cut in plaster.

Pt. XII, Ch. 12 entitled يوسف (Joseph), Secs. 2-3, Verses 16-21, but only up to وقال الذي اشتراه.

(15) On the soffit of the 1st arch in Naskh characters in incised plaster.

¹ It is the 2nd Muslim creed entitled كلمه شهادت (Creed of Witness).

Pt. XI, Ch. 9 entitled التوبة (The Immunity), Sec. 13, Verse 107, but only from الذين اتخذوا up to رسول الله من قبل. Cf. also Inscription No. (17) on Mont. No. CXVI ('Alāi Gate), p. 98.

(16) A mutilated Persian inscription in verse (66 ft. 3 in. × 4½ in.) above the shhajja on the eastern façade of the mosque at a height of 25 ft. 11 in. from the level of the court, incised in plaster in Naskh characters.

(a) The 1st eight couplets from the Dibācha (preface) of Shaiikh Sa'dī's Gulistān, i.e., from هر دم از عمر می رود نفسی up to تا بتدریج می رود چه غم است¹

(b) After the above verses of Sa'dī three Arabic couplets composed by Ḥaẓrat 'Alī, son of Abī Tālib, a son-in-law of the Prophet, are inscribed. The epigraph is very much mutilated and runs as follows:—

(۱) الا يا ساكن القصر المعلى ستدفن عن قريب في التراب
(۲) له ملك ينال كل يوم لدوا للموت رابنوا للخراب
(۳) قليل عمرنا في دار دنيا ومرجعنا الى بيت التراب

Translation.

“(1) O dweller of the magnificent palace, beware! Shortly thou shalt be interred in the dust.

(2) His angel proclaims every day ‘Beget for death and construct for destruction’

(3) Short is our life in this world and our retreat is the house of dust.”

(c) After the above Arabic verses (No. 16 b) is Shaiikh Sa'dī's *mathnavi*² in Persian, mutilated in several places, but from جهان اے برادر نمائد بکس up to چه بر روی خاک.

(d) After the above Persian verses (No. 16 c) the following fragmentary inscription is also to be seen:—

(۱) ندامت چه
(۲) بجز یادگار که نیکان (گنشتند ؟) . . . هم روزگار
بيت
(۳) روزها میروند و عمر بسر می آید با خبر باش که از مرگ خبر می آید
(۴) جهان یادگارست فانیں (فانی) مقام نمائد بجز نیک نامی مدام

Translation.

(1) “.....what shame.....

(2)except a memorial because the righteous also (left?) the world.

(3) The days pass on and the life is (thus) spent; beware, the news of (the approach of thy) death is coming.

(4) The world is a well known perishable place; nothing is (ever) to remain except the good name.”

Prayer Chamber.

First Bay.

² Ibid, p. 19. For a translation of Inscriptions Nos. 16 (a) and (c) vide Bell's translation of Gulistān (Calcutta edition, 1898), pp. 11-12 and 20.

(17) Above the arches immediately under the ceiling there are the following fragmentary verses :—

Qurān, Pt. XVIII, Ch. 24 entitled النور (The Light), Secs. 3-4, Verses 23-31, but the last verse is quoted only up to و ليضربن بخمرهن .

The verses are preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم .

(18) Above the north arch at the north-west corner, in Naskh letters.

Qurān, Pt. XXV, Ch. 45 entitled الجاثية (The kneeling), Sec. 4, Verses 36-37, but the words نلله الحمد رب السموات ورب from Verse 36 have peeled off while at the end of Verse 37 the words واخر دعوتهم الحمد لله رب العلمين have been inserted probably to fill in the blank space.

(19) On the niche in the south wall in Naskh letters cut in plaster.

(a) Pt. XXVI, Ch. 49 entitled الحجرات (The Chambers), Sec. 2, Verses 15-18,

(b) Pt. XXVII, Ch. 51 entitled الذريت (The Scatterers), Sec. 3, Verses 58-60.

(20) On the north side in embossed Naskh characters incised in plaster.

Qurān, Pt. XXX, Ch. 78 entitled النبا (The Announcement), Sec. 1, Verses 1-24, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم the last verse being given only up to فيها برداً . The Inscription No. (21) infra may be looked up for its continuation.

(21) On the west wall of the prayer chamber, in Naskh letters.

Qurān, Pt. XXX, Ch. 78 entitled النبا (The Announcement), Secs. 1-2, Verses 24-38, the last verse being incomplete, for a continuation of which see Inscription No. (22) infra.

(22) On the south wall of the prayer chamber in embossed Naskh characters.

(a) Pt. XXX, Ch. 78 entitled النبا (The Announcement), Sec. 2, Verses 38-40.

(b) Pt. XXX, Ch. 79 entitled الذرعت (The Drawers), Sec. 1, Verses 1-13 preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم . The last verse is quoted only up to على زجرة and for its continuation see Inscription No. (23) infra.

(23) On the east wall of the prayer chamber in embossed Naskh letters.

Qurān, Pt. XXX, Ch. 79 entitled الذرعت (The Drawers), Secs. 1-2, Verses 13-40, but from من واحد فاذا هم up to من خاف مقام ربه . For its continuation see Inscription No. 24 infra.

(24) On the niche in the southern wall, in Naskh letters in relief.

Verses from three different chapters of the Qurān—

(a) Pt. XXX, Ch. 79 entitled الذرعت (The Drawers), Sec. 2, Verses 40-46.

(b) Pt. XXIII, Ch. 36 entitled يس (Yāsīn), Sec. 3, Verses 36-37.

(c) Pt. XVII, Ch. 21 entitled الانبياء (The Prophets), Sec. 6, a portion of Verse 87, i.e., from لا اله الا انت up to من الظالمين *

* The verse سورة يس لا اله الا انت سبحانك انى كنت من الظالمين does not belong to the يس from which the verses before and after it have been quoted. It should have come at the end of لمستقر لها to fill in the blank space rather than upset the order of the other verses; and the mason executing the inscription is to be held responsible for the mistake.

(d) Pt. XXIII, Ch. 36 entitled يس (Yāsīn), Sec. 3, Verse 38, but only up to لمستقر لها.

(25) Above the southern mihrāb in Naskh characters incised in plaster is a Persian inscription in prose calling the monument the Jāmī' Masjid of Sikandar Shāh Lodī, son of Bahlol Shāh Lodī, and recording its erection on the 1st of Rabi' I, 900 A.H. (30th November, 1494 A.D.).

The bay originally contained 8 discs made of plaster, three of which have now disappeared while the remaining five bear the following Quranic quotations:—

(26) Disc No. (i).

Pt. XVIII, Ch. 23 entitled المؤمنون (The Believers), Sec. 6, Verses 97-98. Cf. also Inscription No. (54) infra.

(27) Disc No. (ii).

Pt. XIII, Ch. 14 entitled ابراهيم (Abraham), Sec. 2, a portion of Verse 12 i.e., from هدنا سبيلنا up to وما لنا.

(28) Disc No. (iii).

Pt. VII, Ch. 5 entitled المائدة (The Food), Sec. 15, Verse 114, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم. But a few words from the original verse have been omitted.

(29) Disc No. (iv).

Pt. XXIX, Ch. 68 entitled القلم (The Pen), Sec. 2, Verses 51-52, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(30) Disc No. (v).

Pt. XI, Ch. 9 entitled التوبة (The Immunity), Sec. 16, Verse 129.

Second Bay.

(31-4) On the arches to the north, south, east and west, in embossed Naskh characters in incised plaster.

• Qurān, Pt. XXVII, Ch. 56 entitled الواقعة (The Great Event), Secs. 1-3, Verses 1-96, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(35) Under the above Inscription in the 2nd line, in embossed letters cut in plaster.

Qurān, Pt. XXVIII, Ch. 66 entitled التحريم (The Prohibition), Secs. 1-2, Verses 1-8, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(36) On the niche in the west wall in embossed Naskh letters.

Qurān, Pt. VII, Ch. 6 entitled الانعام (The Cattle), Sec. 9, Verses 80-2, the last verse being only up to ولا تخافون انكم.

(37) The bases of the pendentives are also inscribed: those on the north-west and south-west contain the 1st Muslim creed whereas those on the north-east and south-east respectively bear لا اله الا الله ابراهيم خليل الله (There is no god but Allāh, Abraham is the friend of Allāh, and لا اله الا الله على ربي الله (There is no god but Allāh, 'Alī is the friend of Allāh).

(38) Above the pendentives is a Persian inscription in two lines in embossed Naskh characters incised in plaster. It is mutilated and much coated with smoke, and the portions that are readable lead one to call it historical. It perhaps refers to the erection of the mosque in the reign of Sikandar Lodī.

There are sixteen arched recesses at a height of 20 ft. 4½ in. from the stone-paved floor of the prayer chamber. Starting from the one exactly above the mihṛāb they are inscribed as follows:—

(39) Recess No. (i).

The words يا حنان (O Compassionate) and يا منان (O Beneficent), and, below them, Qurān, Pt. XII, Ch. 11 entitled هود (Hūd), Sec. 4, Verses 41-2, but only from بسم الله مجزها up to وكان في معزل.

(40) Recess No. (ii).

يا سميع repeated twice, and under it Qurān, Pt. XXV, Ch. 42 entitled الشورى (The Counsel), Sec. 3, Verses 19-20, but only up to نزلت منها وما له.

(41) Under Inscription No. (40) above is the same as Inscription No. (27) above but without وقد هدانا سبلنا.

(42) Recess No. (iii).

يا بديع (O Controller) and الفتاح (The Opener). Under it, Qurān, Pt. XVII, Ch. 21 entitled الانبياء (The Prophets), Sec. 7, Verses 101-3, but only up to تتلقيهم الملكة هذا.

(43) Recess No. (iv).

يا بديع (O Controller) repeated twice, and, under it, Qurān, Pt. XXV, Ch. 42 entitled الشورى (The Counsel), Sec. 2, Verses 15-6, but only from وما استجيب له up to الله ربنا وركم.

(44) Recess No. (v).

يا غياث (O Helper), and under them Qurān, Pt. VIII, Ch. 6 entitled الانعام (The Cattle), Sec. 20, Verses 163-5, but only up to رهب رب كل شيء.

(45) Recess No. (vi).

Qurān, Pt. XXV, Ch. 45 entitled الجنائذ (The Kneeling), Sec. 2, Verse 21.

(46) Inside the above recess No. (vi).

Qurān, Pt. XXVI, Ch. 48, Sec. 1, Verses 1-2, but only up to ليغفر لك الله. Cf. also Inscription No. (22) on Mont. No. LXIX (Muḥammadīwālī Masjid), p. 68.

(47) Recess No. (vii).

Qurān, Pt. XXIV, Ch. 39 entitled الزمر (The Companies), Sec. 4, Verses 36-8, but only up to من خلق السموات.

(48) Inside the above recess No. (vii).

هو الحى الذى لا اله الا هو

Translation.

“He is the Living, besides whom there is no God.”

(49) Recess No. (viii).

Qurān, Pt. XIX, Ch. 26 entitled الشعراء (The Poets), Sec. 11, Verses 225-7.

(50) Inside the above recess (No. viii) in a much damaged condition.
..... هو الله الذى (It is Allāh who.....)

(51) Recess No. (ix).

Qurān Pt. XIII, Ch. 12 entitled يوسف (Joseph), Sec. 11, Verses 101-2, but only up to من انباء الغيب.

(52) Recess No. (x).

Qurān, Pt. XXIII, Ch. 38 entitled ص (Suād), Sec. 5, Verses 86*8.

(53) Recess No. (xi).

الغفار (The Forgiver) repeated twice, and, under it, Qurān, Pt. XXIII, Ch. 37 entitled الصفات (The Rangers), Sec. 5, Verses 139-44, but only up to للبت .

(54) Recess No. (xii).

يا اِحد (O God, the One) and يا قدير (O Almighty), and below them is the same as Inscription No. (26) supra and also the next two verses (99-100) but only up to صالحاً فيما تركت

(55) Recess No. (xiii).

الله (God is enough for me) repeated twice, and below it Qurān, Pt. XIX, Ch. 7 entitled الاءراف (The Elevated Places), Sec. 17, Verse 143, but only up to فلما تجلى به .

(56) Recess No. (xiv).

يا فتاح (O Opener) repeated twice, and, below it, Qurān, Pt. XXI, Ch. 31 entitled لقمن (Luqmān), Sec. 4, Verse 34, but only up to باى ارض تموت .

(57) Inside the recess No. (xiv).

Qurān, Pt. XXIV, Ch. 40 entitled المؤمن (The Believer), Sec. 2, a portion of Verse 16, i.e., لمن الملك اليوم لله الواحد القهار, ('To whom does the Kingdom belong to day? To Allāh, the One, the Subduer (of all).

(58) Recess No. (xv).

الله repeated twice, and, under it, Qurān, Pt. XXI, Ch. 30 entitled الروم (The Romans), Sec. 3, Verses 20-1, but only up to وجعل بينكم مودة .

(59) Inside the recess No. (xv) is a too much mutilated inscription which does not allow correct decipherment.

(60) Recess No. (xvi).

يا مسبب الاءباب (O Maker of causes) and يا مفتاح الاءواب (O Conquerer of gates).

Under them, Qurān, Pt. XV, Ch. 17 entitled بنى اسرائيل (The Israelites), Sec. 3, Verses 23-4, but only up to لهما جناح الذل .

(61) Inside the 'recess No. (xvi).

The same as Inscription No. (39) above.

(62) Above the small arched recesses inside the dome, in Naskh characters cut in plaster.

The same as Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XLVII ('Tomb of Sikandar Lodī), p. 47.

(63) At the centre of the intrados of the dome in a circular disc painted in colours.

(a) Pt. XXVII, Ch. 54 entitled القمر (The Moon), Sec. 3, Verses 49-55.

(b) Pt. XX, Ch. 28 entitled القصص (The Narrative), Sec. 9, a portion of verse 88, i.e., from لا اله الا هو up to ترجعون .

Third or Central Bay.

(64) Inside the arched recess on the south of the central mīhrāb in engraved Naskh lettering.

(a) The 1st Muslim creed and under it the words الله repeated twice. Further below it is the phrase الملك لله (Kingdom is for Allāh).

(65-8) On arches to west, south, east and north, in Naskh letters cut in plaster.

Qurān, Pt. XXVII, Ch. 55 entitled الرحمن (The Merciful), Secs. 1-3, Verses 1-78.

(69) The bases of the pendentives are not inscribed like those in the Second Bay (vide Inscription No. 37 supra), but they bear only the words الله (God) or يا الله (O God) incised in plaster.

(70) Above the pendentives is a one-lined Persian inscription in prose damaged and much coated with smoke. It seems to be historical.

There are sixteen arched recesses as in the Second Bay at a height of 20 ft. 4½ in. from the floor of the prayer chamber. Taking from the one exactly above the principal mīhrāb they are inscribed as follows:-

(71) Recess No. (i).

يا حي يا قيم (O Living, O Self-subsisting) repeated twice. Under them are the Quranic verses 32-8 of Chapter 27 entitled النمل (The Ant) with the word الله inscribed at the end probably to fill in the blank space.

(72) Recess No. (ii).

يا رهاب (O Giver) repeated twice, and under it Qurān, Pt. XVII, Ch. 24 entitled النور (The Light), Sec. 9, Verse 64.

(73) Recess No. (iii).

الله (God) repeated twice, and under it Qurān, Pt. XV, Ch. 17 entitled بنى إسرائيل (The Israelites), Sec. 12, Verse 111.

(74) Recess No. (iv).

يا الله (O God) repeated twice, and under it Qurān, Pt. XXIV, Ch. 27 entitled النور (The Light), Sec. 5, Verse 35, but only up to كانها كوكب.

(75) Recess No. (v).

يا مسبب الاسباب (O Causer of causes) repeated twice, and under it Qurān, Pt. XVIII, Ch. 24 entitled النور (The Light), Sec. 3, Verse 26, but only up to مبرؤن مما يقولون.

(76) Recess No. (vi) appears to have been conserved lately, since being plastered over with cement, nothing on it is traceable except the words يا فتاح (O Opener).

(77) Recess No. (vii).

يا رهاب (O Giver) repeated twice, and under it is the same verse as Inscription No. (56) supra, but after بل ارض تموت the words ان الله عليم خبير are also to be seen.

(78) Recess No. (viii).

حسبى الله (God is enough for me), and under this phrase the inscription is much mutilated and covered with smoke and the only words readable are فلا رب which give no idea as to what particular Quranic verse they belong to.

(79) Recess No. (ix).

الله repeated twice, and under it Qurān, Pt. XXVII, Ch. 51 entitled الذريت (The Scatterers), Sec. 3, Verses 56-9 but only up to فان الذين.

(80) Recess No. (x).

الله (Kingdom is for God) repeated twice, and after this phrase Qurān, Pt. XXIII, Ch. 58 entitled ص (Suād), Sec. 3, Verses 34-35, but only up to وهب لى.

* This inscription is particularly interesting inasmuch as it records the name of the person responsible for so many inscriptions on the mosque at which he was also a khatīb, or preacher, while on no other pre-Mughal monument except the Nili Masjid (No. LXIV) the name of the inscription writer is to be seen.

(81) Recess No. (xi).

Under the word الله is the same verse as has been noticed under Inscription No. (28) supra.

(82) Recess No. (xii).

يا فتاح (O Opener) repeated twice, and under these words is the 37th verse of Ch. 36 entitled يس (Yāsīn). Cf. also Inscription No. 24 (a) supra.

(83) Recess No. (xiii).

يا الله (O God) repeated twice, and under these words Qurān, Pt. XXI, Ch. 32 entitled السجدة (The Adoration), Sec. 3, Verses 28-30, but only up to بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning.

(84) Recess No. (xiv).

يا فتاح (O Opener) repeated twice. Below these words, Qurān, Pt. XVII, Ch. 21 entitled الانبياء (The Prophets), Sec. 6, Verses 87-8, but only up to رنجينا من الغم . Cf. also Inscription No. 24 (c) supra.

(85) Recess No. (xv).

يا بديع (O Controller) repeated twice and underneath these words is the same verse as has been noticed under Inscription No. (7) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6, but only from قل اللهم up to كل شيء قدير .

(86) Recess No. (xvi).

سبحان الله (Praise be to God) repeated twice, and under this phrase are inscribed verses 26-9 of Chapter 55 entitled الرحمن (The Merciful), but only up to من فى السموت والارض . Vide also Inscription No. (65) supra.

(87) Above the small arched recesses, in a circle, in embossed Nasikh characters incised in plaster.

Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 34, Verses 255-7, but only up to يخرجونهم من النور الى الظلمت . Cf. also Inscription No. (65) supra;

(88) At the centre of the intrados of the dome, in Nasikh letters cut in plaster Qurān, Pt. VII, Ch. 5 entitled المائدة (The Food), Sec. 16, Verses 119-20 Fourth Bay, immediately to the north of the Central Bay.

(89) On the western arch in Nasikh characters cut in plaster.

Qurān, Pt. XVIII, Ch. 23 entitled المؤمنون (The Believers), Sec. 1, Verses 12-7, but only up to فرقكم سبع طرائق with بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning. For a continuation of the succeeding verses vide Inscription No. (92) infra.

(90-1) On the western arch, under Inscription No. 90 (above), and on the niche above the middle mihrāb.

Qurān, Pt. XXII, Ch. 33 entitled الاحزاب (The Allies), Sec. 5, Verses 35-40, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم .

(92) On the southern arch, in embossed Nasikh characters.

Continued from Inscription No. (89) supra—Ch. 23, Verses 17-21, but only up to فيها منافع كثيرة .

(93) On the eastern arch.

(a) Pt. XXVIII, Ch. 62 entitled الجمعة (The Congregation), Secs. 1-2, Verses 8-10, but the 8th verse begins only with ثم تردن .

(b) Pt. XXIV, Ch. 39 entitled الزمر (The Companies), Sec. 6, Verses 53-4, vide also Inscriptions Nos. (3) and (6) on Mont. No. XI (Tomb of Emperor Muḥammad Shāh), p. 30.

(94) On the northern arch in Naskh characters incised in plaster.

Qurān, Pt. XXIV, Ch. 41 entitled حم (Hā Mīm), Secs. 4-5, Verses 30-3.

(95) At the base of all the pendentives, except the one at the north-west corner, appears the 1st Muslim creed.

(96) Above the arches runs a Persian inscription in Naskh, damaged and covered with smoke. The readable portions lead one to conclude that it is laudatory of Sultān Sikandar Shāh Lodī.

(97) Recess No. (i).

(a) سبحان ذى الملك و الملكوت سبحان ذى العزة و العظمة و الهيبة و القدرة و الكبرياء
و الجبروت سبحان حى الذى لا ينام¹

Translation.

“Praise be to the Master of the Kingdom and angels; praise be to the Possessor of Honour, Greatness, Dignity, Power, Excellence and Magnificence; praise be to the Ever-living who never sleeps and.....”

(b) Inside the recess No. (i) is the 1st Muslim creed.

(98) Recess No. (ii).

(a) بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم قال عليه السلام من بنى لله مسجداً بنى الله له بيتاً مثله
فى الجنة²

Translation.

“In the name of Allāh, the Merciful, the Compassionate. (The Prophet), may the blessings (of Allāh) be on him, said, ‘Whoever built for Allāh a mosque got a house like it built for him in paradise’.”

(b) Inside the recess No. (ii), in a circular disc, is the 1st Muslim creed.

(99) Recess No. (iii).

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم الله محمد [لا اله] الا الله جبرئيل امين الله

Translation.

“In the name of Allāh, the Merciful, the Compassionate. Allāh. Muḥammad.....(There is no god) but Allāh, Gabriel is the trusty (servant) of Allāh.”

(100) Recess No. (iv).

(a) The same as Inscription No. (13) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh’s mosque), p. 7.

(b) Inside the recess No. (iv) is the 1st Muslim creed.

¹ It is not a Quranic verse. It is called the دعاء نزلت recited after every 4th rak’at of Salātu-t-Tarāwīḥ during the month of Ramazān.

² It is a well known tradition of the Prophet, vide Al-Jāmi’u-ṣ-Ṣaḡhīr, Pt. II (Cairo edition, 1306), p. 151.

(101) Recess No. (v).

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ ¹

Translation.

“In the name of Allāh, the Merciful, the Compassionate....There is no god but He.....”

(b) Inside the recess No. (v) appears the 1st Muslim creed.

(102) Recess No. (vi).

(a) حسبى الله (God is enough for me) repeated twice, and, under this phrase, Qurān, Pt. X, Ch. 9 entitled التوبة (The Immunity), Sec. 3, a portion of verse 19, i.e., from لا يهدي القوم الظالمين up to آمن بالله.

(b) Inside the recess No. (vi) is the 1st Muslim creed.

(103) Recess No. (vii).

All along it is floral decoration cut in plaster while inside it is the phrase حسبى الله (God is enough for me) in Naskh.

(104) Recess No. (viii).

The inscription is much damaged and covered with smoke but from the words ارخطانا that are traceable, it is presumed that the Verse 286 (or part of it) of Chapter 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow) once embellished the recess.

(105) Recess No. (ix).

(a) ربنا توفنا مسلمين و الحقنا بالصلحين و احشرنا فى زمرة المتقين و المساكين برحمتك يا ارحم الرحمين ²

Translation.

“O Lord, let us die a Muslim, and join us with the good and raise us among the righteous and the humble, by Thy mercy, O Most Merciful of the merciful.”

(b) Inside the recess No. (ix) is the 1st Muslim creed.

(106) Recess No. (x).

(a) بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ اسْتَغْفِرُ اللَّهَ الَّذِى لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْحَى الْقَيُّمُ غَفَّارُ الذُّنُوبِ وَالْعِيبِ ³

Translation.

“In the name of Allāh, the Merciful, the Compassionate. I ask forgiveness of Allāh besides whom there is no god; He is Ever-living, Self-subsisting and the Forgiver of trespasses and faults.”

(b) Inside the recess No. (x).

و صلى الله على خير خلقه محمد و آله اجمعين ⁴

Translation.

“And may Allāh confer blessings on Muḥammad, the best of His creation, and all his family.”

¹ This fragmentary phrase appears in several places in the Qurān and it cannot be said with certainty as to what particular chapter it belongs to.

² It is not a Quranic verse but only a prayer enjoined on the Muslims by the Prophet to offer when they go to bed in the night.

³ It is not a Quranic verse but only a prayer for Divine mercy.

⁴ It is a darūd or benediction, vide Index, p. 19.

(107) Recess No. (xi).

(a) The same as Inscription No. 21 (a) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, but only from شهد الله انه up to هو العزيز الحكيم .

(b) Inside the recess No. (xi) is the phrase الملك لله (Kingdom is for God).

(108) Recess No. (xii).

(a) The 2nd Muslim creed preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم .

(b) Inside the recess No. (xii) is the 1st Muslim creed.

(109) Recess No. (xiii).

Under the word الله is the following inscription:—

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم سبحان الله والحمد لله ولا اله الا الله والله اكبر ولا حول ولا قوة
الا بالله العلي العظيم¹

Translation.

“In the name of Allāh, the Merciful, the Compassionate. Glory to Allāh, and all praise is due to Allāh, and there is no god but Allāh and Allāh is the Greatest of all, and there is no power nor strength but in Allāh, the High, the Great.”

(110) Recess No. (xiv).

Floral decorations incised in plaster, but حسبى الله (God is enough for me) inside it.

(111) Recess No. (xv).

Floral decoration cut in plaster, but inside it the phrase الملك لله (Kingdom is for God). The discs bear يا الله (O God).

Ninetynine names or attributes of the Prophet, i.e., from محمد احمد up to حسيب الرلى and after this the following words:—

حسبنا الله ونعم الوكيل نعم المولى ونعم النصير صلى الله على خير خلقه محمد وآله اجمعين
برحمتك يا ارحم الراحمين¹

Translation.

“Allāh is enough for us and (He is) the Best Guardian ; (He is) the Best Master and the Best Helper. And may Allāh confer blessings on the best of His creation, Muḥammad, and all his family. By Thy mercy, O Most Merciful of the merciful.”

(113) At the centre of the intrados of the dome in a circular disc originally painted in gold and colours but at present covered with smoke.

The same as Inscription No. (51) above, but the last verse 102 is up to the end instead of only up to من انباء الغيب as already noticed.

Fifth Bay.

¹ It is the 3rd Muslim creed entitled كلمه تمجيد (Creed of Glorification).

(114-5) On the arches to north and west, in embossed Naskh characters incised in plaster as usual.

Qurān, Pt. XV, Ch. 17 entitled بنی اسرائیل (The Israelites), Sec. 9, Verses 78-84, vide also Inscription No. (4) on Mont. No. XXXVIII (Tomb of Ḥaṣrat Nizāmu-d-Dīn Auliā), p. 28.

After the above verses there appear verses 180-2 of Ch. 37 entitled الصي (The Rangers), vide Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XXII (Nili Chhatrī), p. 15, Inscription No. 7 (b) on Mont. No. XXXV (Tomb of Atgah Khān), p. 24, etc.

(116) On the south arch, in Naskh letters cut in plaster.

Qurān, Pt. XXVI, Ch. 48 entitled الفتح (The Victory), Sec. 4, Verse 29, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(117) On the eastern arch, in Naskh characters in incised plaster.

(a) Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 40, Verses 285-6, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(b) After the above Quranic text is a mutilated Persian epigraph in verse which is not a happy composition—

بيت (۱) نبشته سالها ماند ز کاتب نشان در خاک جوئی (۶) هم نیابی
بيت (۲) من نبشتم صرف کردم روزگار ین کاید یادگار

Translation.

“Couplet (1) The written stuff of a scribe lasts several years (whereas) thou shalt not discover a mark (or particle of his) even if you search (for it) in the earth. Couplet (2) I wrote (and thus) passed (my) time that (my writing) should serve as a memorial.”

(118) On the right hand disc embellishing the spandrel of the north arch.

Qurān, Pt. XXVIII, Ch. 64 entitled التغابن (Manifestation of Defects), Sec. 1, Verses 7-8.

(119) On the left hand disc embellishing the spandrel of the north arch.

(a) Qurān, Pt. XVIII, Ch. 23 entitled المؤمنون (The Believers), Sec. 6, Verses 117-8.

(b) At the centre of the above left hand disc.

The same as Inscription No. (8) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6.

(120) On the right hand disc decorating the spandrel of the south arch.

Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 3 entitled آل عمران (The Family of Amran), Sec. 1, Verses 7-8.

(121) On the left hand disc decorating the spandrel of the south arch.

Qurān, Pt. IV, Ch. 3 entitled آل عمران (The Family of Amran), Sec. 20, Verses 192-3.

(122) On the left hand disc embellishing the spandrel of the east arch.

The 2nd Muslim creed but without بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم; vide also Inscriptions Nos. (4) and 108 (a) above.

(123) The southern balcony bears, in a mutilated condition, the 97th chapter of the Qurān entitled القدر (The Majesty), vide also Inscription No. 7 (c) on Mont. No. XXXV (Tomb of Atgah Khān), p. 24.

(124) On the ceiling of the lobby between the prayer chamber and the southern balcony.

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ يُحْيِي وَيُمِيتُ رَهْوَ حَى لَا يَمُوتُ أَبَداً أَبَداً
ذِي الْجَلَالِ وَالْإِكْرَامِ بِيَدِهِ الْخَيْرُ إِنَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ¹

Translation.

“There is no god but Allāh, the One; none is His equal; His is the Kingdom and to Him is due all praise; He gives life and takes life, and He is the Ever-living, never to die; the Lord of Glory and Honour; in His hand is the good; verily He is potent over all things.”

(125) At the centre of the ceiling, in embossed Naskh characters in incised plaster.

The same as Inscription No. (8) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6.

(126) All along the border of the circular ceiling of the southern lobby runs a Persian inscription in verse in Naskh characters incised in plaster. The composition is evidently defective since the language is ungrammatical and the verses do not stand the test of scansion. It is not improbable that the mason who executed the epigraph was responsible for the mistakes which have rendered the couplets almost meaningless. The inscription runs as follows:—

(۱) دروغا این ندانستم که همه خاک خواهد شد غم دستار می خوردم تا (۲) بر زمین افتد
بیت (۲) دیگه که درون سینه همون سینه بداند بے درد چه داند که درون درد د (۳) چدارند
بیت (۳) امروز باریابی راز ان نمی خری (۴) فردا که بار جوے زگوینده زباند (۵)
(۴) یاران همه رفتند زه کعبه گرفتند من چست قدم بر در خمار به بندند (۵)

Translation.

(1) “Alas, I did not know that everything would turn into ashes; I had been anxious about my turban lest it should fall on the ground.

(2) The (boiling) vessel which is in the breast is known only to the breast; how can the pitiless realize what (amount of) pain the miserable have got in them.

(3) Today thou dost not seek admission to the Secret; to-morrow when thou seekest admission those who can speak will unloose their tongue.

(4) All friends have gone away. Bravo, they have reached the Ka'ba. (But, though) I am nimble footed, they have tied me to the door of the vintner.

(127) The northern oriel window bears a much mutilated inscription the remnants of which lead one to conclude that the 94th chapter of the Qurān entitled الا نشرح (The Expansion) was originally inscribed there.

¹ It is commonly known as the 4th Muslim creed entitled کلمه توحید (Creed of Unity).

No. XLVI.

(A) SHĪSH GUMBAD (Glazed Dome).

(B) In village Khairpur to north of the Barā Gumbad mosque (No. XLV).

(C) Nothing is so far known about the person buried in this tomb, but its architecture being very similar to that of the Barā Gumbad, it may well be assigned to the Lodī period.

(D) The mausoleum contains 8 uninscribed graves built of lime plaster. The exterior is plain but the interior of the dome is embellished with 20 pairs of inscribed circular discs made of plaster bearing the attributes of God and a few other religious phrases incised in plaster in Naskh which run as follows:—

(1) يا الله and يا فتاح , الملك الله , سبحان الله , حسبى الله

(2) Along the band of the drum of the dome (inside).

Qurān, Pt. XXVIII, Ch. 59 entitled الحشر (The Banishment), Sec. 3, Verse 22, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم. After this verse the attributes of God are inscribed which end in the following inscription:—

نعم المولى ونعم النصير صلى الله على محمد خير خلق الله

Translation.

“He is the Best Master and the Best Helper, and may Allāh confer (His blessings on Muhammad, the best of His creation.”

(3) At the centre of the intrados of the dome, in a circular disc containing floral designs in various colours.

Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Verses 255-7, but only up to يُخْرِجُهُم مِّنَ الظُّلُمَاتِ إِلَى النُّورِ; vide Inscription No. (22) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, etc.

No. XLVII.

(A) TOMB OF SIKANDAR LODĪ.

(B) In village Khairpur, to north-east of Shīsh Gumbad (No. XLVI).

(C) Built in 923 A. H. (1517-8 A.D.) by Ibrāhīm Lodī over the remains of his father, Sultān Sikandar Lodī (1488-1517 A.D.).

(D) (1) The exterior is plain but the interior of the tomb chamber containing a plain uninscribed grave is embellished with glazed tile worked in various designs fragments of which are still to be seen. Two pairs of plastered discs on the spandrels of two of the arches bear the 1st Muslim creed while the remaining twelve contain mere floral decorations incised in plaster.

(2) Along the band of the drum of the dome (inside) in Naskh characters cut in plaster.

The same as Inscription No. (14) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7, but the next seven verses (13-9) of the same chapter 36 are also to be found.

(3) At the centre of the intrados of the dome.

Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 34, Verses 255-6. Cf. also Inscription No. (5) on Mont. No. XXXVIII (Tomb of Ḥaẓrat Nizāmu-d-Dīn Auliya), p. 28.

No. XLVIII.

(A) MOSQUE OF BASTĪ.

(B) In village Raipur, just beside the railway line, some two miles to the west of the tomb of Ḥaẓrat Nizāmu-d-Dīn Auliya.

(C) Built by Bastī who is believed to have been a eunuch in the reign of Sikandar Lodī.

(D) (1) The western façade is ornamented with ten small circular discs made of lime plaster inscribed with the word الله and one bearing the words يا ديان (O Requirer). There are also six large discs four of which contain the phrase الله حسبي الله (God is enough for me) and two يا الله (O God).

(2) The prayer chamber again contains small discs bearing the words يا الله (O Prayer) and يا رهاب (O Giver) and الله حسبي, while round the arch of the central mihṛāb is a much damaged inscription in Naskh letters incised in plaster, the fragments of which lead one to conclude that they are verses 22-4 from the Quranic chapter 59 entitled الحشر (The Banishment) which have already been noticed under Inscription No. (24) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8.

(3) On the arch of the principal mihṛāb, in Naskh letters cut in plaster.

Four different chapters of the Qurān, viz. ¹ سورة الكفران, ² سورة الاخلاص, ³ سورة الفلق, and ⁴ سورة الناس, all preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(4) Above the pendentives in the central bay of the prayer chamber. The same as Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muhammad Shāh), pp. 31-32, but the epigraph having much peeled off, only from بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم up to الحامى and then after a short gap المصبر can now be seen.

(5) At the centre of the circular ceiling, in Naskh lettering آية الكرسي or Throne Verse preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم; vide Inscription No. (22) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, etc.

No. XLIX.

(A) TOMB OF BASTĪ.

(B) About 40 ft. to the south-east of the Mosque of Bastī (No. XLVIII).

(C) Vide Mosque of Bastī (No. XLVIII).

(D) (1) The exterior of the tomb is ornamented with small red sandstone discs and those made of plaster bearing in embossed Naskh letters the words يا رهاب, الله and الله الملك (Kingdom is for God).

(2) All along the four sides of the tomb above the dripstone, in a much mutilated condition.

Qurān, Pt. XXVI, Ch. 48 entitled الفتح (The Victory), Sec. 2, Verses 11-5, vide also Inscription No. (1) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6, etc.

³ and ⁴ Cf. Inscription No. (11) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7.

No. L.

(A) GATEWAY to the enclosure containing the Mosque, Tomb and Bāolī of Bastī.

(B) On the west of the tomb of Bastī (No. XLIX).

(C) Vide note (C) on Mosque of Bastī.

(D) The exterior is uninscribed except on the west where the word الله is to be found in a circular disc of red sandstone.

The interior possesses similar small discs with the word الله inscribed on them. There are sixteen other discs made of plaster, four of which bear the 1st Muslim creed, two the phrase سبحان الله (Praise be to Allāh), six الملک لله (Kingdom is for God), and the remaining four floral decorations only.

No. LI.

(A) MASJID UGAR SAIN.

(B) To south-west of Ugar Sain's Bāolī.

(C) The only person of this name known to history was Rāja Ugra Sena or Ugar Sain who reigned at Agra long before the time of Sikandar Shāh Lodī, while tradition avers that it was erected by one Akbar Husain and the word Ugar Sain is a corrupted form of his name.

(D) The spandrels of the two arched entrances to the prayer chamber and those of the three mīhrābs in the west wall are ornamented with plastered discs containing the 1st Muslim creed.

No. LII.

(A) TOMB OF ŞAFDAR JANG.

(B) To south-west of Shīsh Gumbad (No. XLVI) on the Delhi-Qutb road.

(C) The real name of Şafdar Jang was Mīrzā Muqīm Abu-l-Manşūr Khān. He was held in great esteem by Emperors Muḥammad Shāh and Aḥmad Shāh, and in the reign of the latter he became the prime minister. He died at Fyzabad in 1754 and his remains were brought to Delhi to be buried in the mausoleum erected by his son Nawwāb Shajā'u-d-Daula at a cost of three lakhs of rupees.

(D) The only inscription traceable in the mausoleum is that on a slab of white marble built into the eastern wall over the entrance. It consists of the words ياالله instead of بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning and two Persian verses recording the death of Şafdar Jang in 1167 A.H. (1753-4 A.D.).

No. LIII.

(A) TOMB OF NAJAF KHĀN.

(B) In village Bibipur, to east of the Şafdar Jang-Qutb road, about 50 ft. to south-east of Aliganj.

(C) Najaf Khān, entitled Zulfīqāru-d-Daula, was an Amīru-l-Umarā in the reign of Jalālu-d-Dīn Shāh 'Ālam II. He came of the royal Şafavī stock of Persia and his sister was married to Mīrzā Muḥsin, the elder brother of Şafdar Jang. He died in 1782 A.D.

(D) (1) On a marble slab over the grave of Najaf Khān there appears the phrase ¹هو الحى الذى لا يموت and under it runs a Persian inscription in verse eulogizing Bakhshīu-l-Mulk Najaf Khān and recording his death in 1196 A.H. (1782 A.D.).

(2) Over the grave of Najaf Khān's daughter, Faṭīma, on the same platform, is a slab of white marble bearing the phrase ²هو الحى لا يموت and under it an historical inscription in Persian verse recording her demise in 1236 A.H. (1820 A.D.).

No. LIV.

(A) TOMB OF DARYĀ KHĀN.

(B) In village Ghatusarai, to south-west of Bare Khān and Chhoṭe Khān's Gumbads (Nos. LV and LVI, respectively).

(C) The tomb which is in a dilapidated condition contains in the centre of the chhatra the uninscribed plastered grave of Daryā Khān Lohānī, the son of Mubārak Khān.³ He occupied high posts under the Lodī Kings and died in the reign of Ibrāhīm Lodī.

(D) All the inscriptions are in Nasikh characters cut in plaster but they are considerably mutilated on account of the peeling off of plaster and the fragments in situ suggest that the following verses originally graced the tomb:—

(1) Inside the broken domed chhatrī at the south-east corner.

Verses from two different chapters of the Qurān—

(a) Pt. III, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 34, Verses 255-6, vide Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XLVII (Tomb of Sikandar Lodī), p. 47, etc.

(b) The same as Inscription No. 21 (a) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, but only up to قَائِمًا بِالْقِسْطِ .

(2) Inside the broken domed chhatrī at the south-west corner.

Only a few attributes of God are in situ, viz.,

الملك القدوس السلام المؤمن المهيمن العزيز الجبار المتكبر البارى المصور

Vide Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muḥammad Shāh), pp. 31-32, etc.

(3) Inside the broken domed chhatrī at the north-west corner.

Probably the same as Inscription No. 117 (a) on Mont. No. XLV (Bare Gumbad mosque), p. 45, but only the words لها ما كسبت وعليها ما اكتسبت are in situ.

(4) Inside the broken domed chhatrī at the north-east corner.

A few attributes of God. It is perhaps similar to Inscription No. (2) above but بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning of the inscription is also in situ. Cf. also Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muḥammad Shāh), pp. 31-32.

No. LV.

(A) BARE KHĀN-KĀ-GUMBAD.

(B) In village Mubarakpur Kotla to west of Chhoṭe Khān-kā-Gumbad (No. LVI) and to north-west of Mubārak Shāh's tomb (No. LVIII).

¹ and ² Vide Inscriptions Nos. (5) and (17) on Monts. Nos. XXXIV and XXXV (The Chaṇsaṭh Khambā and Tomb of Atgah Khān) respectively, pp. 22 and 25.

³ Mubārak Khān Lohānī is said to have been buried in the tomb locally known as Kāle Khān-kā-Gumbad (No. LVII).

(C) Nothing is definitely known so far about its history but in style it is decidedly a Lodī monument.

(D) The tomb contains 5 graves all of which are uninscribed. The arches, unlike those in the Chhote Khān-kā-Gumbad, bear no texts but their spandrels are embellished with discs some of which bear only floral decorations exquisitely cut in plaster while others bear inscriptions in Naskh letters. Starting from the lower arch on the south of the western mīhrāb the epigraphs are as follows:—

(1) On the spandrels of the lower arch No. (i).

1st Muslim creed with the phrase الملك لله (Kingdom is for God) in the centre.

The lower arches Nos. (2), (3) and (4) bear no inscribed discs.

(2) On the spandrels of the lower arch No. (5)—Disc No. (1). Qurān, Pt. XXVII, Ch. 61 entitled الصف (The Ranks), Sec. 2, Verse 13, but only from بشر المؤمنين up to نصر من الله.

(3) In the centre of the above disc No. (i).

Qurān, Pt. XIII, Ch. 12 entitled يوسف (Joseph), Sec. 8, Verse 64, but only from الرحمن up to فالح خير.

(4) On the spandrels of the lower arch No. (5)—Disc No. (ii). Verses from two different chapters of the Qurān—

(a) ان الدين عند الله الاسلام Vide also Inscription No. 21 (a) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8.

(b) Pt. I, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 4, Verse 38, but only from رالهم يحزنون up to فاما يا تينم. This inscription is fragmentary.

(5) On the spandrels of the lower arches Nos. (6) and (7) are large discs made of plaster inscribed with the words يا الله or سبحان الله.

(6) On the spandrels of the lower arch No. (8).

The same as Inscription No. (1) above.

(7) On the spandrels of the upper arch on the west are circular discs made of plaster bearing the 2nd Muslim creed and containing the words يا الله in the centre.

(8) At the centre of the intrados of the dome.

Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 34, Verses 255-6. Cf. also Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XLVII (Tomb of Sikandar Lodī), p. 47, etc.

No. LVI.

(A) CHHOTE KHAN-KĀ-GUMBAD.

(B) In village Mubarakpur Kotla, to east of Bare Khān-kā-Gumbad (No. LV).

(C) Vide note (C) on Bare Khān-kā-Gumbad (No. LV).

(D) (1) There are circular discs inscribed with the words يا الله or يا فتاح (O Opener) but in some places the 1st Muslim creed or the phrase سبحان الله is also to be found in Naskh letters in incised plaster.

(2) Round the eastern arch, in Naskh letters cut in plaster, is a mutilated Quranic inscription the fragmentary verses of which belong to the 62nd chapter

(D) (1) On a marble slab over the grave of Najaf Khān there appears the phrase ¹هو الحى لا يموت and under it runs a Persian inscription in verse eulogizing Bakhshīu-l-Mulk Najaf Khān and recording his death in 1196 A.H. (1782 A.D.).

(2) Over the grave of Najaf Khān's daughter, Faṭīma, on the same platform, is a slab of white marble bearing the phrase ²هو الحى لا يموت and under it an historical inscription in Persian verse recording her demise in 1236 A.H. (1820-1 A.D.).

No. LVI.

(A) CHHOṬE KHĀN-KĀ-GUMBAD.

(B) In village Mubarakpur Kotla, to east of Barē Khān-kā-Gumbad (No. LV).

(C) Vide note (C) on Barē Khān-kā-Gumbad (No. LV).

(D) (1) There are circular discs inscribed with the words يا فتاح or يا الله (O Opener) but in some places the 1st Muslim creed or the phrase سبحان الله is also to be found in Naskh letters in incised plaster.

(2) Round the eastern arch, in Naskh letters cut in plaster, is a mutilated Quranic inscription the fragmentary verses of which belong to the 62nd chapter entitled الجمعة (The Congregation), vide also Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XXX (Tomb of 'Isā Khān), p. 9, etc.

(3) The inscription on the southern arch is also considerably damaged but its fragments show that verses 255-57 of Chapter 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow) preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم once embellished the building, vide also Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XLII (Tomb of Muḥammad Shāh), p. 32, etc.

(4) On the western arch.

The same as Inscription No. (3) above.

(5) Under the Inscription No. (4) above is the 97th Chapter of the Qurān entitled القدر (The Majesty) which has been noticed under Inscription No. 7 (C) on Mont. No. XXXV (Tomb of Atgah Khān), p. 24, whereas at the end of it appears the 1st Muslim creed.

(6) On the northern arch, in embossed Naskh letters cut in plaster as usual.

Verses from two different chapters of the Qurān—

(a) The same as Inscription No. (24) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, but preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(b) The same as Inscription No. (118) on Mont. No. XLV (Barā Gumbad mosque), p. 45, but only from على الله يسير up to زعم الذين كفروا.

(7) Below the Inscription No. (6) above.

Qurān, Pt. XXIX, Ch. 67 entitled الملك (The Kingdom), Sec. 2, Verses 26-27, vide also Inscriptions Nos. 5 (a) and 7 (a) on Mont. No. XXXV (Tomb of Atgah Khān), pp. 23-24.

(8) Again, under the above Inscription No. (7) is a mutilated Quranic text the fragments of which belong to the 25th verse of the 3rd Chapter entitled آل عمران (The family of Amran), vide also Inscription No. (7) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6, etc.

Inside the tomb there are several arched recesses: the lower ones, 8 in number, have their spandrels ornamented with circular discs made of plaster bearing the 1st Muslim creed and the phrase سبحان الله (Praise be to Allāh).

Starting from the arched recess on the left of the western mihṛāb the following inscriptions in Naskh characters incised in plaster are to be seen in a mutilated condition:—

(9) Lower arch No. (1).

Qurān, Pt. XXX, Ch. 93 entitled الضحى (The Dawn), Verses 1-8 preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(10) (a) Under the Inscription No. (9) above.

The 1st Muslim creed with بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning and سبحان الله at the end.

(b) In circular discs decorating the spandrels of the lower arch No. (1) is the 1st Muslim creed.

(11) Lower arch No. (2).

Fragmentary verses belonging to Chapter 94 entitled الا نشرح (The Expansion), vide also Inscription No. (127) on Mont. No. XLV (Barā Gumbad mosque), p. 46.

(12) Under the above Inscription No. (11) appears the same epigraph as has been noticed above under Inscription No. 10 (a).

(13-14) Lower arches Nos (3) and (4).

Fragmentary. Ch. 98 entitled البينة (The Clear Evidence), Verses 1-7, but only up to ¹عملوا الصلح¹.

(15) Lower arch No. (5).

Fragments of two separate chapters of the Qurān—

(a) Pt. XXX, Ch. 105 entitled الفيل (The Elephant), vide also Inscription No. (25) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8.

(b) Pt. XXX, Ch. 108 entitled الكثر (Abundant Good), Verses 1-3.

(16) Lower arch No. (6).

Qurān, Pt. XXX, Ch. 112 entitled الاخلاص (The Unity), Verses 1-4 preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم, vide also Inscription No. (13) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7, etc.

(17) Under the above Inscription No. (16).

Qurān, Pt. XXX, Ch. 106 entitled القرش (The Quraish), Verses 1-4.

(18) Lower arch No. (7).

The same as Inscription No. 93 (b) on Mont. No. XLV (Barā Gumbad mosque), p. 42, but also the word ر اتبعوا of the next verse 55 of the same chapter is in situ.

(19) (a) Under the Inscription No. (18) above.

Qurān, Pt. XXVIII, Ch. 65 entitled الطلاق (The Divorce), Sec. 1, Verse 3,* but only from ومن يتوكل up to جعل الله لكل.

(b) In a circular disc decorating the spandrels of the lower arch No. (7) the phrase سبحان الله is inscribed.

(20) (a) Lower Arch No. (8).

Qurān, Pt. XX, Ch. 28 entitled القصص (The Narrative), Sec. 9, Verses 84-8, but only up to لا اله الا هو is in situ. Cf. also Inscription No. (4) on Mont. No. XLIV (Barā Gumbad), pp. 32-33, etc.

(b) The spandrels are embellished with circular discs inscribed with the 1st Muslim creed.

Besides, there are 8 upper arches, four on the north, south, east and west sides and the rest at the four corners. All of them bear inscriptions in Naskh letters cut in plaster which run as follows:—

(21) On the northern arch.

Qurān, Pt. XXVII, Ch. 55 entitled الرحمن (The Merciful), Verses 1-17, but only up to رب المشرقين and preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم. Vide Inscription No. (65) on Mont. No. XLV (Barā Gumbad mosque), pp. 39-40. For a continuation of this inscription, see Inscription No. (33) on corner arch No. (4) infra.

(22) On the western arch, in Naskh characters cut in plaster.

Qurān, Pt. XXVI, Ch. 48 entitled الفتح (The Victory) Sec. 4, Verses 27-8, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

* It is interesting to note that the inscription consists of only the last portion of the verse befitting the nature of the monument it now decorates, while the preceding verses dealing with the Law of Divorce seem to have been purposely left out as being inappropriate.

(23) Under the Inscription No. (22) above and also above the red sandstone mīhrāb in embossed Naskh letters.

The last verse of Chapter 48 entitled الفتح (The Victory) already noticed under Inscription No. (116) on Mont. No. XLV (Baṛā Gumbad mosque), p. 45 but without بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(24) (a) Round the western arch, in Naskh lettering.

Qurān, Pt. VII, Ch. 6 entitled الانعام (The Cattle), Sec. 10, Verses 84-90, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم, vide also Inscription No. (1) on Mont. No. XLIV (Baṛā Gumbad), p. 32, etc.

(b) The spandrels of the western arch are ornamented with large circular medallions made of plaster bearing the 1st Muslim creed.

(25) On the southern arch, in Naskh characters.

The same as Inscription No. (19) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, but only up to عملاً صالحاً ولا.

(26) (a) Under the Inscription No. (25) above.

Qurān, Pt. XXII, Ch. 35 entitled ناظر (The Originator), Sec. 4, Verses 34-6.

(b) On the spandrels of the southern arch.

The same as Inscription No. 24 (b) above.

(27) On the eastern arch.

Verses from two separate chapters of the Qurān with يا غفر (O Forgiver) at the end—

(a) Pt. XI, Ch. 9 entitled التوبة (The Immunity), Sec. 16, Verses 128-9.

(b) Pt. XVIII, Ch. 23 entitled المؤمنون (The Believers), Sec. 6, Verse 118.

(28) (a) Under the Inscription No. (27) above.

Qurān, Pt. XXI, Ch. 30 entitled الروم (The Romans), Sec. 2, Verses 17-9.

(b) On the spandrels of the eastern arch.

The same as Inscription No. 24 (b) above.

Beginning from the arch on the left of the western mīhrāb, the corner arches are inscribed as follows :—

29 (a) On the corner arch No. (1), in Naskh characters in incised plaster. The same as Inscription No. 117 (a) on Mont. No. XLV (Baṛā Gumbad mosque), p. 45.

(b) On the spandrels of the corner arch No. (1) above.

The same as Inscription No. 24 (b) above.

(30) On the corner arch No. (2).

Continued from Inscription No. (30), i.e., from سبع طرائق up to لكم فيها نواكح كثيرة, vide also Inscription No. (92) on Mont. No. XLV (Baṛā Gumbad mosque), p. 41.

(b) On the spandrels of the corner arch No. (2).

The same as Inscription No. 24 (b) above.

(32) (a) On the corner arch No. (3).

Qurān, Pt. IV, Ch. 3 entitled آل عمران (The Family of Amran), Sec. 15, Verses 143-5.

(b) On the spandrels of the corner arch No. (3).

The same as Inscription No. 24 (b) above.

(33) On the corner arch No. (4).

Continued from Inscription No. (21) supra, i.e., from رَبِّ الْمَغْرِبِينَ up to اِنْ اسْتَطَعْتُمْ اَنْ تَنْغُزُوا in verse 33.

(34) The spandrels of the corner arch No. (4) are ornamented with large circular discs inscribed with the 2nd Muslim creed in Naskh letters.

The small arched recesses above the inscribed arches also bear Quranic texts in Naskh characters incised in plaster but they are mostly damaged and only fragments of the following verses are readable here and there :—

(35) Pt. XVII, Ch. 21 entitled الانبياء (The Prophets), Sec. 6, Verses 87-89 but only from لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ سُبْحَانَكَ up to خَيْرَ الْوَارِثِينَ. Cf. also Inscriptions Nos. 24 (c) and (84) on Mont. No. XLV (Barā Gumbad mosque), pp. 36 and 41.

(36) The same as Inscription No. (43) on Mont. No. XLV (Barā Gumbad mosque), p. 38, but only from رَبَّنَا اللَّهُ up to الَّذِينَ يَحْجِرُونَ فِي اللَّهِ.

(41) The same as Inscription No. (58) on Mont. No. XLV (Barā Gumbad mosque), p. 39.

(42) The spandrels of the small arched recesses are ornamented with small circular discs made of plaster bearing the words الْمَلِكُ لِلَّهِ (Kingdom is for God) or يَا اللَّهُ while the phrases حَسْبِيَ اللَّهُ (God is enough for me) and سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ (Praise be to God) also decorate some of the discs.

(43) Above the arched recesses, in Naskh characters cut in plaster.

The same as Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muḥammad Shāh), pp. 31-32, but from بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ هُوَ اللَّهُ الَّذِي لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ عَلَّمَ الْغَيْبَ وَالشَّهَادَةَ up to الرَّشِيدِ الصَّابِرِ followed by اَلَّذِي لَيْسَ كَمِثْلِهِ شَيْءٌ وَهُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ instead of اَلَّذِي لَيْسَ كَمِثْلِهِ شَيْءٌ وَهُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ

(44) The intrados of the dome is ornamented with circular medallions made of plaster containing floral decorations, but two of them are inscribed with the 1st Muslim creed. Its central portion is painted in gold and colours and contains verses 255-6 of Chapter 2 entitled الْبَقَرَةُ (The Cow), vide Inscription No. (5) on Mont. No. XXXVIII (Tomb of Ḥazrat Nizāmu-d-Dīn Auliya), p. 28.

No. LVII.

(A) KĀLE KHĀN-KĀ-GUMBAD.(B) In village Mubarakpur Kotla, about 1,100 ft. south of the tomb locally known as Baṛe Khān-kā-Gumbad (No. LV).(C) The tomb is believed to contain the remains of Mubārak Khān Lohānī, a noble of Bahlol Lodī.(D) (1) The exterior is ornamented with circular medallions bearing the 1st Muslim creed or the phrases بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم or الملك لله or على الجبار والاسلام.

(In the name of God, the Merciful, the Compassionate, the Most High, the Supreme, the Author of peace.....).

(2) The interior is embellished with small circular medallions containing الله or سبحان الله and with large medallions most of which bear the 1st Muslim creed with the word الله in the centre. On the spandrels of the southern arch there are two large discs bearing the following epigraph:—

قال النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم لا اله الا الله انى رسول الله

Translation.

“The Prophet, may Allāh bless and assoil him, said, ‘There is no god but Allāh, verily I am the Prophet of Allāh.’”

(3) On the arch of the western mihrāb.The 2nd Muslim creed preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم. Below it is لا حول ولا قوة الا بالله العلي العظيم (There is no strength nor power except in Allāh, the High, the Great).(4) On a red sandstone slab fixed over the western mihrāb is a Persian inscription in prose recording the erection of the tomb of Mubārak Khān, son of Masnad-i-‘Ālī A‘zam Humāyūn Khān Muḥammad, son of Malik....., in 886 A.H. (1481 A.D.).(5) At the centre of the intrados of the dome, in embossed Naskh characters cut in plaster.Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 34, Verses 255-6, vide also Inscription No. (5) on Mont. No. XXXVIII (Tomb of Ḥaẓrat Nizāmu-d-Dīn Auliya), p. 28.

No. LVIII.

(A) TOMB OF MUBĀRAK SHĀH.

(B) In the heart of the village Mubarakpur Kotla.

(C) The tomb, built probably in 1434 A.D., contains the remains of Sultān Mubārak Shāh (1421-34 A.D.), son of Khizr Khān, the 2nd King of the Saiyid dynasty, and the other six marble graves in the tomb chamber may be assigned to the members of the royal family. The King is known for the erection of a new city named after him as Mubarakabad of which no trace is now left. It was in Mubarakabad that he was treacherously assassinated by his nobles in 1434 A.D.(D) (1) There is no inscription on the exterior but the verandah round the tomb chamber is ornamented with circular medallions of lime plaster inscribed with the following religious quotations in Naskh characters.

(a) On the north.

Four medallions bearing يافتاح (O Opener).

(b) On the north-west.

Four medallions inscribed with يا ساتر العيوب (O Veiler of faults*).

(c) On the west.

Four medallions inscribed with سبحان الله.

(d) On the south-west.

Two medallions bearing سبحان الله بحمده كثير (Gl'ory be to Allāh with His abundant praise), and the remaining two الملك لله.

(e) On the south-west.

The same as No. 1 (b) above.

(f) On the east.

Four discs bearing a Persian inscription, much mutilated and covered with smoke, containing the name of Mubārak Shāh, son of Khizr Khān.

(2) Inside the tomb there are seven marble graves, one of Sultān Mubārak Shāh in front of the southern entrance and the remaining six probably of the members of the royal family. All, but the one of a child, bear the 1st Muslim creed and الله carved in relief.

(3) Next to the grave of Mubārak Shāh is the one of a female inscribed with the 17th verse of chapter 3 of the Qurān already noticed under Inscription No. 21 (a) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, etc.

The spandrels of the lower arches are embellished with large circular medallions bearing floral decorations or religious quotations in Naskh characters in incised plaster. Starting from the arch on the left of the western mīhrāb the following inscriptions are to be seen:—

(4) On the spandrels of the lower arch No. (1).

يا سامع الدعاء يا فاطر السماء يا دايماً البقاء يا واسع العطاء †

Translation.

“O Hearer of prayer, O Creator of the heaven, O Everlasting, O Most Munificient.”

Under the above verse in two small discs made of plaster are the words يافتاح (O Opener) while on the spandrels of the lower arch No. (2) the discs contain only floral decorations incised in plaster.

(5) On the spandrels of the lower arch No. (3).

Qurān, Pt. XVII, Ch. 21 entitled الانبياء (The Prophets), Sec. 6, Verses 87-8, but only from لا اله الا انت up to ننجي المؤمنين, vide Inscriptions Nos. 24 (c) and (84) on Mont. No. XLV (Barā Gumbad mosque), p. 41, etc.

On the spandrels of the lower arch No. (4) there were originally two decorative circular medallions, one of which is broken and fragmentary whereas the inscription on the other, particularly along its circular border, is also much damaged. Inside this medallion, there is a square which is further divided into four smaller squares each containing an inscription while on the four sides of it are inscribed the names of the four Imāms, viz., Shāfa'ī, Mālik, A'zam and Aḥmad Ḥambal.

The inscription runs as follows:—

(6) Along the circular border of the medallion.

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم لقسه ٩....

Translation.

“In the name of Allāh, the Merciful, the Compassionate. The Beneficent

(7) Outside the four sides of the central square.

Translation.

“Imām Shāfa'ī, may the mercy of Allāh be on him. Imām Mālik, may the mercy of Allāh be on him. Imām-i-A'zam (The great Imām), may the mercy of Allāh be on him. Imām Aḥmad Ḥambal, may the mercy of Allāh be on him.”

(8) Inside the smaller square No. (1). لا اله الا الله الحى القيوم.

Translation.

“There is no god but Allāh, the Ever-living, the Self-subsisting.”

(9) Inside the smaller square No. (2) on the right of square No. (1).

لا اله الا الله تعالى كدار (٩).....

Translation.

“There is no god but Allāh, the High.....

(10) Inside the smaller square No. (3).

لا اله الا الله

Translation.

“There is no god but Allāh.”

(11) Inside the smaller square No. (4).

The 1st Muslim creed.

The spandrels of the 5th lower arch are embellished with two circular discs bearing different inscriptions which run as follows:—

(12) On the circular disc No. (i).

يا هادى الرشاد يا ملهم السداد (٩) يا محى البلاد يا رازق العباد *

Translation.

“O Guide to the way (of salvation), O Inspirer of the righteous (?), O Giver of life to the cities, O Sustainer of the slaves”.

(13) On the circular disc No. (ii).

يا عالم الغيوب يا ساتر العيوب يا غافر الذنوب يا كاشف الكرب †

* It is an extract from the Ode of Hazrat 'Alī bin Abī Tālib, vide Majānīn-u-l-Adab, Pt. III, p. 7 (Beirut edition, 1913).

† Vide footnote marked * above.

Translation.

“ O Knower of everything invisible, O Veiler of faults, O Forgiver of sins, O Remover of sorrows ”.

The small discs underneath contain the words يا عالم الغيوب (O Omniscient).

(14) On the spandrels of the lower arch No. (6).

The 3rd Muslim creed, vide Inscription No. (109) on Mont. No. XLV (Barā Gumbad mosque), p. 44.

(15) On the spandrels of the lower arch No. (7).

The 2nd Muslim creed, vide Inscriptions Nos. (4) and 108 (a) on Mont. No. XLV (Barā Gumbad mosque), pp. 34 and 44.

(16) On the spandrels of the lower arch No. (8).

The 1st Muslim creed and the words ياساتر العيوب.

Under the words يا الله repeated twice appears the same text as has been noticed under Inscription No. 21 (a) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, etc.

(18) On the arch of the mīhrāb.

The same as Inscription No. (22) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, but only up to يشفع عنده الاباذنه. Below it appears the 2nd Muslim creed.

(19) Inside the mīhrāb is a large disc bearing الملك الله in Tughrā characters and a little below it the 1st Muslim creed.

(20) On the band of the dome above the small arched recesses (inside), in Naskh letters.

A much broken inscription containing the attributes of God up to البر التراب preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم. Cf. Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muhammad Shāh), pp. 31-32, etc.

(21) The spandrels of the small arched recesses are ornamented with thirty-two small plastered medallions bearing one or the other of the following words :— يا خالق السماء, يا فتاح, يا وهاب, حسبى الله, سبحان الله, الملك لله, الله, and the 1st Muslim creed.

(22) At the centre of the intrados of the dome, in Naskh characters in incised plaster.

Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 34, Verses 255-6, but only up to لا اكره فى الدين and preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

No. LIX.

(A) MASJID MUBĀRAKPŪR KOṬLA.

(B) Near the tomb of Mubarak Shāh (No. LVIII) to south of its western gate.

(C) Being situated within the enclosure of the dome, the mosque seems to have been erected about the same time to serve as a usual adjunct to it.

(D) The spandrels of the five arched openings leading into the prayer chamber are decorated with circular discs made of lime plaster bearing the 1st Muslim creed in Naskh letters.

No. LX.

(A) BHŪRE KHĀN-KĀ-GUMBAD also known as GHĀSIWĀLĀ GUMBAD.

(B) In village Mubarakpur Kotla, to north-east of Kāle Khān-kā-Gumbad (No. LVII).

(C) The tomb has no historical epigraph, but on stylistic grounds it may be assigned to the Lodī period.

(D) (1) The exterior is plain but the interior is embellished with circular medallions inscribed with the 1st Muslim creed and the phrase سبحان الله while the 112th chapter of the Qurān entitled الاخلاص (The Unity) preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم is also to be found.

(2) The intrados of the dome possesses 8 plastered discs, four of which contain the 1st Muslim creed and the rest الملك لله in Naskh letters.

(3) Above the small arched recesses, in Naskh characters.

Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 34, Verses 255-7, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم. Cf. also Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muḥammad Shāh), p. 32, etc.

No. LXI.

(A) DHAURĀ GUMBAD.

(B) In village Zamarrudpur.

(C) It is evidently a monument of the Paṭhān period but nothing is so far known about the person who lies buried there. It is now used for residential purposes.

(D) There is no inscriptional decoration on the outside, but inside the tomb chamber there are two circular medallions made of lime plaster bearing the words الله يا only.

No. LXII.

(A) KĀLĀ GUMBAD.

(B) In village Zamarrudpur, near the Dhaurā Gumbad (No. LXI).

(C) Vide note (C) on Dhaurā Gumbad (No. LXI). In the tomb chamber there is no trace of the grave.

(D) At the centre of the intrados of the dome, in Naskh characters cut in plaster.

The same as Inscription No. (5) on Mont. No. XXXVII (Tomb of Ḥaẓrat Nizāmu-d-Dīn Auliya), p. 28, but only up to قد تبين الرشده من الغي. The inscription is much defaced and covered with smoke.

No. LXIII.

(A) MOṬH-KĪ-MASJID.

(B) In the centre of village Moṭh-kī-Masjid.

(C) The mosque belongs to the reign of Sultān Sikandar Shāh Lodī who is said to have picked up a grain of moṭh lying in the Jāmi' Masjid and given it to his wise minister, Miyān Bhūrā. The latter sowed it in his orchard and the grains it yielded were multiplied by sowing them year after year till their produce carried a large sum which the sagacious minister spent on the construction of so elegant a mosque commemorative of the grant of a grain of moṭh.

(D) (1) Originally white marble slabs bearing Quranic quotations in embossed Naskh characters decorated the exterior of the central entrance. Most of them have now disappeared and only a few which seem to have been subsequently reset are to be found on the north and south sides of the gateway. But they have been so much intermixed that it is not possible to make anything out of them. The following fragmentary verses are, however, traceable :—

(a) Qurān, Pt. XXIX, Ch. 73 entitled المزمّل (The Wrapped Up), Sec. 1, Verse 16, but only up to اخذاً.

(b) Qurān, Pt. XXVI, Ch. 50 entitled ق (Qāf), Sec. 1, a portion of Verse 2, i.e., [فقال الكفرون] هذا شئ عجيب.

(c) Qurān, Pt. XXVI, Ch. 50 entitled ق (Qāf), Sec. 2, a portion of Verse 22, i.e., from فكشفنا عنك up to اليم حديد.

(2) The Kanguras on the western façade are ornamented with circular discs of lime plaster, some of which bear floral decorations while the others are inscribed with يا الله or الله.

(3) The prayer chamber is divided into five bays of which those at the two extreme ends bear no inscriptional decoration. The 2nd bay, or the compartment on the south of the central one, possesses two plastered medallions on the spandrels of the western arch inscribed with the 1st Muslim creed in Kūfic letters, whereas the inner mihrāb bears الله الملك and الله.

(4) On the arch of the principal mihrāb in the central bay, in embossed Naskh characters.

The same as Inscription No. (10) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6, but only up to مثل القوم الذين كذبوا بآيت الله.

(5) Inside the principal mihrāb, in embossed Naskh letters.

Three different texts—

(a) The 1st Muslim creed preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(b) & (c) The 112th chapter of the Qurān entitled الخلاص (The Unity) and the 113th chapter entitled الفلق (The Dawn), but without بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning. Cf. also Inscriptions Nos. (13) and (11) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7, respectively.

(6) In the small niche above the mihrāb, in embossed Naskh characters.

The 2nd Muslim creed, but without بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم, vide Inscription No. 4 (a) on Mont. No. XLV (Barā Gumbad mosque), p. 34.

(7) On the arched niche above the principal mihrāb, in Naskh letters.

Qurān, Pt. XXVII, Ch. 55 entitled الرحمن (The Merciful), Sec. 2, Verses 26-30, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم, vide Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XXIV (Humāyūn's tomb), p. 16.

(8) At the centre of the intrados of the dome in Naskh characters cut in plaster.

Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 34, Verses 255-6 preceded by بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ, vide Inscription No. (5) on Mont. No. XXXVIII (Tomb of Ḥaẓrat Niẓāmu-d-Dīn Auliā), p. 28, etc.

(9) The fourth bay contains the same inscriptions as the 2nd bay noticed above but in this bay the word اللَّهُ instead of الْمَلِكِ is to be seen.

No. LXIV.

(A) NILĪ MASJID (Blue Mosque).

(B) In village Kharera, to east of the Delhi-Qutb road.

(C) It was built in 911 A. H. (1505 A.D.) in the reign of Sikandar Lodī by Kasumbhīl, the nurse of Fath Khān, son of Masnad-i-Ālī Khawāṣ Khān.

(D) (1) On the eastern façade above the Chhajja is a one-lined inscription, (15 ft × 4 inches) at a height of about 14 ft. from the floor of the mosque in Naskh characters incised in plaster. It is damaged on account of the peeling off of plaster and consists of eight different texts detailed below :—

(a) The 2nd Muslim creed preceded by بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ .

(b) The same as Inscription No. (8) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6.

(c) Three traditions of the Prophet, viz.—

قال النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم الدنيا جيفة و طالبها كلاب

Translation.

“The Prophet, may God bless and assoil him, said, ‘The world is a carrion and its lovers are dogs.’”*

قال عليه السلام إذا رأيتم الرجل يتعاهد المسجد فاشهدوا إليه بالإيمان

Translation.

“(The Prophet,) peace be on him, said, ‘If you see that the man pledges himself to the mosque, testify in his favour.’”

قال النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم لا و.....

Translation.

“The Prophet, may God bless and assoil him, said, ‘Beware.....’”

(d) Qurān, Pt. IV, Ch. 3 entitled آل عمران (The Family of Amran), Sec. 15, Verses 143-7. Cf. also Inscription No. 32 (a) on Mont. No. LVI (Chhotē Khān-kā-Gumbad), pp. 54-55.

(e) Ch. 112 of the Qurān entitled الإخلاص (The Unity), preceded by بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ, vide Inscription No. (13) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7.

(f) The 1st Muslim creed.

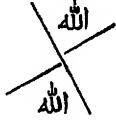

(2) On the central arched entrance to the prayer chamber there are two Persian verses in Naskh characters cut in plaster. They have not been correctly inscribed probably on account of the ignorance of the scribe and being also partly damaged the 2nd verse has become practically meaningless. The inscription runs as follows:—

* Those who seek worldly pleasures are considered no better than dogs.

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم

کانش (۶) خراج ملک در عالم بود بها

(۱) هر يك نفس كه مى رود از عمر گهر ياست

حسبى الله
حسبى الله

و انكه درى بخاك نهى دست بے نوا

(۲) بد سنگ کاین خزانه ما کرد آنچه نال که

سبحان الله بحمده

Translation.

“In the name of Allāh, the Merciful, the Compassionate. (1) Every single breath of life that passes out is a pearl, the price of which is the output (lit. tribute) of both the worlds. Allāh is enough for me. Allāh is enough for me.

(2) It was a (precious) stone that (by its going out) rendered our treasure such that if thou goest into it thou shalt put thy empty hand on the dust. Glory be to Allāh with abundant praise.

(3) A slab of white marble let into the façade above the central archway bears an historical epigraph written by Kamāl Aḥmad Khān in Arabic and Persian prose assigning the erection of the mosque to Kasumbhīl, the nurse of Khānzādah Miyān Fath Khān, son of Masnad-i-‘Ālī Khawāṣ Khān, on the 2nd of Rabī‘ I, 911 A.H. (3rd August 1505 A.D.) in the reign of Sultān Sikandar Lodī.

(4) On the spandrels of the archways leading into the prayer chamber, in circular medallions, are the 1st Muslim creed, or the phrases يا رهاب (O Giver), الله , حسبى الله or يا فتاح while الله decorates the kanguras of the façade.

(5) The prayer chamber also is ornamented with circular medallions made of plaster similar to those noticed above each bearing one of the following words or phrases:— الله , حسبى الله , (الملاک الله) and the 1st Muslim creed.

The central mihrāb bears faint traces of a Quranic inscription too much damaged to allow of a correct decipherment.

No. LXV.

(A) IDGĀH.

(B) In village Kharera, on the south-east of the Nilī Masjid (No. LXIV), to east of the Delhi-Qutb road.

(C) The mosque was built in 1405 by Iqbāl Khān, better known as Mallū, who after the invasion of Tīmūr repopulated the city of Delhi. He was so influential that he virtually ruled the country in the reign of Emperor Maḥmūd Shāh, the last King of the Tughlaq dynasty.

(D) The only inscription it bears is on a slab of stone built into the south bastion towards the east, recording its erection on the 16th Shābān, 807 A.H. (17th February, 1405 A.D.) by Iqbāl Khān alias Mallū during his repopulation of the city of Delhi after the desolating invasion of the Mughals under Tīmūr. It is significant to note that the epigraph does not contain the name of the King but that Iqbāl Khān formally calls himself "Sultānī", or a slave of the Sultān, who in reality was only a puppet in his hands.

No. LXVI.

(A) CITY WALL OF SIRI.

(B) Ruined portions of it are to be found in the villages of Shahpur Jat, Chiragh Dehli and Shaikhsarai.

(C) The wall was built by 'Alāu-d-Dīn Khālījī about the year 703 A.H. (1303-4 A.D.) round his city, known as Sirī, which was subsequently destroyed by Sher Shāh Sūrī.

(D) On the kanguras of a bastion on the south there are large medallions inscribed with the words الملك الله or يا الله or the 1st Muslim creed in embossed Naskh letters.

No. LXVII.

(A) MOSQUE OF MAKHDŪM ŠĀHIB.

(B) In village Shahpur Jat, to south-east of the 'Idgāh at Kharera (No. LXV).

(C) It is known after the name of Makhdūm Šāhib, a saint, who lies buried on the north of the domed pavilion (No. LXVIII).

(D) (1) The spandrels of the arches are embellished with large circular discs containing the word الله in the middle, while the kanguras on the façade are ornamented by small circular medallions inscribed with the words الله , يا الله or حسبي الله .

(2) The prayer chamber is decorated throughout with large circular medallions inscribed with الله or يا الله while the central compartment bears a much mutilated inscription in Naskh characters incised in plaster. It consists of the attributes of God up to الرشيد الصبور . Cf. Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muḥammad Shāh), pp. 31-32

(3) Under the Inscription No. (2) above are verses from two different chapters of the Qurān.

(a) Ch. 67 entitled الملك (The Kingdom), Secs. 1-2, Verses 1-30, vide Inscriptions Nos. 1 (a), 3 (a), 5 (a) and 7 (a) on Mont. No. XXXV (Tomb of Atgah Khān), pp. 23 and 24.

(b) Ch. 37 entitled الصفات (The Rangers), Verses 180-2, vide Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XXII (Nīlī Chhatrī), p. 15.

(4) Above these inscriptions there are 8 small arched recesses decorated only with the phrase حسبي الله in Naskh lettering.

(5) Immediately to east of the courtyard of the mosque is a plastered grave bearing a fragmentary quotation from the Quranic chapter 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Verse 136.

No. LXVIII.

(A) UNKNOWN TOMB or a Domed Pavilion.

(B) Immediately to east of the inscribed plastered grave noticed above.

(C) Nothing is definitely known of the tomb but there are reasons to call it a Pathān monument.

(D) Inside the tomb there are traces of profuse epigraphical ornamentation in incised and coloured plaster which has almost entirely peeled off or faded, and only the following Persian verse in Naskh characters is partly readable.

چه جاء شكر و شكایت ز نقش نیک و بدست كه نیز جیفه هستی نخواهد ماند

Translation.

“What is the occasion of offering thanks for, or making complaints against, a mark of good or evil, because even the world which is (but) a carrion shall not last.....”

No. LXIX.

(A) MUHAMMADIWALI MASJID.

(B) In village Shahpur Jat, about 500 ft. to west of the village.

(C) History is silent in regard to the name of its founder or the date of its erection, but on stylistic grounds it may be supposed to date as far back as the Pathān period.

(D) The exterior is uninscribed but the prayer chamber is ornamented with several epigraphs, both Quranic and Traditional, some of which have been wrongly executed probably on account of the ignorance of the mason in charge of the work. The inscriptions are in Naskh characters in incised lime plaster which has peeled off in several places.

a. Central compartment.

(1) Over the principal mihṛāb is a circular medallion, painted red, containing the words يا محمد (O Muhammad) in Tughṛā characters, while on the spandrels of the arched recess right above it there are circular discs inscribed with the word الله only in Naskh letters.

(2) On the upper arch of the principal mihṛāb.

The same as Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muhammad Shāh), p. 32, but the last verse 257 is up to اُولَئِكَ اصْحَابُ النَّارِ only.

(3) On the northern arch.

Fragments of four different chapters of the Qurān—

(a) Ch. 112 entitled الاخلاص (The Unity), Verses 1-4, preceded by بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِیْمِ.

(b) Ch. 113 entitled الفلق (The Dawn), Verses 1-5, preceded by بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِیْمِ.

(c) Ch. 114 entitled الناس (The Men), Verses 1-6, preceded by بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِیْمِ.

(d) Ch. 1 entitled الفاتحه (The Opening), Verses 1-4.

(4) On the eastern arch, in a much damaged condition.

Fragments of verses from two different chapters of the Qurān—

(a) The same as Inscription No. 117 (a) on Mont. No. XLV (Baṛā Gumbad mosque), p. 45.

(b) The same as Inscription No. (4) on Mont. No. XXXVIII (Tomb of Hazrat Nizāmu-d-Dīn Auliya), p. 28, but only up to من لدنك سلطاناً نصيراً .

(5) On the southern arch.

Verses from three different chapters of the Qurān—

(a) The same as Inscriptions Nos. (114-5) on Mont. No. XLV (Baṛā Gumbad mosque), p. 45, but only from قل جاء الحق up to بمن هو اهدى سبيلاً .

(b) The same as Inscription No. 24 (a) on Mont. No. LVI (Chhoṭe Khān-kā-Gumbad), p. 54, but only up to الى صراط مستقيم.

(c) Fragments of verses 180-2 of Ch. 37 entitled الصفى (The Rangers), vide Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XXII (Nīlī Chhatrī), p. 15, etc.

(6) The bases of the pendentives in this compartment are also inscribed: the south-east and south-west pendentives bear the 1st Muslim creed in Kūfic characters while the one at the north-east corner contains the same creed in Naskh letters. The base of the pendentive at the north-west corner is inscribed with the following text:—

قال النبى صلى الله عليه وسلم الدنيا مزعة الآخرة *

Translation.

“The Prophet, may God bless and assoil him, said, ‘This world is a field for (cultivation to be harvested in) the next world’.”

(7) On the drum of the dome above the arched recesses is the same inscription (consisting of the Divine attributes) as has been noticed under Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muḥammad Shāh), p. 7, but only from

ليس كمثله شيء وهو السميع العليم up to بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم هو الله الذى لا اله الا هو علم الغيب والشهادة

b. Northern compartment.

The spandrels of the arches on the north, south, east and west are ornamented by large circular medallions bearing the following inscriptions in Naskh characters cut in plaster.

(8) West arch. On the left hand medallion.

Qurān, Pt. XXVI, Ch. 48 entitled الفتح (The Victory), Sec. 4, Verses 28-9 preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم. The last verse is only up to بينهم تراهم. Cf. Inscription No. (22) on Mont. No. LVI Chhoṭe Khān-kā-Gumbad), p. 53.

(9) West arch. On the right hand medallion.

The same as Inscription No. (19) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, but only from بسم الله الذين آمنوا up to ان تنفذ كلمت ربى preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(10) North arch. On the left hand medallion.

Qurān, Pt. XXII, Ch. 33 entitled الحزاب (The Allies), Sec. 7, Verses 56-7, but only up to بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم with الذين يؤذون الله at the beginning.

(11) In the middle of the medallion containing the Inscription No. (10) above.

قال النبى صلى الله عليه وسلم الدنيا جيفة و طالباها كلاب

* It is a famous tradition of the Prophet which has now become proverbial. It has, however, been incorrectly executed for the inscription reads الدنيا زمرة فى الآخرة (Lit. This world is a crowd in the next world). It is ungrammatical, meaningless and nowhere to be found among the Prophet's traditions. Such mistakes for which probably the ignorant masons in charge of the work are responsible are by no means uncommon, vide footnotes on Inscriptions Nos. 14 (a) and (18) infra, etc.

Translation.

“The Prophet, may Allāh bless and assoil him, said, ‘The world is a carrion and its lovers are dogs,’ Cf. Inscription No. 1 (c) on Mont. No. LXIV (Nīlī Masjid at Kharera), p. 62.

(12) North arch. On the right hand medallion.

The same as Inscription No. (7) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh’s mosque), p. 6, but only up to تخرج الحى من الميت.

(13) East arch. On the left hand medallion.

Qurān, Pt. II, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 25, Verses 201-3, but only from بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم up to واذكروا الله and with بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning.

14 (a) In the middle of the medallion containing the Inscription No. (13) above.

قال عليه الصلوة والسلام عليكم بحسن الخط فانه من مفاتيح الزرور¹

Translation.

“(The Prophet,) may the (Divine) blessings and peace be on him, said, ‘(It is incumbent) on you (to write) a good hand because verily it is (one) of the cures for the stiffness in hand.’”

(b) In the middle of the above medallion is سبحان الله.

(15) East arch. On the right hand medallion.

The same as Inscription No. 108 (a) on Mont. No. XLV (Barā Gumbad mosque), p. 44.

16 (a) In the middle of the medallion containing Inscription No. (15) above.

قال النبى صلى الله عليه وسلم الدنيا دار من لا دار له²

Translation.

“The Prophet, may Allāh bless and assoil him, said, ‘The world is the home of one who has no home.’”

(b) Further inside the above medallion are the same words as have been noticed under the Inscription No. 14 (b) above.

(17) South arch. On the right hand medallion.

The same as Inscription No. (16) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh’s mosque), p. 7, but only up to آمين.

(18) South arch. On the left hand medallion.

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم اللهم صل على محمد وعلى آل محمد وبارك وسلم³ وصل⁴ على جميع
الانبياء والمرسلين والملئكة المقربين وعلى عباد الله الصالحين⁵

² It appears to be a saying rather than a tradition of the Prophet since it is not available in the authentic records of hadīth.

³ The word سلم has been wrongly inscribed as سلم in the epigraph.

⁴ The word صل has been inscribed as سل which is obviously a mistake of spelling.

⁵ The epigraph is not a Quaranic verse but a دُرد or prayer for Divine blessings on the Prophet.

Translation.

“In the name of Allāh, the Merciful, the Compassionate. O Allāh, confer blessings on Muḥammad and on the family of Muḥammad and show (them) mercy and peace; and bless all Thy Prophets and messengers and the angels nearest (to Thee) and Thy¹ pious servants.”

(19) In the middle of the medallion bearing the Inscription No. (18) above.

قال عليه الصلاة والسلام المرء يعرف عند المعاملة²

Translation.

“(The Prophet,) may the (Divine) blessings and peace be on him, said ‘A man is known by his dealings’.”

(20) On the spandrels of the lower arch on the east is a circular medallion bearing fragments of the 3rd Muslim creed inscribed in Nasḥ lettering. Cf. also Inscription No. (109) on Mont. No. XLV (Baṭā Gumbad mosque), p. 44.

c. Southern compartment.

The spandrels of the arches in this compartment also are embellished with large circular medallions containing the following inscriptions in Nasḥ characters cut in plaster:—

(21) Upper arch on the west. Right hand medallion.

Qurān, Pt. XXII, Ch. 35 entitled فاطر (The Originator), Sec. 1, Verses 2-3.

(22) On the lower arch on the west.

Qurān, Pt. XXVI, Ch. 48 entitled الفتح (The Victory), Sec. 1, Verses 1-2, but only up to بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم and preceded by يغفر لك الله. Cf. also Inscription No. (46) on Mont. No. XLV (Baṭā Gumbad mosque), p. 38.

(23) Northern arch. Left hand medallion.

Only half of the medallion is in situ and it is inscribed with

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ عَلَى رَأْيِ اللَّهِ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ خَلِيلَ اللَّهِ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ مُوسَى كَلِيمَ اللَّهِ

Translation.

“There is no god but Allāh, ‘Alī is the Helper of Allāh. There is no god but Allāh, Abraham is the Friend of Allāh. There is no god but Allāh, Moses is the Speaker to Allāh.”

(24) North arch. Right hand medallion.

Qurān, Pt. XVII, Ch. 21 entitled الأنبياء (The Prophets), Sec. 6, Verses 87-90, but only from لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ up to وَصَلَحْنَا, vide also Inscriptions, Nos. 24(c) and (84) on Mont. No. XLV (Baṭā Gumbad mosque), p. 41, etc.

(25) (a) Upper arch on the east. Left hand medallion.

² This tradition of the Prophet has come to be regarded as a common saying now-a-days.

³ It is an authentic ḥadīth, vide Kitābu-ṣ-Ṣalāt in Ṣaḥīḥu-l-Buḥārī, (Cairo edition), p. 139.

Translation.

“The Prophet, may Allāh bless and assoil him, said, ‘The 1st *takbīr*¹ is better than the world and everything in it’.”

(b) Within the above medallion, in a smaller circle, is the 1st Muslim creed.

26 (a) Upper arch on the east. Right hand medallion.

The same as Inscription No. 25(a) above.

(b) In the middle of the above medallion.

The same as Inscription No. 25(b) above.

(27) On the lower arch on the east.

Qurān, Pt. XXVIII, Ch. 65 entitled الطلاق (The Divorce), Sec. 1, Verses 2-3 but only from لِلرَّجُلِ أَنْ يَتَذَكَّرَ up to وَمَا يَكُنْ لَهُ جُنَاحٌ. Cf. Inscription No. 19 (a) on Mont. No. LVI (Chhoṭe Khān-kā-Gumbad), p. 53.

28 (a) Upper arch on the south. Left hand medallion.

قال النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم من بنى المساجد بنى الله تعالى سبعين مرة بيت الكعبة*

Translation.

“The Prophet, may God bless and assoil him, said, ‘Whoever built mosques erected for the Most High Allāh seventy times the house of Ka’ba’.”

(b) Within the above medallion, in a smaller circle, is الملك الله in Tughrā characters.

29 (a) Upper arch on the south. Right hand medallion.

The same as Inscription No. 28(a) above.

(b) In the middle of the above medallion.

The same as Inscription No. 28(b) above.

No. LXX.

(A) TOMB OF SHAIKH KABĪRU-D-DĪN AULIYĀ, locally known as RIKĀBWĀLĀ GUMBAD or LĀL GUMBAD.

(B) About 3 furlongs to west of the village Shaikhsarai, in the centre of a graveyard.

(C) Nothing can be definitely said about the saint, but the tomb seems to have been erected in the Tughlaq period.

(D) (1) The tomb contains nine graves, 5 of stone and the rest of lime plaster. Two of them are inscribed on the top with the 112th chapter of the Qurān entitled الاخلاص (The Unity) in embossed Naskh characters but without بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم. Cf. also Inscription No. (13) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh’s mosque), p. 7.

The red sandstone kanguras are decorated with small circular discs bearing يا الله.

(2) Around the Lāl Gumbad there are several old graves only two of which made of red sandstone on the south of the gumbad bear on the top the سورة الاخلاص without بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم as has been noticed above.

¹ Takbīr (lit. glorification of God) is a term in Muslim theology given to certain words uttered at the opening of a prayer, specially of a congregational prayer.

* Vide At-Targhīb waṭ Tarhīb of Mullā Zamakhsharī, (Cairo edition), p. 211.

No. LXXI.

(A) TOMB OF HAZRAT YŪSUF QATTĀL.

(B) About 2 furlongs to north-west of the Khirkī Masjid.

(C) Shaiḵh Yūsuf Qattāl flourished in the reigns of Sikandar Lodī and Ibrāhīm Lodī and died in 933 A.H. (1526-7 A.D.) He was a disciple of Qāzī Jalālu-d-Dīn of Iahore.(D) The exterior is uninscribed, but inside the tomb the 1st Muslim creed in embossed Kūfic characters decorates the western mihṛāb, while small red sandstone medallions bearing الله are also to be found here and there.The grave is of red sandstone, on the top of which appears the 1st Muslim creed in embossed Kūfic letters and, under it, in circular discs is the word الله in Kūfic characters.

No. LXXII.

(A) UNKNOWN GRAVE.

(B) Near the tomb of Ḥaẓrat Yūsuf Qattāl (No. LXXII) to the east.

(C) The grave is said to contain the remains of one of Ḥaẓrat Yūsuf Qattāl's disciples.

(D) In inscriptional decoration it is similar to the saint's grave (No. LXXI) noticed above.

No. LXXIII.

(A) TOMB OF BAHLOL LODĪ.(B) Immediately outside the west wall of the enclosure of the tomb of Ḥaẓrat Naṣīru-d-Dīn Maḥmūd, entitled Roshan Chirāgh Dehlī.

(C) Bahlol Lodī was the founder of the Lodī dynasty and died in 894 A.H. (1489 A.D.). His tomb was erected by his son and successor Sultān Sikandar Lodī, but its identity is disputed.*

(D) (1-3) On the outside of the three arches on the east, in Naskh letters.Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 34, Verses 255-7, but only up to يخرجونهم من النزال إلى الظلمت. Vide Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muḥammad Shāh), p. 32, etc.

(4) The spandrels of the above arches are ornamented with circular medallions inscribed with the words الله سبحانه or يا الله.

The arches on the south are also inscribed. Starting from the right to the left they bear the following Quranic texts:—

(5) On arch No. (1).

The same as Inscription No. (26) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8.

(6) On arch No. (2).

(a) Two different chapters of the Qurān.(i) Ch. 112 entitled الاخلاص (The Unity), Verses 1-4, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم, vide Inscription No. (13) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7.(ii) Ch. 113 entitled الفلق (The Dawn), but only up to اذا رقب preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم, vide Inscription No. (11) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7.

* The Cambridge History of India, Vol. III, p. 594, footnote 1.

(b) On the spandrels of the above arch No. (2) are circular medallions inscribed with the phrase سبحان الله.

(7) On arch No. (3).

Verses from two different chapters of the Qurān—

(a) Ch. 113 entitled الفلق (The Dawn), but from الفاتحات up to the end.

(b) Ch. 114 entitled الناس (The Men), Verses 1-5, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم. Cf. Inscription No. (11) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7.

Starting from the right to the left the arches on the west bear the following inscriptions :—

(8) (a) On arch No. (1).

Faint traces of a Persian inscription too much mutilated and obliterated to give any sense.

(b) On the spandrels of the above arch are circular medallions inscribed with the phrase سبحان الله.

9 (a) On arch No. (2) is the following fragmentary Persian inscription in verse :—

(۱) لسانها نشده خاک مارود کین آب صبادرد

(۲) این پنج روز این خاک دیگدان جدارد

Translation.

(1) “marks were not made, our dust scatters, that this waterthe wind blows.

(2) These five days....., the ashes of this fireplace..... are removed.

(b) On the spandrels of the above arch in Naskh letters is the phrase حسبنا الله (God is enough for us).

10 (a) On arch No. (1).

The same as Inscription No. 21 (a) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, but preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(b) On the spandrels of the above arch are circular medallions made of plaster containing يا الله .

11 (a) On arch No. (2).

Fragments of Verses 255-7 of Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), but only up to بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم preceded by يخرجونهم من النور الى الظلمة.

11 (b) On the spandrels of arch No. (2).

The same as Inscription No. 10 (b) above.

12 (a) On arch No. (3).

حسبنا الله ونعم الوكيل نعم المولى ونعم النصير

Translation.

“ God is enough for us and He is the Best Protector, the Best Master and the Best Helper.”

(b) On the spandrels of arch No. (3).

The same as Inscription No. 10 (b) above.

The tomb contains two graves, one of a male and the other of a female. The former bears only the 1st Muslim creed in Naskh characters while the latter is uninscribed.

The western mihrāb in the tomb chamber appears to be inscribed, but since the tomb is used for residential purposes and the occupant of that part of the building containing the mihrāb has gone out for a few weeks and locked up his koḥrī, it is not possible to decipher the inscriptions.

No. LXXIV.

(A) TOMB OF ZAFAR KHĀN or DĀD KHĀN.

(B) In Tughlaqabad, to north-east of the mausoleum of Ghiyāthū-d-Dīn Tughlaq.

(C) The tomb was built by Ghiyāthū-d-Dīn Tughlaq who styled it as Dārū-l-Amān. Another Dārū-l-Amān known to history was the one erected by Ghiyāthū-d-Dīn Balban wherein, according to Safarnāma-i-Ibn Batūla (Lahore edition, 1898, p. 57) he lies buried. No trace of the latter building, however, is to be found now.

The occupant of the tomb referred to in the Persian inscription over the south door (vide Inscription No. (1) infra) was a son of Sultān Ghiyāthū-d-Dīn Tughlaq who, as Ziāu-d-Dīn Barnī observes*, received the title of Zafar Khān from his royal father. His real name is not known to history but according to the inscription he conquered the country as far as Lakhanwati (Gaur in Bengal) and died while yet in the prime of his youth.

(D) (1) The inscription referred to in note (C) above is pretty long and appears on red sandstone slabs over the south door, both outside and inside, and also on the south of the inner tomb. It records his heroic conquests at a tender age, the grant of Zafarābād to the deceased Khān Zafar Khān, a son of Ghiyāthū-d-Dīn Tughlaq and the erection of his tomb, styled as Dārū-l-Amān, during the reign of Ghiyāthū-d-Dīn Tughlaq.

The tomb, octagonal in plan, is entered by 8 arched gateways which are inscribed on the outside with the following Quranic texts in embossed Naskh characters :—

(2) Ch. 112 entitled الخلاص (The Unity), Verses 1-4 preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم, vide Inscription No. (13) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7.

(3) The same as Inscription No. 21 (a) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, but without بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم and only from شهد الله up to العزيز الحكيم.

The interior of the tomb is lavishly decorated with Quranic quotations in embossed Naskh characters. Starting from the south-west arch and proceeding towards the left the following verses are inscribed :—

* Tārīkh-i-Firoz Shāhī, Persian text (published by the Asiatic Society of Bengal, 1862), p. 428.

(4) On the arch No. (1)

From بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم up to ربنا preceded by امن الرسول.

(5) On the arch No. (2)

From ولا تحمل علينا اسراً up to واليك المصير.

(6) On the arch No. (3)

From على القوم الكافرين up to كما حملته على الذين.

(7) On the arch No. (4)

From بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم up to لا اله الا preceded by لا انزلنا هذا القرآن.

(8) On the arch No. (5)

From سبحان الله عما يشركون up to هو علم الغيب.

(9) On the arch No. (6)

From بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم up to يشفع عنده preceded by الله لا اله الا هو الحي.

(10) On the arch No. (7)

From ولا يؤده حفظهما up to الا بدانه يعلم.

(11) On the arch No. (8)

From الله سميع عليم up to هو العلى العظيم.

Again, there are eight smaller arches bearing the following verses in the same Nasikh letters :—

(12) On the smaller arch No. (1)

From بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم up to من ذنبك وما preceded by انا فتحتا لك فتحة.

(13) On the smaller arch No. (2)

From هو الذي انزل up to تأخر ويتم نعمته.

(14) On the smaller arch No. (3)

From جنود السموات والارض up to السكينة فى قلوب.

(15) On the smaller arch No. (4)

From تحتها الا نهار up to ركان الله عليم حكيم.

(16) On the smaller arch No. (5)

From عند الله فوزاً عظيماً up to خالدين فيها.

(17) On the smaller arch No. (6)

From بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم up to وتنزع preceded by قل اللهم ملك الملك.

(18) On the smaller arch No. (7)

From شي قدير up to الملك ممن تشاء.

(19) On the smaller arch No. (8)

From تخرج الميت من الحى up to تولج الليل. The remaining portion of the verse has peeled off.

There are two graves in the tomb chamber, the one in the centre being probably that of the youthful warrior Zafar Khān. Both the graves are uninscribed.

Nearby is the tomb of Ghiyāthu-d-Dīn Tughlaq which occupies the central position of the enclosure. It contains three plastered graves, all uninscribed.

¹, ² and ³. These verses are in continuation of each other and belong to Pt. III, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 40 (Verses 285-6), vide Inscription No. 117 (a) on Mont. No. XLV (Barā Gumbad mosque), p. 45.

⁴ and ⁵. Vide Qurān, Pt. XXVIII, Ch. 59 entitled الحشر (The Banishment), Sec. 3, Verses 21-3. Cf. Inscription No. (24) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8.

⁶, ⁷, and ⁸. Vide Inscription No. (5) on Mont. No. XXXVIII (Tomb of Hazrat Nizāmu-d-Dīn), p. 28, etc.
⁹, ¹⁰, ¹¹, ¹² and ¹³. These are the 1st five verses of Ch. 48, entitled الفتح (The Victory), vide Inscription No. (1), on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6.

¹⁴, ¹⁵ and ¹⁶. Vide Inscription No. (7) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6.

The same as Inscription No. 10 (b) above.

The tomb contains two graves, one of a male and the other of a female. The former bears only the 1st Muslim creed in Naskh characters while the latter is uninscribed.

The western mihrāb in the tomb chamber appears to be inscribed, but since the tomb is used for residential purposes and the occupant of that part of the building containing the mihrāb has gone out for a few weeks and locked up his koḥrī, it is not possible to decipher the inscriptions.

From شيء قدير up to الملك ممن تشاء.

(19) On the smaller arch No. (8)

From تخرج الميت من الحى up to تولج الليل. The remaining portion of the verse has peeled off.

There are two graves in the tomb chamber, the one in the centre being probably that of the youthful warrior Zafar Khān. Both the graves are uninscribed.

Nearby is the tomb of Ghiyāthu-d-Dīn Tughlaq which occupies the central position of the enclosure. It contains three plastered graves, all uninscribed.

⁴ and ⁵. Vide Qurān, Pt. XXVIII, Ch. 59 entitled الحشر (The Banishment), Sec. 3, Verses 21-3. Cf. Inscription No. (24) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8.

⁶, ⁷, and ⁸. Vide Inscription No. (5) on Mont. No. XXXVIII (Tomb of Hazrat Nizāmu-d-Dīn), p. 28, etc.
⁹, ¹⁰, ¹¹, ¹² and ¹³. These are the last five verses of Ch. 48, entitled الفتح (The Victory), vide Inscription No. (1), on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6.

¹⁴, ¹⁵ and ¹⁶. Vide Inscription No. (7) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6.

The one in the centre is probably the grave of Ghiyāth-d-Dīn Tughlaq, the founder of the Tughlaq dynasty, while the other two graves are assigned respectively to his wife, Makhdūma-i-Jahān, and his son Muhammad Tughlaq, known in history for his generosity and eccentricity.

No. LXXV.

(A) BĪWĪ or DĀDĪ-KĀ-GUMBAD.

(B) In village Kharera to west of the Delhi-Qutb road.

(C) Nothing is definitely known of this tomb, but its architecture is decidedly Pathān.

(D) (1) The tomb contains six graves, all uninscribed. The pendentives are ornamented with circular plastered medallions inscribed with the 1st Muslim creed or الله, or with the phrases الله الملك and حسبى الله.

(2) At the centre of the intrados of the dome.

The same as Inscription No. (5) on Mont. No. XXXVIII (Tomb of Ḥaẓrat Nizāmu-d-Dīn Auliya), p. 28, less the opening words of the inscription, i.e., قال الله سبحانه وتعالى.

No. LXXVI.

(A) TOMB OF FĪROZ SHĀH TUGHLAQ.

(B) In village Hauz Khas, at the south-east corner of the tank.

(C) The tomb, according to the Ālḥāru-s-Sanādīd, was built by Nāṣiru-d-Dīn Muhammad Shāh Tughlaq over the remains of his father, Emperor Fīroz Shāh, about the year 1388-9 but Sir John Marshall on stylistic grounds rightly assigns the construction of the Tomb and the College to Fīroz Shāh himself.* It seems, however, to have been repaired in the reign of Sikandar Shāh Lodī when the inscription on its south doorway was engraved.

(D) (1) The exterior is embellished with small circular medallions of red sandstone containing the word الله, and on the principal doorway on the south is a fragmentary inscription in Persian prose in Nasḫ characters cut in plaster recording the name of Sultān Sikandar Shāh Lodī, son of Bahlol Lodī, and the year, probably of repairs, 913 A. H. (1507-8 A.D.).

(2) Inside the tomb chamber there are plastered medallions inscribed with the 1st Muslim creed embellishing the spandrels of the arches, while starting from the southern arch to east, north and west the arches bear the following verses of the Qurān executed in Nasḫ characters in incised plaster:—

(3) On the arch No. (i).

Pt. IV, Ch. 3 entitled آل عمران (The Family of Amran), Sec. 10, Verses 95-6, but only up to من استطاع اليه سبيلا with بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning.

(4) On the arch No. (ii).

The same as Inscription No. (24) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, but preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم and only from لوانزلنا هذا القرآن up to لعلهم يتفكرون.

(5-6) On the arches Nos. (iii) & (iv).

The same as Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XLVIII (Mosque of Bastī), p. 48.

* The Cambridge History of India, Vol. III, p. 5910.

(7-8) On the arches Nos. (v & vi).

آية الكرسي or Throne Verse preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم, vide Inscription No. (22) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8.

(9-10) On the arches Nos. (vii & viii).

The same as Inscription No. (7) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6.

(11) On the drum of the dome.

The same as Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muḥammad Shāh), pp. 31-32, but after بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم the words هو الله تعالى (He is God, the Most High) precede the verse هو الله الذي لا اله الا هو الخ and at the end of the inscription the phrase نعم المولى ونعم النصير (He is the Best Master and the Best Helper) only is to be found after the words هو السميع البصير. The inscription is mutilated and several attributes of God incised in plaster have peeled off.

(12) At the centre of the intrados of the dome, in Naskh characters in incised plaster.

Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 34, Verses 255-7. Cf. also Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muḥammad Shāh), p. 32, etc.

The intrados of the dome is ornamented with top-shaped and circular medallions made of plaster. The former are mostly inscribed with the traditions of the Prophet with the word الله or the 1st Muslim creed in the middle. Having been coated with smoke only the following traditions are readable :—

(13) من ترك الصلاة متعمداً فقد كفر

Translation.

“He who missed a prayer wilfully became an infidel.”

(14) الدنيا سجن المؤمن وجنت الكافر

Translation.

“The world is a prison to the believer and paradise to the unbeliever.”

(15) الدنيا ملعون الله باقى

Translation.

“The world is a cursed (place) and.....Allāh is Ever-living.”

(16) الصلاة معراج المؤمن*

Translation.

“The prayer is the ascent (to heaven) to a believer.”

Out of these top-shaped medallions three are inscribed with the following Quranic texts :—

(17) Pt. VII, Ch. 6 entitled الا نعلم (The Cattle), Sec. 1, Verse 1, but without بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning.

(18) Pt. I, Ch. 1 entitled الفاتحة (The Opening), Verses 1-7, but without being preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم. Vide also Inscription No. (16) on Mont.

* معراج also means a ladder.

No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7, etc. In the middle of this disc there also appears the 1st Muslim creed.

(19) Pt. XXX, Ch. 97 entitled القدر ('The Majesty'), Verses 1-5 preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم. Vide also Inscription No. 7 (c) on Mont. No. XXXV (Tomb of Atgah Khān), p. 24.

The large circular medallions are also disfigured by smoke but one or the other of the following Quranic quotations are readable:—

(20) Pt. XXX, Ch. 109 entitled الكفرون (The Unbelievers), Verses 1-6, vide Inscription No. (26) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8.

(21) Pt. XXX, Ch. 108 entitled الكثر (The Abundance), Verses 1-3 preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم. Vide also Inscription No. 15 (b) on Mont. No. XVI (Chhoṭe Khān-kā-Gumbad), p. 53.

(22) Pt. XXX, Ch. 114 entitled الناس (The Men), Verses 1-5, vide Inscription No. 11 (b) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7.

(23) Pt. III, Ch. 3 entitled آل عمران (The Family of Amran), Sec. 3, Verse 25, vide also Inscription No. (7) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6.

(24) The same as Inscription No. 1 (d) on Mont. No. LXIV (Nīlī Masjid), p. 62, but only up to انقلبتم على اعقابكم and without بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning.

The centre of the above medallions is ornamented by floral decorations cut in plaster and sometimes by the words يا الله or الله or the 1st Muslim creed.

The small circular medallions are inscribed with one or the other of the following texts and creeds:—

(25) لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ خَلِيلَ اللَّهِ, vide Inscription No. (27) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), pp. 8-9.

(26) لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ عِيسَى رُوحَ اللَّهِ, (There is no god but Allāh, Jesus is the Spirit of Allāh).

(27) لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ مُوسَى كَلِيمَ اللَّهِ, vide Inscription No. (23) on Mont. No. LXIX (Muḥammadiwālī Masjid), p. 68.

(28) لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ مُحَمَّدَ رَسولَ اللَّهِ, vide Inscription No. (12) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7.

(29) اللَّهُ غَالِبٌ عَلَى أَمْرِهِ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ, vide Inscription No. (8) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6.

(30) الْمَلِكُ اللَّهُ, vide Inscription No. (12) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7.

رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَلَى خَيْرِ خَلْقِهِ مُحَمَّدٍ وَآلِهِ أَجْمَعِينَ بِرَحْمَتِكَ يَا أَرْحَمَ الرَّاحِمِينَ

Translation.

“And may Allāh confer blessings on Muḥammad, the best of His creation and all his family. By Thy mercy, O Most Merciful of the merciful.”

No. LXXVII.

(A) FĪROZ SHĀH'S COLLEGE.

(B) In village Hauz Khas, immediately to north and west of the tomb of Fīroz Shāh Tughlaq (LXXXVI).

(C) Built by Fīroz Shāh Tughlaq in 753 A. H. (1352-3 A.D.).

(D) (1) The college possesses no historical or Quranic epigraph and the only inscriptional decorations one comes across in it are the plastered discs inscribed with one or the other of the following phrases :—

يا الله and الملك الله حسبي الله سبعا الله

No. LXXVIII.

(A) GRAVE OF YŪSUF BIN JAMĀL.

(B) On the south of the dālāns bordering the south bank of the tank.

(C) Maulānā Yūsuf bin Jamāl is related to have been the Ṣadr Mudarris (Head Teacher) of Fīroz Shāh's College in the courtyard of which he was buried.

(D) No inscription is to be seen except a modern epigraph engraved on a slab of stone built into a wall on the south. It contains his name only.

No. LXXIX.

(A) CHHATRĪ No. (1).

(B) To east of the tomb of Fīroz Shāh in the same enclosure, close to the boundary wall.

(C) Nothing is definitely known about it. Some assign this tomb to the Tughlaq period, while others are inclined to think that, like so many other Chhatrīs, it was built during the Lodī period about the same time as repairs to the tomb of Fīroz Shāh were effected (vide history of Fīroz Shāh's tomb supra).

(D) (1) On the drum of the dome (inside) in Naskh letters cut in plaster.

Two different texts—

(a) The same as Inscription No. (24) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, but preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(b) لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ الْمَلِكُ الْحَقُّ الْمُبِينُ مُحَمَّدٌ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ سَيِّدُ الصَّادِقِ الْمَصْدُقِ الْأَمِينِ

Translation.

“There is no god but Allāh, the King, the Truth, the Manifest; Muḥammad is Allāh's Prophet, the chief, the truthful, the verifier, the trusty.”

No. LXXX.

(A) CHHATRĪ No. (2).

(B) Near the eastern boundary wall of Fīroz Shāh's tomb, to north of Chhatrī No. (1) noticed above.

(C) Vide note (C) on Chhatrī No. (1) noticed above.

(D) On the drum of the dome (inside) in Naskh characters in incised plaster.

Almost the same as Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muḥammad Shāh), pp. 31-32, but it is fragmentary and consists of only the portion

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم هو الله الذي لا اله الا هو علم الغيب والشهادة هو الرحمن الرحيم الملك القدوس up to بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم and instead of الهادي البديع the following phrase is to be seen :—

صلى الله على خير خلقه محمد وآله اجمعين و سلم تسليماً كثيراً كثيراً

Translation.

“May Allāh confer blessings on Muhammad, the best of His creation, and all his family, and bestow His peace (on them) in abundance.”

No. LXXXI.

(A) CHHATRĪ No. (3).

(B) Opposite the main entrance to the enclosure of Fīroz Shāh's tomb.

(C) Vide note (C) on Chhatrī No. (1) noticed above.

(D) On the drum of the dome (inside) in Naskh characters cut in plaster.

Almost the same as Inscription on Mont. No. LXXX (Chhatrī No. 2) noticed above, but the epigraph is fragmentary and the attributes of God up to المجيد الباقى الشهيد only are in situ.

No. LXXXII.

(A) CHHATRĪ No. (4).

(B) To north-west of the old gate to the enclosure of Fīroz Shāh's tomb.

(C) Vide note (C) on Chhatrī No. (1) noticed above.

(D) The same as Inscription No. (4) on Mont. No. LXXVI (Tomb of Fīroz Shāh), p. 74, but without بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning. The epigraph is fragmentary and only the portions from لو انزلنا هذا القرآن up to لعلهم يتفكرون هو الله and from العزیز المتکبر up to عما يشركون هو الله are in situ.

No. LXXXIII.

(A) CHHATRĪ No. (5).

(B) To north of Chhatrī No. (4) noticed above.

(C) Vide note (C) on Chhatrī No. (1) noticed above.

(D) The same as Inscription No. 21 (a) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, but without being preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم and only from شهد الله انه up to هو العزيز الحكيم.

No. LXXXIV.

(A) CHHATRĪ No. (6).

(B) To west of Chhatrīs Nos. (4) and (5) noticed above.

(C) Vide note (C) on Chhatrī No. (1) noticed above.

(D) The inscription is broken in several places but its fragments show that the same attributes of God as have been noticed on Mont. No. LXXX (Chhatrī No. 2) above originally graced the tomb.

No. LXXXV.

(A) OLD CEMETERY.

(B) To east of the old gate to the enclosure of Fīroz Shāh's tomb.

(C) No history of the cemetery is available and the plastered graves in it bear no historical epigraphs.

(D) No Quranic text is to be seen anywhere, but on the top of a plastered grave the 1st Muslim creed is inscribed in Naskh letters.

No. LXXXVI.

(A) BĀGH-I-‘ĀLAM-KĀ-GUMBAD.

(B) In village Humayunpur, to north of the road between Kharera and Hauz-i-Khas.

(C) The tomb contains the remains of Shaikh Shihābu-d-Dīn Tāj Khān who flourished in the reign of Sultān Sikandar Lodī.

(D) (1) The exterior is uninscribed except the west wall to which is fixed a slab of marble bearing an historical inscription in defective Persian prose, in embossed Naskh characters, recording the erection of the tomb on the 20th of Ramazān, 906 A. H. (9th April 1501 A.D.) during the reign of Sikandar Shāh Lodī.

(2) On the drum of the dome, inside the tomb, in embossed Naskh characters incised in plaster.

Two different texts partly damaged—

(a) The attributes of God as already noticed under Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muhammad Shāh), pp. 31-32, but unlike it, the inscription reads from نعم الله على من لا اله الا هو الملك القدوس السلام up to نعم الله على من لا اله الا هو الملك القدوس السلام preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(b) After the above Inscription No. (2) is a prayer badly executed in plaster. It is damaged and reads as follows:—

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم يا كثير النوال يا دايـم الرـصال يا حسيـب الفـعال اللهم ان ادخل الشـرك ولم اعلم به ثبت عنه واقول لا اله الا الله محمد رسول الله اللهم ان ادخل الكفر فى سبيل الله ولم اعلم به ثبت عنه واقول لا اله الا الله محمد رسول الله اللهم ان ادخل فى سبيل الله ولم اعلم به ثبت عنه اقول لا اله الا الله محمد رسول الله الملك لله

Translation.

“In the name of Allāh, the Merciful, the Compassionate. O Most Bounteous, and O Ever-present, and O Reckoner of Deeds! O Allāh, if I have entered polytheism and I do not know it, I repent for it and say ‘There is no god but Allāh, Muhammad is the Prophet of Allāh.’ O Allāh, if I have entered blasphemy in Thy way and I do not know it, I repent for it and say ‘There is no god but Allāh, Muhammad is the Prophet of Allāh.’ O Allāh, if I have entered..... in Thy way and I do not know it, I repent for it and say ‘There is no god but Allāh, Muhammad is the Prophet of Allāh.’ Kingdom is for Allāh.”

The intrados of the dome is ornamented with eight top-shaped medallions made of plaster containing incised decorations and inscriptions. Starting from the one exactly above the southern entrance and proceeding towards the left they are inscribed as follows:—

(3) Medallion No. (1).

The 1st verse noticed in Inscription No. (24) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh’s mosque), p. 8, but preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(4) Medallion No. (2).

Floral decoration round the inner circle containing the 1st Muslim creed in Naskh characters cut in plaster.

(5) Medallion No. (3).

The same as Inscription No. (7) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6, but only up to كل شيء قدير.

5 (a) Medallion No. (4).

The same as Inscription No. (4) above.

(6) Medallion No. (5).

Two different texts of the Qurān—

(a) Ch. 112 entitled لا إله إلا الله (The Unity), Verses 1-4, vide Inscription No. (13) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7.

(b) The same as Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. LV (Bare Khān-kā-Gumbad), p. 51.

(7) Medallion No. (6).

The same as Inscription No. (4) above.

(8) Medallion No. (7).

(a) The same as Inscription 21 (a) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, but only from بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم up to هو العزيز الحكيم preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(b) The inner circle contains الملك لله.

(9) Medallion No. (8).

(a) The same as Inscription No. 8 (a) above.

(b) Within the inner circle is the 1st Muslim creed.

(10) On a slab of stone over the western mihrāh.

The same as Inscription No. 8 (a), but without بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(11) On the inner mihrāh of red sandstone, in embossed Naskh letters, is the 1st Muslim creed with the phrase حسبي الله on either side and the words يا الله underneath. Further below is the 2nd Muslim creed preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم and under it the phrase الملك لله.

No. LXXXVII.

(A) TĪN BURJĪWĀLĀ GUMBAD.

(B) In village Muhammadpur on the east.

(C) History is silent in regard to this tomb but its style assigns to it a date during the Afghān period.

(D) The only inscription it bears is on the east face of the southern gumbad. It is a fragmentary prayer in Arabic inscribed in Naskh characters in plaster and runs as follows :—

اللهم قضيت مالنا وما علينا فاجعل عاقبتنا لا إله إلا [الله]

Translation.

“O Allāh, I have had what was for us and what was to befall us, so let our life end (on the faith) ‘There is no god but (Allāh).....’.”

(A) Aṭṭewālā Gumbad.

(B) About 80 ft. to west of the Delhi-Qutb road and about 250 ft. west of the ‘Idgāh at Kharera.

(C) It appears to be a tomb of the Paṭhān period but there is no trace of a grave inside. The cross mark decorating the outer face of the parapets is particularly interesting.

(D) The monument bears no inscription but a gravestone lying in the field at a distance of about 15 ft. from the southern entrance of the Gumbad is inscribed with the 2nd chapter of the Qurān, verses 255-6 up to قد تبين الرشد من الغي and under it appears the 1st Muslim creed. The top surface bears a circular medallion of red sandstone containing the 112th chapter of the Qurān but without بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning.

No. XCVII.

(A) MASJID KĀLŪ SARĀI.

(B) In the village Kālū Sarāi, on the east of the Delhi-Qutb road.

(C) Resembling in certain architectural details the two Kālī Masjids and the Begampuri mosque erected by Khān-i-Jahān Jūnān Shāh, the prime minister of Fīroz Shāh Tughlaq, the Kālū Sarāi mosque also is believed to have been founded by him.

(D) (1) The eastern façade has the spandrels of its arches ornamented by circular medallions containing the phrase الله الملك or الله سبحان cut in plaster. The latter phrase is to be found in the prayer chamber also which is at present used by local villagers for residential purposes.

The prayer chamber is inscribed with Quranic quotations and other religious texts, now much mutilated, but their fragments lead one to believe that the following verses originally graced the mosque :—

(2) On the principal mīhrāb, in Naskh characters.

Two different texts—

(a) The same as Inscription No. (19) on Mont. No. XI (Shēr Shāh's mosque), p. 8, but from الهم الله واحد up to جنت الفردوس نزل.

(b) Qurān, Pt. XXX, Ch. 87 entitled الا على (The Most High), Verses 1-7, but only up to بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم preceded by الا ماشاء الله. This quotation also is fragmentary.

(3) On the 5th or the last mīhrāb on the south, in Naskh letters.

Almost the same as Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muhammad Shāh), pp. 31-32, but only a few attributes of God are now readable. The rest of the epigraph has peeled off.

No. XCVIII.

(A) BEGAMPURI MOSQUE.

(B) In the village of Begampur near the Hauz Rani village.

(C) Built by Khān-i-Jahān, the prime minister of Fīroz Shāh Tughlaq who was also responsible for the construction of Kālī Masjid in Muḥalla Bulbulī Khāna, the Kālī or Sanjar Masjid in village Nizamuddin, etc.

(D) (1) There is no historical or Quranic epigraph anywhere and the only inscriptional decoration is the phrase الله حسبى or the word الله incised in plaster on circular discs embellishing the spandrels of most of the arches.

(2) Again, in the Millā Khāna built against the north wall of the mosque there are inscribed circular medallions bearing the word الله or the 1st Muslim creed in Naskh letters in incised plaster.

No. XCIX.

(A) TOMB OF ADHAM KHĀN.

(B) On a high terrace to right of the road from the Qutb Minār to the tomb of Khwāja Qutbu-d-Dīn Bakhtiyār Kākī.

(C) The tomb was built by Akbar over the remains of his wet nurse Māham Anagah and her son Adham Khān. The latter in consequence of his stabbing Shamsu-d-Dīn Atgah Khān was bound hand and foot and hurled from the parapet to the ground under the imperial orders. His mother Māham Anagah did not survive him long and was buried near his grave.

(D) (1) On the exterior the spandrels are ornamented with circular medallions made of lime plaster bearing the 1st Muslim creed in Naskh or Nasta'liq characters, while in some cases the discs contain floral decorations cut in plaster with the words لا اله الا الله in the centre.

(2) The interior has more or less similar decoration. The spandrels of bigger arches are embellished with circular medallions made of lime plaster bearing the 1st Muslim creed, whereas on those of the smaller ones there are circular plastered medallions inscribed with يا بدرج or الملك الله in Naskh letters.

No. C.

(A) MOSQUE AT THE RĀJON-KĪ-BĀIN.

(B) To west of the bāolī, or chambered well, known as the Rājōn-kī-Bāin.

(C) The mosque was probably built about the same time as the Rājōn-kī-Bāin (Masons' Stepped well) on the Chhatrī of which there is an inscription recording its erection in 912 A.H. (1506 A.D.) during the reign of Sultān Sikandar Lodī.

(D) (1) On the spandrels of the northern arch leading into the prayer chamber there are circular plastered discs inscribed with the word الله at the centre, while on those of the southern arch there are similar discs containing the phrase سبحان الله .

(2) The central entrance to the prayer chamber consists of a double arch. The spandrels of the upper arch are ornamented by circular plastered medallions inscribed with the 1st Muslim creed in Naskh characters, whereas those of the lower arch bear the phrase الملك الله . In the prayer chamber similar medallions containing the 1st Muslim creed in Naskh letters decorate the spandrels of most of the arched recesses, while the principal mihrāb bears the following epigraph:—

(3) The same as Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muḥammad Shāh), pp. 31-32, but after $\text{نعم المولى و نعم النصير}$ the inscription has $\text{صلى الله على خير خلقه محمد و آله و اصحابه اجمعين برحمتك يا ارحم الراحمين}$ instead of محمد رسول الله up to رب العلمين as recorded in the inscription under reference.

(4) On the upper arch of the principal mihrāb in Naskh characters cut in plaster is the following fragmentary epigraph in Persian prose:—

[بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم] مكارم حضرت بے نیازي آنكه انعام و اكرام او على الدوام و درود معظم بروج

(A) CHHATRĪ AT THE RĀJON-KĪ-BĀIN.

(B) In the courtyard of the mosque (No. C).

(C) It is a tomb of the Lodī period, vide note (C) on the Mosque at the Rājōn-kī-Bāin (No. C). The bāin or bāolī seems to have been so called because for some time the masons had it in their use when they lived in its neighbourhood.

(D) (1) A red sandstone slab fixed on the south above the chhajja bears a fragmentary Persian inscription in prose, in Naskh characters incised in plaster recording the erection of the tomb of Daulat Khān on the 1st of Rajab, 912 A.H. (17th November, 1506 A.D.) during the reign of Sultān Sikanḍar Shāh Lodī, son of Bahlol Shāh Lodī.

(2) Inside the pavilion is a stone grave on the top of which is inscribed the 1st Muslim creed in Naskh letters and below the Kalima the word الله is to be found in two small circular medallions.

(3) On the drum of the dome (inside), in Naskh characters cut in plaster.

“In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Compassionate. O Allāh, confer blessings on Muhammad, the chief of the prophets. O Allāh, confer blessings on Muhammad, the chief of the believers. O Allāh, confer blessings on Muhammad, the chief of the faithful. O Allāh, confer blessings on Muhammad, the chief of the holy warriors. O Allāh, confer blessings on Muhammad, the chief of the jurisconsults. O Allāh, confer blessings on Muhammad, the chief of the moderates. O Allāh, confer blessings on Muhammad, the chief of the observers.

* The inscription evidently appears to have no bearing on the mosque it decorates and it is not known what “book” is referred to therein. The passage seems to have been taken from the introduction of some book on Fiqah (theology) and the mason executing the epigraph probably copied the whole piece instead of eliminating the latter portion which is unsuited for a mural record.

* Such prayers are termed as ‘Darūd,’ or Divine benediction, in Muslim theology, and they are found in various forms on most of the monuments.

O Allāh, confer blessings on Muḥammad, the chief of the firm-minded. O Allāh, confer blessings on Muḥammad, the chief of the spiritual guides. O Allāh, confer blessings on Muḥammad, the chief of the givers of alms. O Allāh, confer blessings on Muḥammad, the chief of the chosen. O Allāh, confer blessings on Muḥammad, the chief of the powerful. O Allāh, confer blessings on Muḥammad, the chief of the contemplating. O Allāh, confer blessings on Muḥammad, the chief of the guileless. O Allāh, confer blessings on Muḥammad, the chief of the reformers."

No. CII.

(A) GRAVE OF SHĀH 'ĀLAM II.

(B) In the enclosure adjoining the south wall of the Motī Masjid, near the western or Ajmeri gate of the Dargāh of Quṭb Sāhib.

(C) Shāh 'Ālam II was the son of 'Ālamgīr II by his Hindu wife Lāl Kunwar, entitled Zinat Maḥal. He ascended the throne in 1759, was blinded by the Rohilla Chief in 1788, and having soon after recovered his throne he died in 1806.

(D) 1 (a) On the top of the marble gravestone in embossed Tughrā character..

The same as Inscription No. (1) on Mont. No. XXII (Nīlī Chhatrī), p. 14.

(b) On the three sides of the marble gravestone, in Naskh letters, appears the آية الكرسي or Throne Verse preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم, vide Inscription No. (22) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8.

(2) On the marble headstone.

هر العفو الغفور
 و يجعل الله الجنة مثواه
 سنة ١٢٢١
 هو الغفار

Translation.

"He is the Pardoner, the Forgiver.

And may Allāh make paradise his (Shāh 'Ālam's) abode.

The year 1221.

He is the Forgiver."

(b) Under it runs a Persian inscription in verse, every hemistich of which yields 1221 A.H. (1806-7 A.D.), the year of Shāh 'Ālam's death, and at the end the name of the scribe, Mīr Kallan Rīzwī, is also recorded.

There are two other graves also beside the grave of Shāh 'Ālam II, the one on the east being that of Shāh 'Ālam Bahādur Shāh I and the other of Akbar Shāh II (No. CIII).

No. CIII.

(A) GRAVE OF AKBAR SHĀH II.(B) Immediately to west of the grave of Shāh 'Ālam II (No. CII).(C) He was the son and successor of Shāh 'Ālam II. Having reigned as a titular King for about 28 years he died in 1837.The marble gravestone is said to have originally covered the remains of one Khawāja Qāsim 'Alī of Herat whose name and date of death were chiselled off by order of Bahādur Shāh II to suit his father's grave.

(D) (1) On the sides of the marble gravestone.

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم

(۱) هر که آمد بجهان اهل فنا خواهد بود یا حی یا قیوم آنکه پاینده ر با قیست خدا خواهد بود

(۲) جز بدای حضرت قیوم دل خویش مبدد یا کریم یا رحیم بند بند ز تو هم چرنکه جدا خواهد بود

Translation.

“In the name of Allāh, the Merciful, the Compassionate. (1) He who came to this world shall perish. O Ever-living. O Ever-lasting. He who is ever to live and never to die is Allāh. (2) Do not bend thy heart upon anything else than the Immortal Being. O Munificent. O Compassionate. Each and every limb of thine shall be separated from one another.”

(2) The top surface of the gravestone is inscribed with the 1st Muslim creed in Nasikh characters.

(3) On the marble headstone.

هو الله هو العلی الاکبر

Translation.

“He is Allāh. He is the High, the Great.”

Below it is a Persian inscription in verse, composed by Bahādur Shāh II under his nom de guerre Zāfar, recording the death of his father, Akbar Shāh II, in 1253 A.H. (1837 A.D.).

No. CIV.

(A) GRAVE OF SHĀHĀBĀDĪ BEGAM.(B) In the same enclosure to west of the grave of Akbar Shāh II (No. CII).(C) She is said to have been a wife of Akbar Shāh II.(D) On the top surface of the marble gravestone is یا فتاح in Tughra characters, and below these words the 1st Muslim creed. On three sides of the grave is inscribed the آية الكرسي (Throne Verse) preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم, vide also Inscription No. (22) on Mont. No. XI (Shāh's mosque), p. 8.

No. CV.

(A) *HUJRA now called TOSHĀ KHĀNA, or Wardrobe.(B) In the enclosure of the Dargāh of Khawāja Qutbu-d-Dīn Bakhtiyār Kākī, opposite Khān-i-Khānān's tomb.

* It is not a protected monument but the marble inscription slab referred to in note (D) is protected.

(C) The building shows signs of early Mughal type and later Paṭhān style of architecture.

(D) A marble slab let into a panel under the chhajja bears a Persian inscription in verse recording the erection of a lofty gateway in 958 A. H. (1551 A.D.) during the reign of Islām Shāh Sūrī. The gateway referred to in the epigraph is probably the Malan Gate of the Dargāh from which it is said to have been subsequently brought to be fixed in its present position.

No. CVI.

(A) LĀL MAḤAL or the PALACE OF BAHĀDUR SHĀH.

(B) To west of the Ajmerī Gate of the enclosure of the Dargāh of Khwāja Qutbu-d-Dīn Bakhtiyār Kākī.

(C) The palace was built by Akbar Shāh II, but his son Bahādur Shāh II was responsible for the reconstruction of the main gateway which was made so high probably to admit the elephants when they were required for riding purposes.

(D) It bears only an historical epigraph on the north over the arched entrance recording the erection of the lofty gateway in 1264 A. H. (1848 A.D.), the 11th regnal year of Bahādur Shāh II.

No. CVII.

(A) JAHĀZ MAḤAL.

(B) On the west of the Delhi-Gurgaon road, at the north-east corner of the old tank known as the Hauz-i-Shamsī.

(C) Nothing can be said definitely about it except that its architecture seems to date as far back as the Lodī period. Tradition avers that it was a house erected by a merchant for a saint, and if so, the western chamber which possesses certain distinctive features of a mosque must have been the place where the saint performed his devotion.

(D) No inscription is traceable anywhere except above the central archway to the western chamber where two small circular bosses of red sandstone inscribed with the word Allah are to be seen.

No. CVIII.

(A) TOMB OF SULTĀN GHĀRĪ.

(B) To east of the village Malikpur Kohi, about $4\frac{1}{2}$ miles to north-west of the Qutb Minār.

(C) The tomb contains the remains of Nāṣiru-d-Dīn Maḥmūd, the eldest son of Altamsh. He had many saintly qualities and it is related that when the time of his death drew near he said that an humble man like him was not worthy of being buried in a tomb but that he should be thrown into a pit. His will was executed by burying him in a vaulted crypt (ghār); hence his title Sultān-i-Ghārī.

(D) (1) Round the marble arched gateway, in embossed Naskh characters, is an Arabic inscription in prose assigning the erection of the tomb to Altamsh in the year 629 A. H. (1231-2 A.D.).

(2) On the marble entrance doorway, in embossed Naskh letters.

Qurān, Pt. X, Ch. 9 entitled التوبة (The Immunity), Sec. 3, Verses 18-9, vide also Inscription No. 3 (α) on Mont. No. CXIII (Mosque of Jamālī Kamālī), pp. 94-95.

(3) Round the Inscription No. (2) above, in embossed Kūfic characters.

The same as Inscription No. (14) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7, but only the 1st nine verses up to فَأَعْلَيْنَهُمْ فَهُمْ لَا يَبْصُرُونَ occur here.

(4) Round the above Kūfic Inscription No. (3) above, in embossed Kūfic characters.

Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 34, Verses 255-7, vide also Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muḥammad Shāh), p. 32 etc.

(5) On the marble lintel of the entrance doorway, in embossed Kūfic characters.

The same as Inscription No. (7) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6, but without بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ and only from لَهُمُ الْمُلْكُ الْمَلِكُ up to تَعَزَّزْ. The remaining portion of the verse seems to have been omitted for want of space.

(6) Above the Kūfic Inscription (No. 5) on the lintel, in embossed Naskh letters, is the following Muslim creed:—

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ الْمَلِكُ الْحَقُّ الْمُبِينُ مُحَمَّدٌ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَادِقُ الْإِمِينِ

Translation.

"There is no god but Allāh, the King, the Truth, the Manifest; Muḥammad is the Prophet of Allāh, the truthful, the trusty."

The vaulted crypt which is the tomb chamber contains four plastered graves, of which the one against the west wall is ascribed to Nūsīru-d-Dīn Maḥmūd, better known as Sultān Ghārī. There is another unknown grave at the end of the western colonnade liberally coated with white-wash, but it bears no religious or historical epigraph.

No. CIX.

(A) MOSQUE attached to tomb of Sultān Ghārī.

(B) The western colonnade in the enclosure.

(C) Vide note (C) on tomb of Sultān Ghārī (No. CVIII) above.

(D) (1) The principal mīhrāb is lavishly ornamented with religious texts. A marble guldasta inscribed with the word الملك (The King) in embossed Kūfic letters decorates the interior of the inner arched recess while on its arch only a portion of verse 18 of the 72nd chapter of the Qurān entitled الجن (The Jinn) is inscribed, viz., وَأَنَّ الْمَسَاجِدَ لِلَّهِ فَلَا تَدْعُوا مَعَ اللَّهِ أَحَدًا. Cf. also Inscriptions Nos. (2), (11), etc., on 'Alāi Darwāza (No. CXVI), pp. 97, 98, etc.

The spandrels of the above arched recess are embellished with the word الله in embossed Kūfic letters.

(2) Round the arched recess of the mīhrāb, in embossed Kūfic characters.

Qurān, Pt. XXIX, Ch. 67 entitled الملك (The Kingdom), Sec. 1, Verses 1-2, but only up to بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ with أَحْسَنَ عَمَلًا و هُوَ الْعَزِيزُ at the beginning, vide Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6, etc.

(3) Above the mihrāb, the 1st Muslim creed is inscribed in embossed Naskh letters, while on the arch of the mihrāb the same Quranic quotation is to be found as has been noticed under Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. LXXVI (Tomb of Fīroz Shāh), p. 74, but without being preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(4) Round the mihrāb in embossed Kūfic characters.

Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 3 entitled آل عمران (The Family of Amran), Sec. 2, Verses 17-8, vide also Inscription No. 21 (a) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8.

(5) Above the Inscription No. (4) round the mihrāb there are only the following attributes of God inscribed in embossed Kūfic characters:—

الملك القدوس السلم المؤمن المهيمن العزيز الجبار المتكبر الخالق الباري المصور

Vide Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muḥammad Shāh), pp. 31-32

(6) Round the arch of the mihrāb, in embossed Naskh letters.

The same as Inscription No. (1) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 6, but only the first five verses i.e., up to عند الله فرزاً عظيماً.

No. CX.

(A) MOSQUE locally known as MĀNDIWĀLĪ MASJID.

(B) Near the south-west corner of Bāgh-i-Nāzīr in village Ladha Sarai.

(C) Its history is obscure but the style of its architecture is early Mughal.

(D) (1) On the spandrels of the arches of the central gateway there are circular medallions bearing the 1st Muslim creed preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم in Naskh letters cut in plaster.

(2) A much mutilated Persian inscription in verse appears on the outside of the central gateway and also inside the arch on the north, east and west. It is badly cut in plaster and reads as follows:—

(۱) این همه نقشه ز تو پیدا شده خاک ضعیف از تو تولاشده

(۲) جز تو ندارد کسی رحم درں

Translation.

(1) "All these paintings (i.e., God's creation) have been produced by Thee, the weak dust (i.e., man) has made friends with Thee.

(2) None but Thee has mercy within....."

(3) Small discs containing the word الله decorate the mosque throughout, while the central archway to the prayer chamber on the north of the open-air wall mosque has its spandrels ornamented with large plastered medallions bearing the 1st Muslim creed preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم with the phrase حسبى الله in the centre.

(4) On the spandrels of the central archway to the covered prayer chamber to south of the open space (or wall mosque) there are two large circular medallions inscribed with the آية الكرسي or Throne Verse in Naskh letters, vide Inscription No. (22) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8.

(5) The wall mosque or the open space between the covered prayer chambers on the north and south is also embellished with circular plastered discs containing the 1st Muslim creed preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم in Naskh letters.

(6) Inside the covered prayer chambers there are similar discs of lime plaster bearing the 1st Muslim creed only, but many circular discs which originally decorated the spandrels of arched recesses have peeled off, and it is not known what was inscribed on them.

No. CXI.

(A) TOMB OF JAMĀLĪ.

(B) In village Daud Sarai, about half a mile to south-east of the Quṭb Mīnār.

(C) Maulānā Jamālī was a learned man and a poet in the reign of Sultān Sikandar Lodī. He died in 942 A.H. (1535-6 A.D.) in Gujrat whence his corpse was brought to Delhi to be buried in the tomb erected by himself about the year 935 A.H. (1528-9 A.D.) during his lifetime. His real name was Faẓlullāh, Jamālī being his poetic appellation.

(D) (1) Over the central entrance to the enclosure, in embossed Naskh characters.

The same as Inscription No. (13) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7, but after the last word احد the words با الله الرحمن (By God, the Merciful) are also inscribed.

(2) Above the western mihrāb in the tomb chamber, in embossed Naskh letters.

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ الْمَلِكُ الْغَنِيُّ مُحَمَّدٌ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ النَّبِيُّ الْمَخْتَارُ

Translation.

"There is no god but Allāh, the King, the Mighty; Muḥammad is the Prophet of Allāh, the apostle, the chosen."

(4) On the arch of the small marble mihrāb, in embossed Naskh characters.

The same as Inscription No. 21 (a) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8, but only the 1st verse, i.e., up to هو العزيز الحكيم.

(5) Inside the small marble mihrāb, in embossed Naskh letters.

الْمَلِكُ اللَّهُ الْوَاحِدُ الْقَهَّارُ

Translation.

"Kingdom is for Allāh, the One, the Subduer."

Under it appears the word الله repeated twice, and further below it يا الله.

(6) Immediately under the ceiling runs a long Persian inscription in verse, executed in Naskh characters cut in plaster. It contains the nom de plume of Maulānā Jamālī, the composer, and reads as follows:—

بود بعفو تو چشم امیدواری ما	(۱) اگر بکفر کشد سر سیاه کاری ما
که شب قرار ندارند ز آه و زاری ما	(۲) بآستین تو شرمند سگان تو ایم

Translation.

(1) “(Even) if our wickedness amounts to blasphemy still we look to Thy forgiveness hopefully.

(2) At Thy threshold we stand ashamed because Thy dogs can take no rest at night on account of our lamentations.

(3) Should I have the honour to approach the curtain of Thy secret, the angel would take pride in becoming our porter.

(4) Being covered with the dust of Thy street we are contemptible in the eyes of the (common) people, (whereas) in the estimation of the perspicacious our (outward) wretched condition is an honour.

(5) By the cloud of Thy beneficence the dust of sin has been washed away but the blot of our shame could not be removed.

(6) On the day of separation from Thee, nothing but the sorrow we feel for Thee comes to console us in our helplessness and loneliness.

(7) O Jamālī, resort for protection to the door of the Friend, for our salvation can be attained at the door of the Beloved.

(8) In Thy love our restlessness has passed beyond bounds; it is hoped that Thou wilt feel pity on our wailing.

(9) How could the beautiful face of Thy forgiveness have become unveiled if our sinfulness had not shown its face.

(10) Although we deserve (Thy) wrath for our guiltiness, we cherish hope from Thy kindness.

(11) We can attain the honour, dignity and glory of the angels if Thou (benignantly) viewest my humility.

(12) If we become guardian of the curtain of Thy Secret, (even) an angel will not be deserving of acting as our porter.

(13) By a drizzle from the cloud of (Thy) beneficence Thou wasthest away the dust of guilt from our ashamed face.

(14) Cast Thy eyes on Jamālī with kindness (and) pay no heed to our idleness and shortcomings.

(15) O (God) Thy mercy..... from (Thy) wrath, and O (God) Thy kindness ordered Thy wrath to depart.

(16) Wherever they speak of Thy immense forgiveness, people's sin is not weighed there against (a grain of) barley" (i.e., in view of the immensity of Divine forgiveness our sins are of little consequence).

No. CXII.

(A) UNKNOWN GRAVE, locally known as CHHATRI.

(B) To east of the tomb of Maulānā Jamālī in the same enclosure.

(C) No historical information about it is available.

(D) On the top of the sandstone grave appears the 1st Muslim creed in embossed Naskh letters and under it the word الله in circular medallions.

To east of the above Chhatrī there is a walled enclosure, known as the Qabrūstān (Graveyard). Its surrounding walls have arched niches the spandrels of some of which are ornamented by small plastered discs inscribed with الله الملك or الله.

Out of so many graves in the compound only three are inscribed. The two of plaster bear only the 1st Muslim creed, while the 3rd of red sandstone has on the top the 1st Muslim creed and under it the phrase حسبى الله. Further below is the سورة الاخلاص (Ch. 112) already noticed under Inscription No. (13) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7, etc.

No. CXIII.

(A) MOSQUE OF JAMĀLĪ KAMĀLĪ.

(B) To south of the tomb of Maulānā Jamālī (No. CXI).

(C) Nothing is forthcoming about the mosque but there are reasons to suppose that it was built about the same time as the tomb of Jamālī.

(D) (1) The exterior is embellished with circular bosses of red sandstone inscribed with the words الله or الله الملك or الله كفى while above the arch to south of the central archway leading into the prayer chamber there are two circular medallions, one bearing بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم and the other the 1st Muslim creed. The west wall of the prayer chamber is again ornamented with small bosses of red sandstone containing the word الله only.

(2) Round the upper arch in Naskh characters.

Verses from two different chapters—

(a) Qurān, Pt. II, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 17, Verses 143-7.

(b) Qurān, Pt. XVI, Ch. 18 entitled الكهف (The Cave), Sec. 12, Verses 107-10, vide Inscription No. (19) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8.

(3) Round the small mihrāb, in Naskh characters.

Verses from two different chapters of the Qurān—

(a) Pt. X, Ch. 9 entitled التوبة (The Immunity), Sec. 3, Verses 18-9, but the words قال الله تعالى (The Most High Allāh said) appear at the beginning of the 1st verse. Cf. also Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. CVIII (Tomb of Sultān Ghārī), pp. 89-90.

(b) The same as Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XXII (Nili Chhatrī), p. 15, etc.

(4) Round the mihrāb to north of the central mihrāb, in embossed Naskh characters.

Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 3 entitled آل عمران (The Family of Amran), Sec. 4, Verse 36, but only from كلما دخل عليها زكريا up to بغير حساب.

(5) Round the northernmost mihrāb, in embossed Naskh letters.

Qurān, Pt. II, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 22, Verses 177-8, but the last verse is quoted only up to كتب عليكم القصص.

No. CXIV.

(A) TOMB OF MUHAMMAD QULI KHĀN, better known as METCALFE HOUSE.

(B) Near the Quṭb enclosure, to south-east of the Quṭb Mīnār.

(C) The tomb said to contain the remains of Muḥammad Qulī Khān, a noble of the Mughal period, has come to be called Metcalfe House because Sir Charles Theophilus Metcalfe, the Governor General of India (1835-6) used it for his residence during the rainy season.

(D) (1) On the arch facing east, in embossed Naskh letters cut in plaster.

Qurān, Pt. XV, Ch. 18 entitled الكهف (The Cave), Sec. 1, Verses 1-9, but only up to ام حسبك ان and with بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning.

2 (a). On the arch facing south-east, in Naskh characters.

The same as Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XV (Khairu-l-Manāzil mosque), p.10.

(b) On the spandrels of the above arch there are circular medallions made of plaster bearing the 1st Muslim creed.

(3) The southern arch is uninscribed but its spandrels are embellished with inscribed medallions similar to those noticed above, vide Inscription No. 2 (b).

4 (a). On the arch facing south-west, in Naskh letters.

The same as Inscription No. (1) above.

(b) On the spandrels of the above arch, in Naskh characters.

The same as Inscription 2 (b) above.

5 (a). On the arch facing west, in embossed Naskh characters.

Qurān, Pt. XVI, Ch. 20 entitled طه (Ṭā Hā), Sec. 1, Verses 1-10, but only up to ارجد على النار and with بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning.

(b) On the spandrels of the above arch, in Naskh letters.

The same as Inscription No. 2 (b) above.

(6) The arch facing north-west bears no inscription, but on its spandrels there are circular medallions of plaster inscribed with الله at the centre.

7 (a) On the arch facing north, in Naskh characters cut in plaster.

Qurān, Pt. XVI, Ch. 19 entitled مريم (Mary), Sec. 1, Verses 1-8, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(b) On the spandrels of the above arch, in Naskh letters.

The same as Inscription No. 2 (b) above.

8 (a) On the arch facing north-east, in Naskh characters.

ان الله غفور رحيم (Verily Allāh is the Forgiving, the Compassionate), and after it there appear the same verses as have been noticed under Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XV (Khairu-l-Manāzil mosque), p. 10, but only up to ر ان عدتم عدنا.

(b) On the spandrels of the above arch, in Naskh letters.

The same as Inscription No. (2) above.

No. CXV.

(A) TOMB OF IMĀM ZĀMIN.

(B) Near the 'Alāī Gate (No. CXVI) to south.

(C) The tomb was built by Saiyid Muḥammad 'Alī Chishtī, better known as Imām Zāmin, during his lifetime in 944 A. H. (1537-8 A. D.) about a year before his death. He was a native of Turkestan and seems to have been connected with the Quṭb mosque near which he lies buried.

(D) (1) On a white marble slab fixed over the doorway of the tomb is a long epigraph in Persian prose, in well executed embossed Naskh letters, recording the erection of the mausoleum in 944 A. H. (1537-8 A. D.) by Saiyid Muḥammad 'Alī Chishtī, a pious man of Turkestan, who according to his parting advice was buried in it (in 1539 A. D.).

(2) Externally the tomb is ornamented with small circular bosses inscribed with the word الله while the same sort of discs bearing the words يا فتاح or الله are to be seen in the interior also.

(3) On the arch of the white marble mīhrāb in the west wall is the 1st Muslim creed preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم and followed by الله اكبر (Allāh is Great).

(4) On the marble mīhrāb the 1st Muslim creed is again to be seen, but in Kūfic characters in relief. Underneath it the word الله is repeated four times, and further below is the phrase الملك لله in Tughrā letters.

No. CXVI.

(A) 'ALĀĪ GATE.

(B) About 40 ft. to south-east of the Quṭb Minār (No. CXVII).

(C) Built by 'Alāu-d-Dīn Khaljī in 1311 as the southern gate to the Quṭb mosque extended by him. The inscriptions on it are all in Naskh characters in relief.

(D) Eastern façade.

(1) Round the recessed niches to north of the eastern gateway.

Two different quotations—

(a) Qurān, Pt. VII, Ch. 5 entitled المائدة (The Food), Sec. 13, Verses 97-100.

(b) قال عليه السلام من بنى لله مسجداً بنى الله له بيتاً في الجنة¹

¹ It is a famous tradition of the Prophet, vide Al-Jāmi'u-s-Sagħīr, Pt. II, (Cairo edition, 1306), p. 151.

Translation.

“(The Prophet,) peace be on him, said, ‘Whoever built for Allāh a mosque got a house built by Allāh for him in paradise’.”

(2) On the small marble arches of the recessed niches.

The same as Inscription No. (1) on Mont. No. CIX (Mosque attached to the tomb of Sultān Ghārī), p. 90.

(3) Round the arches, underneath the above recessed niches.

The same as Inscription No. 117 (a) on Mont. No. XLV (Barā Gumbad mosque), p. 45.

(4) On the half-covered arch only the following words are to be seen repeated twice :—

قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم

Translation.

“The Prophet of Allāh, may Allāh bless and assoil him, said.”

(5) On the arch to south of the half-covered arch.

قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم الصلاة التحية الدعاء لا ترد بين الاذان و الاقامة¹

Translation.

“The Prophet of Allāh, may Allāh bless and assoil him, said, ‘The Ṣalātu-t-Taḥīyah is a prayer, which is not refused, between the call to prayer (اذان) and the actual congregational prayer (اقامة) lit., standing still in prayer’.”

(6) On the smaller arch, underneath the above Inscription No. (5).

قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم مفتاح الجنة الصلاة²

Translation.

“The Prophet of Allāh, may Allāh bless and assoil him, said, ‘The key to paradise is صلاة (or prayer)’.”

(7) Round the eastern archway is a mutilated historical epigraph which assigns the erection of the gateway to Muḥammad Shāh (I) ‘Alāu-d-Dīn Khaljī on the 15th Shawwāl, 710 A. H. (7th March, 1311 A. D.).

(8) On the upper marble arch of the eastern gateway is another historical inscription, partly damaged, which ascribes the construction of the mosque to Muḥammad Shāh (I) ‘Alāu-d-Dīn Khaljī, but gives no date.

(9) Under the above Inscription No. (8), on the lower marble arch, is a 3rd fragmentary inscription assigning the erection of the mosque to Muḥammad Shāh (I) ‘Alāu-d-Dīn Khaljī, but like the Inscription No. (8) above it contains no date.

(10) Round the recessed niches to south of the eastern gateway.

Two different texts--

(a) Qurān, Pt. XIII, Ch. 13 entitled الرعد (The Thunder), Secs. 5-6, Verses 35-8, but only up to وجعلنا لهم ازواجاً and with بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning.

¹ This tradition of the Prophet, according to Mullā Zamakhsharī, has been narrated by Dārmī and is حسن or fairly reliable.

² It is a well known tradition of the Prophet, but the exact words available in the books of ḥadīth are الصلاة مفتاح الجنة.

(b) The Prophet's tradition, vide Inscription No. 1 (b) above.

(11) On the small marble arches inside the recessed niches.

The same as Inscription No. (2) above.

(12) Round the arches underneath the above recessed niches.

Verses from two different chapters of the Qurān—

(a) Pt. VIII, Ch. 7 entitled الاعراف (The Elevated Places) Secs. 3-4, Verses 31-5. Cf. also Inscription No. (1) on Mont. No. XXXI (Mosque of 'Isā Khān), p. 20.

(b) Pt. XXVI, Ch. 50 entitled ق (Qāf), Sec. 3, Verses 31-5, but without بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning.

(13) On the semi-circular arch No. (1) immediately to south of the eastern archway.

Qurān, Pt. XXIX, Ch. 72 entitled الج (The Jinn), Secs. 1-2, Verses 18-20, but only up to قال إنما أوصاني; vide also Inscription No. (2) above.

(14) On the smaller semi-circular arch inside the arched recess No. (1) to south of the eastern archway.

The same tradition of the Prophet as has been noticed under Inscription No. (1) (b) above, but here after the word له the word مثله instead of بيته is inscribed.

(15) On the semi-circular arch No. (2) immediately to south of the arch No. (1) noticed above.

قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم صلاة الجماعة تزيد على صلاة الفذ خمس وعشرين درجة¹

Translation.

"The Prophet of Allāh, may Allāh bless and assoil him, said, 'A congregational prayer is twenty-five times as good as a prayer (offered) in seclusion'."

(16) On the smaller semi-circular arch inside the arched recess No. (2) immediately to south of the arched recess No. (1).

قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم احب البلاد الى الله مساجدها و ابغض البلاد الى الله اسواقها²

Translation.

"The Prophet of Allāh, may Allāh bless and assoil him, said, 'The most beloved places to Allāh are the mosques and the most detestable places to Allāh are the markets'."

Southern façade.

(17) Round the recessed niches to east of the southern archway.

Two separate texts—

(a) Qurān, Pt. XI, Ch. 9 entitled التوبة (The Immunity), Sec. 13, Verses 104-7, but preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم, vide also Inscription No. (15) on Mont. No. XLV (Barā Gumbad mosque), pp. 34-35.

¹ It is a tradition of the Prophet available in the الترغيب والترهيب of Mullā Zamaksharī, (Cairo edition), p. 330, but the wording is slightly changed.

² This tradition narrated by Muslim and Abi Hurairah has been quoted in Mishkāt, Vol. I (published by Hāshimī Press), p. 247.

(b) The same tradition of the Prophet as has been noticed under Inscriptions Nos. 1 (b), 10 (b) and 14 above, but the arrangement of words is a little different.

(18) On the horse-shoe arches of the recessed niches to east of the southern archway.

The same as Inscription No. (2) above.

(19) Round the two screened arches to east of the southern archway.

Qurān, Pt. I, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Secs. 15-6, Verses 127-32, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(20) On the band between the two screened arched windows to east of the southern archway.

Qurān, Pt. XIII, Ch. 13 entitled الرعد (The Thunder), Sec. 3, Verses 23-5, but only up to ينقضن عهد الله.

(21) On the upper arch of the screened window No. (1) immediately to east of the southern archway.

و قوله غرّجل راقموا الصلوة وآتوا الزكاة¹

Translation.

“And the words of the Great and Glorious God (are :) ‘And keep up prayer and pay the poor-rate.....’”

(22) On the lower arch of the screened window No. (1) noticed above.

قال رسول الله صلى عليه وسلم الجماعة من سنن الهدى لا يتخلفها إلا منافق²

Translation.

“The Prophet of Allāh, may Allāh bless and assoil him, said, ‘The congregational prayer is one of the traditions of the prophets³: none avoids it but a hypocrite’.”

(23) On the upper arch of the screened window No. (2) to east of the screened window No. (1).

قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم حافظوا على الصلوات و الصلوة الوسطى و قوموا لله قنّتين⁴

Translation.

“The Prophet of Allāh, may Allāh bless and assoil him, said, ‘Be mindful of the prayers and (particularly) of the middle prayer (i.e., Ṣalātu-l-‘Aṣr) and stand up truly obedient to Allāh’.”

(24) On the lower arch of the screened window No. (2) to east of the screened window No. (1) noticed above.

² This tradition is quoted by Shāmī, but the wording here is changed.

³ هدى literally means ‘the guided ones’, but the Muslim theologians interpret it as ‘the prophets’.

⁴ It is a famous tradition of the Prophet and also a Quranic verse, vide Pt. II, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 31, Verse 238.

قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم من بنى لله مسجداً كمفحص قطاة بنى الله له رِيشاً¹ فى الجنة

Translation.

“The Prophet of Allāh, may Allāh bless and assoil him, said, ‘Whoever built for Allāh a mosque (even as small) as the nest of the qaṭa (sand-grouse) got for him a garden laid out by Allāh in paradise’.”

(25) Round the southern archway.

The idea is the same as given in the Inscription No. (7) noticed above, but the wording is different.

(26) On the upper marble arch of the southern gateway.

The idea is the same as contained in the Inscription No. (8) above, but the wording is different.

(27) On the lower marble arch of the southern gateway.

The idea is the same as contained in Inscription No. (9) above, but the wording is different.

(28) Round the recessed niche immediately to west of the southern archway.

Two separate texts—

(a) Qurān, Pt. XV, Ch. 17 entitled بنى إسرائيل (The Israelites), Sec. 1, Verses 7-10, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم. Cf. also Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XV (Khairu-l-Manāzil mosque), p. 10, but only from ان احسنتم احسنتم لانفسكم.

(b) The same tradition as has been noticed under Inscription No. 17 (b) above.

(29) On the small marble arch of the recessed niche immediately to west of the southern archway.

The same as Inscription No. (2) above.

(30) Round the two screened arched windows to west of the southern archway.

The same as Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. LXXVI (Tomb of Fīroz Shāh), p. 74, but the next 4 verses (96-9) of the same chapter 3 entitled آل عمران (The Family of Amran) are also to be seen.

(31) On the band between the two screened arched windows to west of the southern archway.

Qurān, Pt. XXIII, Ch. 38 entitled ص (S) Sec. 4, Verses 50-4.

(32) On the upper arch of the window No. (1) immediately to west of the southern archway.

Qurān, Pt. XIII, Ch. 14 entitled ابراهيم (Abraham), Sec. 5, Verse 31, but preceded by قال الله تعالى (The Most High Allāh said).

(33) On the lower arch of the above window No. (1) immediately to west of the southern archway.

The same as Inscription No. (23) above, but only from حانظرا على الصلوات up to قننتين.

(34) On the upper arch of the screened window No. (2) to west of the window No. (1) noticed above.

قال عليه السلام جنبوا مساجدنا غلمانكم و مجانينكم و رسل سيوفكم و رفع اصواتكم و اقامة حدودكم و خصوصياتكم و بيعكم و شراكم و جمورها يوم يجمعكم¹

Translation.

“(The Prophet,) peace be on him, said, ‘Keep the mosques immune from (the encroachments of) your children and your insane people, and from your drawing of swords, making of noise, execution of law and (also) from your quarrels and commercial transactions, and fill it with fragrance on the day you congregate (in it).’”

(35) On the lower arch of the screened window No. (2) to west of the window No. (1) noticed above.

قال عليه السلام افضل عبادة امتي قراءة القرآن²

Translation.

“(The Prophet), peace be on him, said, ‘The best service for my followers is to read the Qurān.’”

Western façade.

(36) Round the recessed marble niches to south of the western archway.

Qurān, Pt. XXVI, Ch. 48 entitled الفتح (The Victory), Sec. 4, Verses 28-9, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم. Vide Inscription No. (116) on Mont. No. XLV (Barā Gumbad mosque), p. 45.

(37) On the small marble arches of the recessed niches to south of the western archway.

The same as Inscription No. (2) above.

(38) Round the two arched windows (one screened and the other closed) under the recessed niches to south of the western archway.

Qurān, Pt. IV, Ch. 3 entitled آل عمران (The Family of Amran), Sec. 14, Verses 132-5, preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم.

(39) On the band between the closed arched recess and the screened arched window noticed above.

Qurān, Pt. V, Ch. 4 entitled النساء (The Women), Sec. 18, Verses 122-3, but only up to بامانيكم ولا.

(40) On the upper arch of the screened arched window to south of the western archway.

Qurān, Pt. I, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 5, Verses 45-6, but preceded by قال الله تعالى (The Most High Allāh said).

¹ It is a tradition of the Prophet but its wording is changed. According to Al-Jāmi'u-s-Saghir (printed at the Khairia Press in Egypt, 1306), Vol. I, p. 12, the exact words of the Prophet are as follows:—

جنبوا مساجدنا مبياتكم و مجانينكم و شراكم و بيعكم و خصوصياتكم و رفع اصواتكم و اقامة حدودكم و رسل سيوفكم و اتخذوا على اربابها المطاهر و جمورها في الجمع. For the reason of this change in words, vide Introduction, p. 2, para. (f).

² This is a tradition of the Prophet available in various forms in the recognized books of hadith.

(41) On the lower arch of the screened arched window to south of the western archway.

قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم الفتح الجنة الصلوة¹

Translation.

"The Prophet of Allāh, may Allāh bless and assoil him, said, 'The prayer opens (the gates) of paradise'."

(42) On the upper arch of the arched recess to south of the screened arched window noticed above.

The same as Inscription No. (24) above, but instead of رِضًا¹ (a garden) the word بَيْتًا (a house) is inscribed.

(43) On the lower arch of the arched recess to south of the screened arched window noticed above.

Either the same tradition as has been noticed under the above Inscription No. 1 (b), or the Inscription No. (14).²

(44) Round the western archway.

Vide note under Inscription No. (25) above.

(45) On the upper marble arch of the western archway.

Vide note under Inscription No. (26) above.

(46) On the lower arch of the western gateway.

Vide note under Inscription No. (26) above.

(47) Round the screened arched window and the half-covered arched recess to north of the western archway.

Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Sec. 34, Verses 255-6, preceded by بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ, vide also Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muḥammad Shāh), p. 32. The Inscription is much mutilated.

(48) On the upper arch of the screened window immediately to north of the western archway.

The same as Inscription No. 3(a) on Mont. No. CXIII (Mosque of Jamālī), pp. 94-95, but without قَالَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى and only from إِنْ مَا يَعْمُرُ up to مِنَ الْمُتَدِينِ. Cf. also Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. CVIII (Tomb of Sultān Shāhī), p. 89-90.

(49) On the lower arch of the screened window immediately to north of the western archway.

The same as Inscription No. (6) above.

(50) On the upper arch of the half-covered recess to north of the screened arched window noticed above is an almost entirely obliterated inscription out of which only the words قَالَ اللَّهُ (God said) are readable.

(51) On the lower arch of the half-covered recess to north of the screened arched window.

The same as Inscription No. (4) above.

¹ In the books containing the traditions of the Prophet the word مِفْتَاح (The key) instead of الْفَتْح (The Opener) is to be seen. Cf. Introduction, paragraph (f), p. 2.

² These two traditions are only slightly different from each other, and since several words of the epigraph have peeled off, it cannot be said with certainty as to which of them was originally inscribed.

The interior of the 'Alāi Gate is embellished with المملك لله الواحد القهار¹ (Kingdom is for Allāh, the One, the Subduer), repeated several times, while the upper and lower arch faces of the arched windows on either side of the four entrance archways bear respectively the 48th Chapter of the Qurān entitled الفتح (The Victory), Verses 1-9, and the 17th Chapter entitled بنی اسرائیل (The Israelites), Verses 1-12 as per details below:—

(52) On the inner face of the upper arch of the window to east of the northern semi-circular archway.

From بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم up to نعمته عليك, preceded by انا فتحنالك.

(53) On the inner face of the lower arch of the window to east of the northern semi-circular archway.

From بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم up to انه هو السميع البصير preceded by سبحان الذي اسرى.

(54) On the inner face of the upper arch of the screened window to west of the northern semi-circular archway.

From في قلوب المؤمنين up to و يهديك صراطاً.

(55) On the inner face of the lower arch of the screened window to west of the northern semi-circular archway.

From وقضينا up to و آتينا موسى الكتب.

(56) On the inner face of the upper arch of the screened window to north of the western archway.

From ليد خل المؤمنين up to ليزدادراً إيماناً.

(57) On the inner face of the lower arch of the screened window to north of the western archway.

From اولى باس شديد up to الى بنى اسرائيل.

(58) On the inner face of the upper arch of the screened window to south of the western archway.

From وكان ذلك عند الله up to والمؤمنت جنت تجري.

(59) On the inner face of the lower arch of the screened window to south of the western archway.

From وجعلنكم أكثر نفيرا up to فجاسرا خلال الديار.

(60) On the inner face of the upper arch of the screened window to west of the southern archway.

From والمشركين والمشركت up to فوزاً عظيماً.

(61) On the inner face of the lower arch of the screened window to west of the southern archway.

From وليتبروا ما علوا up to ان احسنم احسنتم.

(62) On the inner face of the upper arch of the screened window to east of the southern archway.

From عليهم ولعنهم up to الظانين بالله.

(63) On the inner face of the lower arch of the screened window to east of the southern archway.

From يبشر المؤمنين الذين up to تتبيرا.

No. CXVII.

(A) QUTB MINĀR.

(B) In the Qutb mosque, to north-west of the 'Alāi Gate (No. CXVI).

(C) Erroneously supposed to have been built by Pirthī Rāj Chauhān to enable his daughter to see the Jumna river before her meals, the Minār was erected by Qutbu-d-Dīn Aibak and subsequent additions and alterations were made to it from time to time. Qutbu-d-Dīn was responsible for the construction of the basement storey and his son-in-law, Shamsu-d-Dīn Altamsh, for its completion about the year 1230 A. D., whereas, according to contemporary histories, the 5th or the final storey (and probably most of the 4th), were made by Fīroz Shāh Tughlaq in 1370 after the Minār had been damaged by an earthquake in 1369. It served as a maznah or tower attached to the Qutb mosque whence the muazzin (public crier) called the faithful to the five daily prayers at the appointed hours.¹ It is decorated with inscriptions in embossed Naskh letters.

(D) Basement storey. 1st or Lowest Band.

(1) The arrangement of inscribed slabs has been so hopelessly disturbed by ignorant restorers that nothing can be said with propriety as to what particular chapter of the Qurān the fragmentary verses in situ belong to. The following words are, however, readable:—

أَلَمْ تَلِكْ آيَاتِ الْكُتُبِ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ عَلَى اللَّهِ رِزْقُهَا

(2) An inscription slab bearing a few words of historic importance inasmuch as they refer to Qutbu-d-Dīn Aibak to whom the construction of the basement storey is assigned.

(3) Second Band.

An Arabic inscription containing the name of Muḥammad (Ghorī) bin Sām, but undated, followed by the 22nd verse of chapter 59 entitled العشر (The Banishment). The Quranic text in the inscription opens with the words ¹وَرَبُّكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ ذِي instead of هو الله الذی as given in the Qurān.

(4) Third Band.

The same as Inscription No. (1) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), pp. 6 but only the 1st six verses, i.e., up to رسالت مصيرا occur.

(5) Fourth Band.

An Arabic inscription in prose containing the name of Muḥammad (Ghori) bin Sām, but no date.

(6) Fifth Band.

The same as Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muḥammad Shāh), pp. 31-32, but only up to the end of the attributes of God.

(7) Sixth Band.

Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 2 entitled البقرة (The Cow), Secs. 34-5, Verses 255-60, vide Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muḥammad Shāh), p. 32.

(8) On the entrance doorway.

(a) قال النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم من بنى مسجد الله تعالى بنى الله له فى الجنة بيتا مثله¹.

Translation.

“The Prophet, may Allāh bless and assoil him, said, ‘Whoever built a mosque for the Most High Allāh got a house similar to it built for him in paradise by Allāh.’”

(b) After the above Inscription No. 8 (a) there runs an historical inscription in Persian prose which records that the Mīnār having been much injured was repaired by Sultān Sikandar Shāh (Lodī) under the supervision of Khānzāda Fath Khān, son of Masnad-i-‘Ālī Khawāṣ Khān on the 1st of Rabī‘ II, 909 A. H. (23rd September, 1503 A. D.).

(9) Near the entrance doorway is a mutilated Persian inscription in prose containing only the name of Faḡl Abu-l-Ma‘ālī but no historical association of the man with the Mīnār.

(10) Second Storey. Lower Band.

An historical epigraph in Arabic prose containing the name and praises of Iltutmish (Altamsh), the slave and successor of Quṭbu-d-Dīn Aibak.

(11) Second Storey. Upper Band.

(a) Qurān, Pt. XIII, Ch. 14 entitled ابراهيم (Abraham), Sec. 5, Verses 29-30.

(b) After the above Inscription No. 11 (a), the 9th and 10th verses of Ch. 62, entitled الجمعة (The Congregation) are inscribed, vide Inscription No. 93 (a) on Mont. No. XLV (Baḡā Gumbad mosque), p. 41².

(12) On the doorway in this storey is an historical inscription in Arabic prose recording the completion of the fabric under the orders of Altamsh.

(13) The Third Storey bears no religious quotation but an undated historical epigraph in Arabic prose containing the name and titles of Sultān Altamsh.

(14) On the doorway in the 3rd storey is another Arabic inscription in prose containing, like those noticed above, the name and titles of Altamsh, but no date.

¹ For the other traditions very similar to this, vide Inscriptions Nos. 1(b), (14) and 17(b) on Mont. No. CXVI (‘Alāī Gate), pp. 96, 98, 99, etc.

² These verses suggest that the Quṭb mosque to which the Mīnār was a mazanaḥ was a Jāmi’ Masjid in those days.

(15) Near the doorway in this storey is a small inscription in Arabic prose recording the completion of the Mīnār under the supervision of one Muḥammad Amīr Koh.

(16) Fourth storey.

An Arabic inscription in prose assigning the erection of the fabric to Altamsh.

(17) Fifth Storey.

No religious inscription, but an historical epigraph in Persian prose recording the repairs to this storey executed by Fīroz Shāh Tughlaq after it had been injured by lightning in 770 A. H. (1368-9 A. D.) is to be found.

No. CXVIII.

(A) QUTB MOSQUE or MASJID QŪWATU-L-ISLĀM (Mosque of the Might of Islām).

(B) Near the Quṭb Mīnār (No. CXVII).

(C) On the site of a demolished Hindu temple this mosque was built with materials taken from twentyseven other temples as a monument of victory in 1192 A. D. by Quṭbu-d-Dīn Aibak, the slave and Viceroy of Muʿizzu-d-Dīn Muḥammad Ghori bin Sām.

The original mosque of Quṭbu-d-Dīn, begun in 1191 and completed in 1199 A. D., is on a raised plinth and its east and north gateways are inscribed, vide Inscriptions Nos. 49 (b), 50 and 51 (b) infra. Subsequent additions were made to it by Altamsh in 1229 A. D. and ʿAlāu-d-Dīn Khajī in 1315 A. D. but on account of the death of the latter the work had to be left incomplete.¹

(D) Starting from the south to north the arches of the great screen bear the following inscriptions:—

1. (a) On the 1st half of the southern arch No. (1) of Altamsh's southern extension, in embossed Kūfic characters.

The same as Inscription No. (18) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7, but only up to انى دعوت قومي لبلا.

(b) On the 2nd half of the southern arch No. (1) noticed above, in embossed Kūfic characters.

The same as Inscription No. (18) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 7, but only verses 10-18, i.e., from كان غفارا يرسل up to والله انبئكم من الارض نباتا [ثم يعيد] كم فيها.

(2) Round the southern arch No. (1) of Altamsh's southern extension, in Naskh letters in relief.

(a) First half.

The same as Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XV (Khairu-l-Manāzil mosque), p. 10, but only from the beginning up to فان جاء وعد اولهما.

(b) Second half.

Qurān, Pt. XV, Ch. 17 entitled بنی اسرائیل (The Israelites), Secs. 1-2, Verses 10-12, but only from يؤمنون بالآخرة up to فصلنه تفصيلا. Cf. also Inscriptions Nos. (64-5) on Mont. No. CXVI ('Alāi Gate), p.104.

¹ Vide Guide to the Quṭb by Mr. J. A. Page, Plate I—Plan shewing the Original Mosque and its Subsequent Extensions.

(c) Just at the end of the above Inscription No. 2 (b) appears an historical epigraph in Arabic prose dated 627 A. H. (1229-30 A. D.) which probably refers to the construction of Altamsh's extension.

(3) The bands of the piers are inscribed with the word الملك (The King) or الله.

4. (a) On the 1st half of the arch No. (2) immediately to north of the arch No. (1) noticed above, in Kūfic characters in relief.

Qurān, Pt. XXII, Ch. 35 entitled ناطر (The Originator), Sec. 1, Verses 1-2, but only up to ر هو and with بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning.

(b) On the 2nd half of the above arch No. (2), in Kūfic letters in relief.

Qurān, Pt. XXII, Ch. 35 entitled ناطر (The Originator), Secs. 1-2, Verses 7-12, but only from ر لعلكم تشكرون up to ر لعلكم تشكرون.

5. (a) Between the words of the above Kūfic inscription No. 4 (a), in embossed Naskh letters.

[هو] الله الذى لا اله الا هو علم الغيب والشهادة هو الرحمن الرحيم الملك القدوس السلام المؤمن up to السميع البصير الحكيم . For the attributes of God vide Inscription No. (2) on Mont. No. XLIII (Tomb of Muḥammad Shāh), pp. 31-32.

(b) Between the words of the above Kūfic inscription No. 4 (b), in embossed Naskh characters.

The attributes of God from الغنى المغنى up to الرشيد , and after it the following inscription:—

وصلى الله على محمد وآله اجمعين وسلم تسليماً كثيراً حسبنا الله ونعم الوكيل نعم المولى ونعم النصير .

Translation.

“And may Allāh bless Muḥammad and all his family and assoil (him) abundantly! Allāh is enough for us and (He is) the Best Protector, the Best Master and the Best Helper.”

6. (a) Round the Inscription No. 4 (a) on arch No. (2) noticed above, in Naskh letters in relief.

The same as inscription No. (38) on Mont. No. CXVI ('Alāi Gate), p. 101, but only from ر سارعوا الى مغفرة up to اولئك جزاؤهم مغفرة with بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم at the beginning.

(b) Round the Inscription No. 4 (b) noticed above, in embossed Naskh characters.

Qurān, Pt. IV, Ch. 3 entitled آل عمران (The Family of Amran), Secs. 15-16, Verses 145-50, but only from ر كثير فما وهنوا up to بل الله مولكم . Cf. also Inscription No. 1 (d) on Mont. No. LXIV (Nīlī Masjid), p. 62.

(7) On the arch of the recess No. (1) between the southern arches Nos. (1) and (2) of Altamsh's extension, in Naskh characters in relief.

Qurān, Pt. XI, Ch. 9 entitled التوبة (The Immunity), Sec. 14, Verse 112, but only up to لعدد الله .

(8) Inside the arched recess No. (1) noticed above, in embossed Kūfic-Tughrā letters, are the closing words of Verse 112 of Ch. 9 noticed above, viz., [ر] بشر المؤمنین (And deliver good tidings to the believers).

(9) Above the arch of the recess No. (1) noticed above, in Naskh characters in relief.

قال النبی علیہ السلام المسجد بیت کل تقی¹

Translation.

“The Prophet, peace be on him, said, ‘The mosque is the resort of the righteous’.”

(10) Above the Inscription No. (9) in embossed Kūfic letters is the 1st Muslim creed.

(11) Round the arched recess No. (1) noticed above, in Naskh letters in relief, is the following fragmentary inscription:—

[قال النبی صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم من بنی مسجد ابنی اللہ لہ بیتاً فی الجنة² وقال علیہ السلام من بسط الحصیر فی المسجد صلی علیہ سبعون الف ملک حتی ینقطع ذالک الحصیر³ وقال علیہ السلام من کنس مسجداً کان لہ بكل کنس عتق رقبة⁴ وقال علیہ السلام من نور مسجداً لی ليلة واحدة اعظاماً للہ نور اللہ قبرہ یكون علی الصراط نور وغفر اللہ ذنوبہ للسر والعلا نية واعطاه اللہ اجرأ عشر شهید⁵

Translation.

“(The Prophet, may Allāh bless) and assoil him, said, ‘He who built a mosque got a house built for him by Allāh in paradise’. And (the Prophet,) peace be on him, said, ‘He who spread a mat in a mosque got seventy thousand angels to bless him till the mat was worn out’. And (the Prophet,) peace be on him, said, ‘He who broomed a mosque liberated (so to say) a slave each time he swept it clean.’ And (the Prophet,) peace be on him, said, ‘Whoever illuminated a mosque.for a night to glorify Allāh would have his grave filled with Divine refulgence. His way (to heaven) would be lighted up.....and his sins, whether overt or covert, would be forgiven by Allāh who would grant him a reward.....(equivalent to that of) ten martyrs’.”

(12) On the bands of the piers, in embossed Kūfic characters.

The same as Inscription No. (3) above.

13. (a) On the 1st half of the arch No. (3), i.e., immediately the north wing of the arch No. (3) noticed above, in Kūfic characters in relief.

¹ This tradition is not traceable in the six recognized books of hadīth.

² This tradition has occurred in various forms already, vide Inscription No. 8(a), footnote, on Mont. No. CXVII (Qutb Minār), p. 105.

³, ⁴ and ⁵ These traditions are not available in the authentic records of the Prophet's traditions.

The same as Inscription No. (3) on Mont. No. LXXVI (Tomb of Fīroz Shāh Tughlaq), p. 74, but only up to ومن دخله كان آمنا.

(b) On the 2nd half of the arch No. (3) noticed above, in Kūfic letters in relief.

Qurān, Pt. IV, Ch. 3 entitled آل عمران (The Family of Amran), Secs. 10-11, Verses 97-102, vide also Inscription No. (30) on Mont. No. CXVI ('Alāi Gate), p. 101.

14. (a) Round the Inscription No. 13 (a) and (b) on arch No. (3) noticed above in embossed Naskh characters.

Qurān, Pt. III, Ch. 3 entitled آل عمران (The Family of Amran), Sec. 1 Verses 1-3, but only up to بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم ان الذين كفروا with at the beginning.

(15) On the bands of the piers, in embossed Kūfic characters.

The same as Inscription No. (3) above.

(16) On the arch of the recess No. (2) between the southern arches Nos. (2) and (3) of Altamsh's extension, in embossed Naskh characters.

Qurān, Pt. XXVIII, Ch. 61 entitled المصف (The Ranks), Sec. 2, Verses 12-3, but only up to نصر من الله وفتح قريب.

(17) Inside the arched recess No. (2) noticed above, in Kūfic Tughrā characters in relief, are probably the closing words of Verse 13, Ch. 61, viz., و بشر المؤمنين, vide also Inscription No. (8) supra.

(18) Above the arch of the recess No. (2), in embossed Naskh letters, is the following fragmentary tradition:—

قال عليه السلام عجمي (؟) لا فضل الا بالتقوى¹

Translation.

“(The Prophet,) peace be on him, said, ‘.....non-Arabs, none can acquire excellence except through righteousness.’”

(19) Further above the inscription No. (18) noticed above, in Kūfic characters in relief.

The 1st Muslim creed.

(20) Round the arched recess No. (2) in embossed Naskh lettering.

قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم من صلى صلوات الفجر في الجماعة هون الله تعالى هموم الدنيا [ومن صلى صلوات الظهر في الجماعة] له رسع الله الرزق [ومن صلى صلوات العصر في الجماعة] جعله الله كاليموم ولد² ومن صلى صلوات المغرب في الجماعة فكأنما تصدق ماله [ومن صلى صلوات العشاء في الجماعة فتبارك الله عليه قال رسول الله] صلى الله عليه وسلم من حافظ هذه الصلوات الخمس في الجماعة رسع الله تعالى عليه الصراط⁴

¹ It is not known whence the tradition has been copied and what the missing words can be. Probably it means ‘Whether the Arabs or non-Arabs, none can acquire excellence except through righteousness.’

² The tradition under reference is not traceable in any of the authentic records of Ḥadīth, but the words وجه الله اليوم ولد are meaningless and, in my opinion, they should be read as جعله الله كاليموم ولد (Allāh makes him pure like when he was born).

⁴ This tradition of the Prophet also is not traceable in the recognized books of Ḥadīth.

Translation.

“The Prophet, may Allāh bless and assoil him, said, ‘Whoever offered his morning prayer in congregation got his (worldly) troubles removed by Allāh; and whoever offered his afternoon prayer (in congregation) got his living made plentiful by Allāh; and whoever offered his late afternoon prayer (in congregation) became (as pure) as on the day he was born; and whoever offered his evening prayer in congregation is considered as if he has given away his wealth and (even) his life (in the way of Allāh); and whoever offered his bed-time prayer in congregation received Allāh’s blessing’. (The Prophet,) may Allāh bless and assoil him, said, ‘Whoever observed these five prayers in congregation would have his way (to heaven) widened¹ by Allāh.’”

(55) The stones heaped up outside the southern archway of the tomb of Altamsh are inscribed with the word الملك (The King) in embossed Kūfic letters.

No. CXX.

(A) TRIPOLIĀ (Triple Gateways).

(B) In village Gur-ki-Sarai there are two gateways facing each other, known as Tripoliā Darwāza. Through one of them runs the Delhi-Karnal road while the other is situated just off the road to the east.

(C) Erected in 1141 A. H. (1728-9 A.D.) during the reign of Emperor Muḥammad Shāh by his Nāzir Maḥaldār Khān, the gates look like entrances to a walled enclosure wherein bazars were held.

(D) There is no religious inscription anywhere, but a two-lined historical epigraph in Persian verse executed in Nasta'liq characters appears over the central entrances of both the gateways recording the erection of a road, market and tripolia by Maḥaldār Khān, Nāzir, in 1141 A. H. (1728-9 A.D.).

No. CXXI.

(A) QUDSIYA BĀGH MOSQUE.

(B) In the garden known as the Qudsiya Bāgh.

(C) Built by Nawwāb Qudsiya Begam, originally a dancing girl, who entered the haram of Emperor Muḥammad Shāh and became the mother of Emperor Aḥmad Shāh (1748-54). It was subsequently repaired in 1249 A. H. (1833-4 A.D.) in the reign of Bahādur Shāh II.

(D) The mosque contains no religious inscription and the only epigraph it bears is on a marble slab built into the northern wall of the prayer chamber recording the date of its repairs 1249 A. H. (1833-4 A.D.) and the nom de guerre 'Zafar' of Bahādur Shāh II, the composer of the chronogram.

No. CXXII.

(A) PĪRGHĀIB (Vanished Saint).

(B) On the ridge, near Banjārōnwālī Bāolī.

(C) The monument dates from the time of Fīroz Shāh Tughlaq and is probably a remnant of Kuṣhak-i-Shikār (Hunting Palace) or Qaṣr-i-Jahān Numā (World-showing Palace) referred to in histories.

Tradition, however, asserts that the room containing a cenotaph in the northern apartment of the building was the chillayāh (place of worship) of a saint who being disgusted with the frequent visits of the people of the world asking for his blessings vanished all of a sudden from their midst; hence the name Pīrghāib (Vanished Saint). It is curious that the above mentioned grave is placed, unlike the Muslim graves, west to east, probably because it simply marks the spot of the saint's chillayāh and does not contain his remains.

(D) Inside the chillayāh there are two circular medallions inscribed with the phrase حسبى الله in Naskh letters while there are very faint indications of الله and سبحان الله and the rapid peeling off of plaster and liberal coatings of whitewash are doing them considerable damage.

No. CXXIII.

(A) TOMB OF MAKHDŪM SHĀH 'ĀLAM.

(B) In village Wazirabad near the old Lodī bridge.

(C) Nothing is known about the saint, locally known as Makhdūm Shāh, who lies buried here but the style of the building appears to be of the Tughlaq period.

(D) The only inscription it bears is an evidently modern one engraved on a red sandstone slab fixed at the head of the grave to a small pillar made of bricks and lime plaster. It records the name of the saint only.

No. CXXIV.

(A) MOSQUE.

(B) To west of the tomb of Makhdūm Shāh 'Ālam (No. CXXIII).

(C) Vide note (C) on the tomb of Makhdūm Shāh 'Ālam supra.

(D) (1) The gateway which shows signs of former inscriptional decoration now bears only a small circular medallion inscribed with the phrase سبحان الله while the façade of the mosque is ornamented with circular discs bearing the 1st Muslim creed or the word الله. The inner bay of the prayer chamber also contains circular medallions inscribed with one or the other of the following phrases :—

الملك لله - الحمد لله - الفتح - سبحان الله - حسبى الله

(2) On the arch of the principal mihṛāb, in Naskh characters incised in plaster.

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم or Throne Verse preceded by بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم, but only up to ولا يؤده. Cf. Inscription No. (22) on Mont. No. XI (Sher Shāh's mosque), p. 8.

(3) At the centre of the intrados of the dome is a fragmentary inscription which reads as follows :—

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم حسبى الله ونعم الوكيل
